District Attorney Lynne Abraham and office staffers mark the eighth anniversary of Alex's Lemonade Stand by hosting a stand in the lobby of the District Attorney's Office. The District Attorney's Office is proud to support Alex's Lemonade Stand to 'fight childhood cancer one cup at a time.'

D.A. Abraham will herself serve lemonade for $1.00 a cup at noon in the lobby of the District Attorney's Office. And, she will provide complimentary cookies to 'go with' for those who stop by to support Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation.

"I am proud and honored to host a stand in Alex Scott's name," said District Attorney Abraham. "Alex Scott was the picture of grace and courage and showed us all that one person can really make a difference."

According to the Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation for Childhood Cancer, more than $6-million has been raised for childhood cancer since Alex Scott set up her first front-yard stand in June of 2000. Since then, Alex's Lemonade Stand foundation has evolved into a nationwide fundraising for childhood cancer. Donations to Alex's Lemonade Stand Foundation fund pediatric cancer research at top children's hospitals across the country.
