

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 2-92

WHEREAS, there are numerous public and private agencies and organizations involved in the delivery of the City's justice services;

WHEREAS, there is a need to coordinate the efforts of these agencies and organizations in order to effectively improve the administration of the justice system, and the delivery of justice services, and to reduce and prevent crime;

WHEREAS, there is a need for the City to plan and coordinate for the millions annually it expends on the delivery of its justice services and to improve the management and delivery of those services in a cost-effective and efficient manner;

WHEREAS, federal and state assistance programs have encouraged local government to coordinate its justice services and programs and establish mechanisms for coordination and planning;

WHEREAS, the Commonwealth's designated state planning agency for the justice system, the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency, provides through PL204, that if Philadelphia establishes a coordinating mechanism in accordance with pertinent state and federal laws and policies, that coordinating mechanism shall be advisory to the Pennsylvania Commission on Crime and Delinquency for purposes of coordination, and state and federal assistance.

WHEREAS, the City, through the Chief Executive, officially sponsors annually millions of dollars of justice state, federal, and private foundation funded programs, and matches these funded programs with City revenue, and, therefore, requires its own coordinating mechanism to properly and effectively carry out this sponsorship responsibility;

NOW, THEREFORE, by the power vested in me in accordance with Section 3-100(b) of the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter, it is hereby ordered as follows:

Authorizing the establishment of the Criminal Justice Coordinating Commission and Office.

SECTION 1. The Mayor's Criminal Justice Coordinating Commission is hereby created. The Commission shall be composed of thirty-one (31) members who shall serve with such compensation as determined by City Ordinance, and its function shall be to coordinate and improve the efficiency and effectiveness of justice system operations.

SECTION 2. The functions of the Criminal Justice Coordinating Commission shall be:

- a. To coordinate the justice system's planning, research, and program development efforts.
- b. To prepare a City annual plan projecting Commission goals and objectives, as well as an annual report detailing the performance and progress of the Commission.
- c. To conduct pertinent planning, research and analysis, evaluations, and programs necessary to carry out the mandate of the Commission.
- d. To provide such professional and technical assistance to the City's justice agencies and organizations as shall be necessary to carry out the responsibilities of the Commission.
- e. To coordinate the preparation of the City's state and federally funded justice program as officially sponsored by the City's Chief Executive.
- f. The Criminal Justice Coordinating Commission may accept any allotments of federal, state, local, or foundation funds as properly approved by City Council and may manage and dispose of these in accordance with Commission policy, and in whatever manner may be required by law, and may take advantage of any federal, state, local or foundation programs, grants-in-aid, or other public or private assistance which may be offered or available consistent with councilmanic approval which will accomplish or further the objective of this executive order.

SECTION 3. The Mayor shall appoint the following persons as members of the Criminal Justice Coordinating Commission:

1. Mayor of the City of Philadelphia or his/her designee
2. Managing Director of the City of Philadelphia or his/her designee
