

First Friday Series

Presents

"Faith, Hope & Recovery: The Role of Spirituality In The Recovery Movement"

Date: Friday, May 4, 2007

Time: 10:00am-12:00pm

Location: Community College Of Philadelphia, Great Hall
17th Street, Between Spring Garden and Callowhill Streets
Philadelphia, PA

Synopsis:

This series will feature faith-based models, programs, and initiatives that are transformative, cutting to the edge, and that really support faith in recovery. It will support the recovery movement into community participation.

There will be a panel discussion on the role of religion and spirituality in supporting recovery and real testimonials of how clergy/faith leaders influenced the recovery journey of recovering persons.

This series will host both innovative approaches and have an inspirational vision of possibilities. Participate in an open-microphone session

Live entertainment included with presentation.

Panel Discussions

Story Telling

Testimonials

Registration is required and space is limited to the first 300 responses received. To register, please complete the attached registration form and fax to Wendy Williams-Blackson @ 215.685.4986.

Open Mic

Entertainment