

PUBLIC HEARINGS ON INTER-GROUP CONFLICT AND VIOLENCE IN SCHOOLS

BE A PART OF THE SOLUTION!

- Have you experienced bullying or violence at your school because of your race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, disability, sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation?
- How did your school respond?
- Who helps to reduce violence and conflict and create harmony at your school (teachers, staff, classmates, outside programs, community organizations)?
- What suggestions do you have to make your school safer?

The Philadelphia Commission on Human Relations is holding a series of public hearings, designed as listening sessions, to hear from students, parents, faculty, police, community members, and youth organizations about violence and intimidation in the City's public schools.

The hearings will focus on violence and intimidation motivated by race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, disability, sex, gender identity, and sexual orientation.

The next hearing will be:

Tuesday, June 8, 2010

4pm-6pm

Towey Recreation Center

1832 N. Howard Street (Howard & Berks)

Language interpretation services will be available by request.
