

Philadelphia's Jail Population

July 2018

This summary is based on a merge between jail and court data from the baseline (July 30th, 2015) and present day (July 31st, 2018).

MacArthur Safety and Justice Challenge

Introduction

Progress to Date

35.8%

In 2016, Philadelphia was awarded $3.5 million dollars as part of the MacArthur Foundation's Safety and Justice Challenge which is a national initiative to reduce local jail populations and the rate of racial, ethnic, and economic disparities in the criminal justice system.

Since then, Philadelphia has implemented a number of collaborative reform measures with justice and behavioral health partners to help achieve a target reduction of 34% in the city's jail population. This summary provides a high level look at progress to date and comparison of the current population to baseline data.
