PHILADELPHIA 2035

LOWER NORTHWEST DISTRICT PLAN

Philadelphia2035 is the city's Comprehensive Plan -- adopted, maintained, and updated by the Philadelphia City Planning Commission (PCPC).

Phase 1 was completed in 2011 with the adoption of the Citywide Vision. This document lays out broad, far reaching goals that are crafted to contribute to a stronger economy, thriving neighborhoods, healthy population, and a smaller environmental footprint for Philadelphia.

Phase 2 of Philadelphia2035 is the DISTRICT PLANS. These plans apply the concepts of the Citywide Vision to specific areas of Philadelphia using PCPC's 18 planning districts to organize the process. The materials presented here today highlight the draft recommendations for the Lower Northwest District Plan. These include:

> Zoning recommendations

> Focus Area recommendations

> Priority recommendations for changes to the physical environment (e.g. neighborhoods, transportation, parks, open space, and historic preservation)
