About the Mayor

City of Philadelphia
Jim Kenney

I am very excited to announce the beginning of the 2017 City of Philadelphia Employees' Combined Campaign. Every year, your donations and efforts benefit thousands of individuals and communities in and around Philadelphia. I highly encourage you to view the Contributors' Guide to find causes and agencies that you are passionate about, and to support them with a donation through the Campaign. I am also excited to announce that we are partnering with a new Campaign Management Organization that will make the Combined Campaign more streamlined and efficient.

In 2017 the City of Philadelphia Employees' Combined Campaign will celebrate the countless ways that city employees contribute to their communities across Philadelphia and the region. Through voluntarism and giving in the Combined Campaign, city employees drive positive change locally, nationally, and even internationally. Over its 33-year history, the Campaign has raised almost $40 million for thousands of charities. This year, with the help of caring city employees like you, I am confident that we can reach our overall goal of raising $1,000,000 to help support communities in need. I'd like to take this chance to thank you personally for the difference you are making by taking part in the Combined Campaign, because without you the needs of many Philadelphia's would go unmet.

Campaign Honorary Co-Chairs

Arthur Evans

Commissioner, Department of Behavioral Health and Intellectual Disability Services

As the Combined Campaign enters its 33rd year of existence I am proud to be a part of one of the most successful municipal giving campaigns in the country. Over its history the Campaign has raised more than $38 million to benefit individuals and communities in need. Your generosity ensures that those who are sick and are seniors are cared for, families that lack enough food are fed, children and adults in need of proper housing are clothed and housed, and our natural environment is cared for. As Commissioner of the Department of Behavioral Health and Intellectual Disability Services I look forward to another successful campaign year.

Pedro Rodriguez

The Director of the Office of Human Resources for the City of Philadelphia

Mr. Rodriguez is a seasoned community organizer who led several organizations in the Philadelphia area, including director of open boarders project (Proyecto Sin Fronteras,) a Huntington Park/Olney based organization providing community programs such as English classes, computer courses and after-school programs.

He continues to be active in his community serving in various boards, including the imperfect gallery, independence charter school-west, Americans for democratic action, keystone progress education fund and alliance for retired Americans education fund. Mr. Rodriguez also served as an aids educator with Congreso de Latinos Unidos and was associate editor of the weekly community focus/enfoque comunal, the largest bilingual newspaper in Pennsylvania. He has been a professor of Spanish and literature for the last 17 years, part time, at the Spanish language school in center city Philadelphia.

Frequently Asked Questions

Can one small gift even make a difference?

Yes! Last year, over 3,200 employees made gifts that added up to over $659,000 for thousands of charities.

How many charities participate in the Combined Campaign?

City employees are able to choose from 14 umbrella organizations and over 3,000 nonprofits. See the agency list in this Contributors' Guide for a list of all participants.

How can I contribute to the Combined Campaign?

All employees are able to utilize paper pledge cards for check, cash, and/or payroll deduction contributions. In addition all city employees whose payroll is processed by the city's central payroll department can donate through payroll deduction via a fast and secure online giving mechanism. View instructions for online giving at www.phila.gov/combinedcampaign.

Can I designate my gift to a specific member agency or donor choice nonprofit?

Yes, the umbrella organizations that allow you to give to their member agencies or donor choice nonprofits include: America's Charities, Community Health Charities of the Northeast, Earthshare Pennsylvania, Global Impact, and United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey. This can be designated on either a paper pledge card or through the online giving system.

What if I can't find the organization of my choice in the Contributors' Guide?

There are fourteen umbrella organizations that participate in the Campaign. Look for your organization under the most logical umbrella, but review several. If you still cannot locate the organization, call America's Charities at 800-458-9505, dial "1" when prompted.

Will my donation get lost in the shuffle?

The Combined Campaign Management Organization works with city department captains to resolve pledge card errors (such as incorrect payroll numbers, the designation of ineligible charities, unclear handwriting, etc.). A staff member of the Campaign Management Organization researches pledge card errors, individually, to ensure the accurate processing of your gift. This process takes time, but helps ensure accuracy and accountability. Remember, if you give online any errors are detected prior to submission, which ensures your donations reach your designated agency as fast as possible!

How much does the Campaign cost?

Workplace giving is the most inexpensive method of raising money because it enables charities to reach large groups of people at the same time. The Combined Campaign reaches over 30,000 people. If each charity in the Campaign spent its own money reaching this pool of employees, umbrella organizations would spend more. Equally important, Contributors' stretch their charitable dollar further, due to the convenience of payroll deduction, rather than making a one-time gift. Last year, 88% of all city employees who made a donation to the Campaign chose payroll deduction.

100% of your donation is forwarded to Campaign Participating Organizations. Participating Organizations pay the cost of running the Campaign. Administrative and fundraising costs were 2% of the total amount raised last year, while program costs—including training volunteer solicitors, conducting outreach activities, and promoting the Campaign to City employees and the public at-large—were 28% of the total.

For more details and other FAQs? Visit us online at www.phila.gov/combinedcampaign, see your Campaign Captain.
