8.14 — An appointed officer or employee may engage or participate in personal political expression and activity that is directed toward the success or failure of a political party, candidate or political group, including the following, so long as he or she complies with Subparts B, C, D, E, and H and so long as he or she does not do so in concert or coordination with a political party, candidate, or partisan political group:

a. — Publicly expressing an opinion on political matters or candidates, including in letters to the editor or on the internet;

b. — Signing a political petition, such as a nominating petition, including those that are circulated by a political party, candidate or partisan political group;

c. — Distributing political literature that was not created by a political party, candidate or partisan political group;

d. — Making contributions intended for a political purpose (except for appointed officers and employees of the Police Department); and

e. — Attending political rallies, conventions, fundraisers or other political events solely as a spectator.

8.15 — Political activities organized by a civic, community, labor, or professional organization. An appointed officer or employee may engage or participate in activities organized or sponsored by a civic, community, labor, or professional organization that are directed toward the success or failure of a political party, candidate, or partisan political group so long as the organization has not acted in concert or coordination with that political party, candidate, or partisan political group.

8.16 — Political buttons, signs, and stickers. As long as he or she complies with the requirements of Subparts B and C, an appointed officer or employee may wear political buttons and may display political signs or stickers, including buttons, signs, and stickers he or she obtains from a political party, candidate, or partisan political group. However, an appointed officer or employee shall not distribute buttons, signs, or stickers that he or she obtains from a political party, candidate, or partisan political group.

EXAMPLES FOR SUBPART F

   party, candidate, or partisan political group.

SUBPART I. FAMILY MEMBER OF A CANDIDATE

8.11 Family member of a candidate.

8.20 An appointed officer or employee who is the family member of a candidate may appear in photographs of the candidate’s family that appear in a political advertisement, broadcast, campaign literature, or similar material. A family member also may attend political events with the candidate, but may not engage in any other activity that would be prohibited by this Regulation.

Examples for Paragraph 8.11 Subpart I Example 1): An employee who is the spouse of a candidate may stand in the receiving line and sit at the head table during a political fundraising dinner honoring the spouse, but he may not organize, speak at, distribute invitations to, or sell tickets to the event.

Example 2): An appointed officer who is the daughter of a candidate may appear in a family photograph that is printed in a campaign flier, but she may not distribute the flier at a campaign rally.
8.12 City Council employees.

In addition to activity permitted by Paragraphs 8.8 through 8.11, so long as he or she complies with the applicable restrictions set forth in Subpart B, an appointed officer or employee of City Council may:

a. Take part in the management or affairs of a political party or in a political campaign, including engaging in activity in coordination with a candidate, political party, or political campaign.

b. Republish or distribute printed campaign literature that was produced or paid for by a candidate, political party, or political campaign.
