

City of Philadelphia's
Division of Social Services,
Department of Behavioral Health and Mental Retardation Services and Department of Human Services

Improving Systems, Improving Lives

February 2, 2006

PUBLIC NOTICE

Mayor John F. Street has appointed the Blue Ribbon Commission on Children's Behavioral Health.

As the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Commission address a host of behavioral health issues, including emotional and mental health needs of children and adolescents as well as treatment of substance use, the Commission is seeking the community's participation in two days of Public Testimony on February 28 and March 1.

The Commission needs to hear from all those interested in children and adolescent behavioral health issues, particularly those who have been directly affected.

If you are interested in participating in the Public Testimony before the Mayor's Blue Ribbon Commission, please call (215) 568-0760 to register for one of the following dates:

- February 28, 2006, 12 noon -3 p.m.
- March 1, 2006, 5 p.m.- 8 p.m.

The Blue Ribbon Commission's Public Testimony will take place at City Hall, Room 202. If you are interested in voicing your views on children and adolescent behavioral health issues to the Commission but are unable to attend, please send us your comments no later than February 24, 2006 to:

Natalie Turner, Communications Unit
Department of Behavioral Health/Mental Retardation Services
Aramark Tower, 1101 Market Street, 8th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19107
E-mail: Natalie.Turner@phila.gov