

Extension Coupons and Worksheets

Extensions can be filed for Business Privilege Tax and Net Profits Tax returns. The extension period is the same granted by the federal government.

Note: While there is an extension period to file a return, there are no extensions for tax payments. You must pay 100% of the estimated tax due by the original due date of the return to avoid interest and penalty charges. Extension worksheets and coupons are in the Business Privilege and Net Profits Tax booklets.

Extension coupons and worksheets cannot be obtained from our website.
