MAYOR NUTTER CONGRATULATES SOUL ON CHAMPIONSHIP

July 30 – Mayor Michael A. Nutter will not be in Philadelphia tomorrow for the Philadelphia Soul Championship Celebration, but would like to issue the following statement congratulating the Philadelphia Soul on their Arena Football League Championship:

“Philadelphia Soul’s victory on Sunday is a massive achievement for the city and for the team, and it marks the culmination of an incredible few years,” said Mayor Nutter. “It’s great to have a championship team in Philadelphia again and the players, coaches, staff, fans, owners, and families of the Soul all deserve a huge congratulation for their dedication and hard work. Philly’s got Soul!”

Mayor Nutter also paid tribute to the important work done by the Philadelphia Soul off the football field.

“Philadelphia Soul gives back to Philadelphia in so many ways, from building homes to renovating parks, and we should also take this opportunity to recognize the team’s contribution to community life in this city.”

The public is invited to a celebration outside City Hall tomorrow at 3pm with the team, co-majority owners Jon Bon Jovi and Craig Spencer, as well as minority owner Leo Carlin Jr., and team president and minority owner Ron Jaworski.
