

Administrative Rule #4¹

Waiving of License and Permit Fees for City Agencies

No agency, department, board or commission of the City of Philadelphia shall charge a fee, for the insurance of a license or permit for inspection, to any City Department where the work requiring the license or permit is performed exclusively by the City Department and is funded from the General Fund.

The waiver does not pertain to work which is performed for a City department under contract with outside parties.

The Philadelphia Parking Authority is hereby granted an exception to Ad Board Rule No. 4.

The Redevelopment Authority of Philadelphia shall be exempt from the payment of fees for the issuance of licenses for vacant residential houses or lots.

¹Established August 6, 1954. Amended September 2, 1986, December 5, 2000, April 10, 2001.