A Note about Child Care Information Services of Philadelphia

Child Care Information Services (CCIS) is a source for finding, selecting, and paying for child care, including school-age & summer Day Programs. To connect to their services call 1-888-461-KIDS.

CCIS can help you find summer programs that meet your school-age child’s needs and interests. They make referrals only, not recommendations because you are the best judge of your child’s needs.

Financial assistance is available to help working families pay for summer programs for children under the age of 13. The program must be licensed by the Department of Public Welfare. Call 1-888-461-KIDS for an application.

Child Care Information Services has five convenient neighborhood offices. Walk-ins are welcome.

BE A STAR @ your library is the year 2002 Summer Reading Program for children and teens. June 17-Aug.2, 2002. All children and teens who participate may get a free family pass to the Philadelphia Museum of Art. All Free Library Branches, Regionals, the Central Library, and the Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped will have Summer Reading for children and teens. Note: this is not a camp, but a drop-in program where individual children & teens get credit for reading and other independent library activities. Children (up to 6th grade) can sign up at their local library and start a folder. For every library-related activity the child does (reading books, viewing videos, listening to cassettes, CDs, etc.) he or she gets a sticker. The first sticker of the week entitles the child to a prize. Once children have earned the weekly incentive, they can accumulate as many other stickers as they desire. Teens (going into 7-12 grades) can fill out a bookmark/raffle entry every time they read a book or magazine, review a website, read to a younger child, listen to a book on tape, or watch a library video. The more they read, the more chances they have to win a gift certificate from Tower Records, Modell's, Gap/Old Navy or another prize.

SCIENCE IN THE SUMMER, sponsored by Glaxo SmithKline, introduces children to the fun of science. Brief, experiment-oriented courses will be taught at all libraries. This years topic is DREAM MACHINES. Students are divided into two groups: grades 2-3 & grades 4-6. Each course consists of four - 45 minute classes scheduled for one week (Tuesdays to Fridays). Year 2002 Dates: June 25- Aug. 9. Registration is required for SCIENCE IN THE SUMMER and will take place at individual libraries beginning May 28, 2002. Call the library at 215-686- 5372 for additional information about times and locations for the Science in the Summer Program.

MOTHER & CHILD RETREAT/Salvation Army Correctional Services Department
Call Naomi Carroll, Director, 215-787-2824
August 15-18, 2002 at Camp Ladore in Waymart, Penna. Purpose of this retreat is to ease the imminent transition from incarceration to home, giving mothers and their children opportunity to spend quality time together, ultimately renewing and strengthening the Mother and Child relationship in a non-prison environment. Provides positive social and Christian experiences in a camp/lodge setting. Family Corrections Camp is primarily focused on women on Pre-Release status at the State Correctional facilities and Community Correction Centers, who have children in the community.
Based on criteria provided by The Salvation Army Correctional Services Program, the women are approved for participation by Department of Corrections, Parole Officials, and Parole District Administrators. There will be six workshops during the retreat, including one on Parenting Skills and another on Mobilizing Community Resources for Women Following Release from Prison.

SPECIAL FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE

A. Act 4 of 2001 established the Classroom Plus – Pennsylvania’s Education Support Services Program.
Classroom Plus Hotline- 1-800-219-9740

1. What is Classroom Plus?
Classroom Plus provides grants directly to parents of children struggling in math or reading -- so they can purchase after-school tutoring Services. Classroom Plus is aimed at getting these children the extra help they need --early enough to make a difference.

2. How does the Classroom Plus program provide assistance to parents and children?
Parents of eligible children will receive grants of up to $500 per child to purchase after-school tutoring and instruction.

3. What types of education services does the grant certificate cover?
Parents can use the grants to purchase tutoring services from any provider approved by the Dept. of Education. Children can receive tutoring services individually or in a small, group setting. Instruction must take place outside

Bkaplan/Philadelphia Department of Human Services/Children & Youth Division
the regular school day, such as before or after school, on weekends, or during the summer. For a complete list of program guidelines & approved providers, call the Classroom Plus Hotline visit www.state.pa.us, PA Keyword "tutoring grants".

4. How do you know if a child is eligible?
The child's school will be able to tell you if the child is eligible. Classroom Plus offers direct grants to the parents of children in GRADES THREE THROUGH SIX, who in the fifth grade score at the "below basic" performance level on the Pennsylvania System of School Assessment (PSSA), or who in the third or fourth grades score in the bottom quartile on other nationally recognized standardized tests approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

5. If the child is eligible, where do you get a Classroom Plus Grant?
Contact the Classroom Plus Hotline at 1-800-219-9740 and ask for an application to be mailed to you. Parents may apply for a grant as soon as they know their child is eligible.

6. How do you receive the grant money?
After you have been approved, you will receive a Grant Certificate. Then, you may arrange for services from an approved provider. Grants are available on a first-come, first-served basis. A list of approved local providers will be sent to parents along with the grant certificate.
