District Attorney Lynne Abraham Issues Statement in Response to the Decision of the Board of Probation and Parole to Deny the Release of Three MOVE Members

April 22, 2008----District Attorney Lynne Abraham today issued the following statement in response to the decision of the Pennsylvania Board of Probation and Parole to deny the release of three members of MOVE:

“We agree with today’s decision. They have never expressed regret or remorse for their actions. They have not even acknowledged that they murdered Officer James Ramp and wounded several other police officers and firefighters. They should serve as much time as possible.”
