

The Star Players of Philadelphia Parks & Recreation

Founded in 2013, the Star Players are a theater arts group for the Philadelphia Parks & Recreation (PPR) community. The group's mission is to provide cultural activities in which children and adults of various backgrounds can interact through creative expression; to offer participants the chance to perform in front of an audience and showcase their talents; to develop participants' acting, singing and dancing skills through instruction and guidance in those fields; to coincide with and supplement existing PPR programs. Group activities include productions of musicals, dramas, comedies and cabarets, as well as special classes and workshops.

The 2014 season included the following performances from the Star Players:

- Check Please!, Bridesburg Recreation Center, June 2014
- Once on This Island, Venice Island Performing Arts and Recreation Center, October 2014
- A Toymaker's Christmas (original play by Bill Arthur), Venice Island Performing Arts and Recreation Center, December 2014

The 2015 Star Players season will include:

- Harvey (Auditions on February 3 & 4; shows on June 5-7)
- The Producers (Auditions in June; shows in October)
- Third Annual Christmas Show (Performance in December)

For more information about the group, upcoming auditions and performances, contact Bill Arthur at (215) 685-2891 or billarthur1010@yahoo.com, or join the Star Players Facebook group.