

Hope Caldwell, Chief Deputy Integrity Officer, began her law career doing Sarbanes-Oxley compliance and contract management for CDI Corporation. For the last five years, she worked in the City of Philadelphia Law Department first with the Contracts and Finance Unit reviewing and approving contracts and RFPs as well as implementing the City's new processes for professional services contracts. As Deputy City Solicitor, she then worked in the Real Estate and Economic Development Unit primarily for the Department of Parks and Recreation by writing, negotiating and approving licenses, leases and easements for Fairmount Park land. She obtained her journalism degree from Pennsylvania State University and her law degree from Duquesne University. She can be reached at 215-686-2120 or hope.caldwell@phila.gov.
