(8) “Victim” or “survivor” means an individual who has been subjected to domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking.

(9) “Victim services organization” means a nonprofit, nongovernmental organization that provides assistance to victims of domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking or to advocates for such victims, including a rape crisis center, an organization carrying out a domestic violence program, an organization operating a shelter or providing counseling services, or a legal services organization or other organization providing assistance through the legal process.

§9-3202. Leave requirement.

(1) Basis. An employee who is a victim of domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking or has a family or household member who is a victim of domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking whose interests are not adverse to the employee as it relates to the domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking may take unpaid leave from work to address domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking by:

(a) seeking medical attention for, or recovering from, physical or psychological injuries caused by domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking to the employee or the employee's family or household member;

(b) obtaining services from a victim services organization for the employee or the employee's family or household member;

(c) obtaining psychological or other counseling for the employee or the employee's family or household member;

(d) participating in safety planning, temporarily or permanently relocating, or taking other actions to increase the safety of the employee or the employee's family or household member from future domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking or ensure economic security; or

(e) seeking legal assistance or remedies to ensure the health and safety of the employee or the employee's family or household member, including preparing for or participating in any civil or criminal legal proceeding related to or derived from domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking.

(2) Period. Subject to §9-3203, an employee shall be entitled to a total of:

(a) 8 workweeks of leave during any 12-month period from an employer who employs 50 or more employees for each working day during each of 20 or more calendar workweeks in the current or preceding calendar year; or

(b) 4 workweeks of leave during any 12-month period from an employer who employs less than 50 employees for each working day during each of 33 or more calendar workweeks in the current and preceding calendar year.

[This Chapter does not create a right for an employee to take unpaid leave that exceeds the unpaid leave time allowed under, or is in addition to the unpaid leave time permitted by, the federal Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (29 U.S.C. 2601 et seq.). If an employee who is entitled to 8 weeks of unpaid leave under this Chapter has taken more than four weeks of unpaid FMLA leave within the past twelve months, that employee's entitlement to unpaid leave under this Chapter shall be reduced until the sum of the previously taken unpaid leave and the entitlement to leave under this Chapter does not exceed a total of twelve weeks of unpaid leave.

If an employee who is entitled to 4 weeks of unpaid leave under this Chapter has taken more than eight weeks of unpaid leave within the past twelve months, that employee's entitlement to unpaid leave under this Chapter shall be reduced until the sum of the previously taken unpaid leave and the entitlement to leave under this Chapter does not exceed a total of twelve weeks of unpaid leave.]

(3) Schedule. Leave described in paragraph (1) may be taken intermittently or on a reduced work schedule.

§9-3203. Notice.

The employee shall provide the employer with at least 48 hours' advance notice of the employee's intention to take the leave, unless providing such notice is not practicable. When an unscheduled absence occurs, the employer may not take any action against the employee if the employee, within [a reasonable period] forty five (45) days after [the absence]~~the employer requests certification~~, provides such certification under §9-3204.

§9-3204. Certification.

(1) In general. The employer may require the employee to provide certification to the employer that:

(a) the employee or the employee's family or household member is a victim of domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence]~~assault, or stalking~~; and

(b) the leave is for one of the purposes enumerated in §9-3202(1).

The employee shall provide such certification to the employer within [a reasonable period]~~forty five (45) days~~ after the employer requests certification.

(2) Contents.

An employee may satisfy the certification requirement of paragraph (1) by providing to the employer a sworn statement of the employee along with at least one of the following described documents which corroborate the employee's certification:

(a) documentation from an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim services organization, an attorney, a member of the clergy, or a medical or other professional from whom the employee or the employee's family or household member has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking or the effects of the violence; or

(b) a police or court record; or

(c) other corroborating evidence.

* * *

§9-3206. Employment and benefits.

* * *

(2) Maintenance of health benefits.

* * *

(b) Failure to return from leave. The employer may recover the premium that the employer paid for maintaining coverage for the employee and the employee's family or household member under such group health plan during any period of leave under this Chapter if:

(i) the employee fails to return from leave under this Chapter after the period of leave to which the employee is entitled has expired; and

(ii) the employee fails to return to work for a reason other than the continuation, recurrence, or onset of domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking that entitles the employee to leave pursuant to this Chapter.

(c) Certification.

(i) Issuance. An employer may require an employee who claims that the employee is unable to return to work because of a reason described in subparagraph (b)(ii) to provide, within [a reasonable period] forty five (45) days after making the claim, certification to the employer that the employee is unable to return to work because of that reason.

(ii) Contents. An employee may satisfy the certification requirement of clause (i) by providing to the employer:

(I) documentation from an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim services organization, an attorney, a member of the clergy, or a medical or other

§9-3209. Notification

Every employer in the City shall post and keep posted, in conspicuous places on the premises of the employer where notices to employees are customarily posted and on the employer's public and internal websites, if such exist, in locations where employment related notices are customarily posted online, a notice, to be prepared or approved by the [Philadelphia Human Relations Commission] Philadelphia Commission on Human Relations, summarizing the requirements of this Chapter and information pertaining to the filing of a charge. The notice shall include the contact information of organizations which provide free assistance to victims of domestic violence, sexual assault or stalking, and shall encourage employees to seek assistance from such organizations in complying with the terms of this Chapter. The [Philadelphia Human Relations Commission] Philadelphia Commission on Human Relations shall furnish copies of summaries and rules to employers upon request without charge and shall publish these documents on the City's official website.

§9-3210. Effect on other laws and employment benefits

(a) More protective laws, agreements, programs and plans

Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to supersede any provision of any federal, state, or local law, collective bargaining agreement, or employment benefits program or plan that provides:

(1) greater leave benefits for victims of domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking than the rights established under this Chapter; or

(2) leave benefits for a larger population of victims of domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking (as defined in such law, agreement, program or plan) than the victims of domestic violence, [or] sexual [violence] assault, or stalking covered under this Chapter.

(b) Less protective laws, agreements, programs and plans
