

Try On The Arts!

Here is your Winter/Spring 2003 Cultural Calendar from the Philadelphia City Representative's Office of Arts and Culture

---

A note from Mayor John F. Street

Greetings!

It gives me great pleasure to present the sixth edition of our Try On The Arts! guide to arts and cultural activities across the City of Philadelphia. Produced by the City Representative's Office of Arts and Culture, we offer this guide so that residents and visitors alike can take advantage of countless concerts, plays, dance performances, exhibits and activities for the whole family.

Let the Try On The Arts! guide be your roadmap to Philadelphia's wonderful arts and cultural activities.

Also, we want to thank the Greater Philadelphia Tourism Marketing Corporation for their support and commitment to this important project.

Be sure to keep this handy guide with you at all times and remember to Try On The Arts!

Mayor John F. Street
City of Philadelphia

This guide is prepared through the Philadelphia Office of the City Representative, Arts and Culture. We are pleased to welcome the Greater Philadelphia Tourism Marketing Corporation as a partner for the upcoming season. This listing features information from non-profit arts and culture organizations from every corner of the city. It is our intention to provide this listing on a semi-annual basis, for your information and enjoyment. If you would like to add your Philadelphia non-profit arts and culture organization to the next listing, please fax Ms. Patricia Frosch at 215.683.2105 or email her at : patricia.frosch@phila.gov.
