FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lunch in LOVE Park is on a Roll!

Philadelphia, PA (May 15, 2012) – LOVE Park’s tradition of offering fresh food to downtown Philadelphia visitors and citizens has been chugging along since the Fall of 2010. Each weekday a new variety of savory and sweet trucks dazzle the hungry crowds while music plays and tourists take advantage of the convenient Welcome Center at 16th Street and John F. Kennedy Boulevard. Beginning this Spring, however, there are 15 reasons to make your way to the iconic park for a taste of local Food Truck fare.

The result of a recent concession solicitation conducted by the Philadelphia Parks & Recreation Department, the list of participating Food Trucks has grown to 15 of the best variety and quality food truck providers in the city! Speaking of variety, the cuisines now offered include Native American, Venezuelan, Asian fusion, frozen yogurt, classic brick oven pizza and all of the Philly favorites.

Philadelphia Parks & Recreation has been working for several years towards the goal of integrating in LOVE Park three of Philadelphia’s passions: Food, Art and Music. Inside the Welcome Center is an ongoing art gallery for local artists to display their beautiful and engaging art. This summer marks the 9th consecutive Summer in LOVE concert series which promotes local musicians who perform free concerts weekdays from Noon – 2pm, while the LOVE Park Food Trucks have been making headlines across the country with an innovative approach to offering street food vending in an iconic park.

“The food trucks help create a welcoming and fun experience here at LOVE Park,” Dan Pennachietti, owner of Lil Dan’s Food Truck, said. “It adds to the lively atmosphere creating a friendly environment, there’s something for everyone!”

Whether it’s breakfast or lunch, the food trucks are parked alongside the Welcome Center in LOVE Park from 7 a.m.-10:30 a.m for breakfast and 11:00 a.m.-3 p.m. for Lunch.
