Financing Interest Form

The Philadelphia Business Lending Network is a group of nonprofit lenders, for-profit lenders, and other funders, who work together with Philadelphia's Department of Commerce to improve access to capital for small businesses throughout Philadelphia. Member organizations provide loans, grants, and technical assistance to small businesses in order to help them start and grow.

This form helps Network members learn about your business and your capital needs. Complete the form below and email it to loan.info@phila.gov or fax it to 215-683-2150 Attention: Business Lending Network. Your information will be shared with the Network members and if your project and capital needs match available resources, members of the network will contact you directly within five (5) business days.

This form is not a loan or grant application and there is no guarantee of approval from any of the members. If one of the members is interested in working with you, they will contact you for more information.
