

Goal 2: The Education and Health of Philadelphians Improves

Each quarter the City spotlights progress made towards one of the Mayor's goals.

Goal 2 is about enhancing educational opportunities and outcomes and advancing the health and well-being of Philadelphians.

High School Graduation

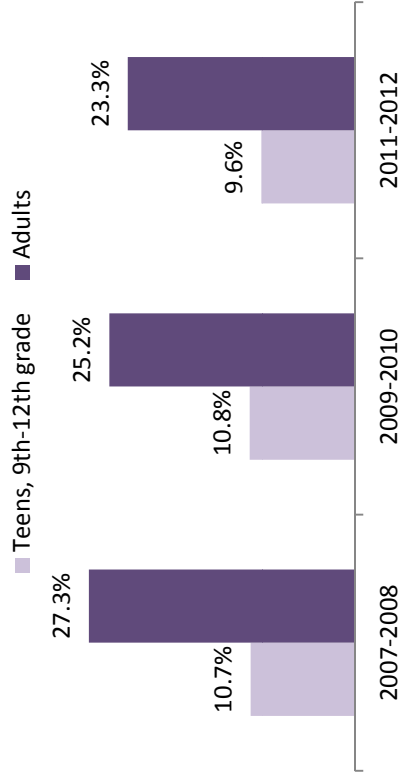

The percent of School District of Philadelphia students graduating high school within four years has increased from 57% to 65%.

Source: American Community Survey, 1-Year Estimates

Teen and Adult Smoking

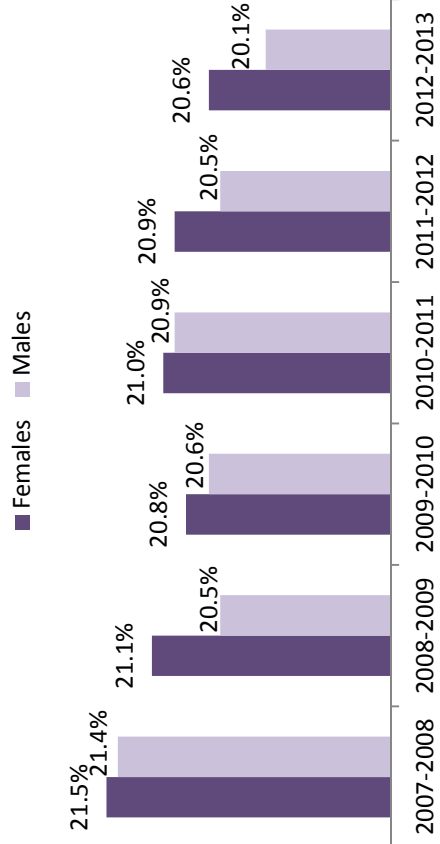

The City has seen a decrease in smoking rates among both adults and teens.

Source: Public Health Management Corporation Household Health Survey, May 2013

Obesity Prevalence in Students Aged 5-18

Obesity rates among children has started to decline.

Source: Philadelphia School District

Philadelphians with a College Degree

Between 2008 and 2013 the City added 64,000 people aged 25 with at least a bachelor's degree

Source: American Community Survey, 1-Year estimates