

Know Your Representatives

DISTRICT MAP OF PHILADELPHIA
Find the name, office, phone number, and email of your District Councilmember in the chart below

As a Philadelphia resident, you have representation in the Mayor's Office and in Philadelphia City Council!

The Mayor and City Council work together to:

- ✓ pass and carry out legislation;
- ✓ create policies to improve the lives of Philadelphia residents and businesses; and
- ✓ establish annual budgets that reflect our city's priorities.

MAYOR'S OFFICE

Philadelphia's Mayor is James F. Kenney. The Kenney Administration is responsible for carrying out laws passed by Philadelphia City Council and proposing new programs and policies. In early 2020, the Mayor's Office announced its priorities for the second term.

You can reach the Mayor's Office at james.kenney@phila.gov and 215-686-2181.

PHILADELPHIA CITY COUNCIL

Philadelphia City Council is made up of 17 members.

Ten of the members are "District Councilmembers," meaning they represent one part of the city. The other seven Councilmembers are "At-Large," meaning they represent every Philadelphian.

How to Get Ready for the 2020 Election

On November 3, 2020, registered voters in Philadelphia can vote for national and state representatives:

- ★ The President of the United States;
- ★ Representative in Congress;
- ★ Attorney General;
- ★ State Treasurer;
- ★ Senator in the General Assembly; and
- ★ Representative in the General Assembly

Philadelphians who have voted in previous years will notice many new changes to the voting process in 2020, two of which are:

- It is now easier for registered voters to make their choice prior to Election Day because Pennsylvania updated its procedures and timelines for absentee and mail-in balloting.
- There are new voting machines in every county in Pennsylvania, including Philadelphia County

KEY DATES FOR THE 2020 ELECTION

- ☐ JUNE 2, 2020
Primary Election Day
- ☐ OCTOBER 19, 2020
Last day to register before the November Election
- ☐ OCTOBER 27, 2020
Last day to apply for a mail-in or civilian absentee ballot
- ☐ NOVEMBER 3, 2020
Last day for County Boards of Elections to receive voted mail-in and civilian absentee ballots
- ☐ NOVEMBER 3, 2020
General Election Day

Step 1: Register to Vote

Eligible Philadelphians must register by October 19, 2020 to vote in this November's election. Not sure if you are registered? Check out bit.ly/VoteStatusPA.

There are different ways to register in Philadelphia—just choose what's best for you!

REGISTER TO VOTE ONLINE

You can register to vote through the Pennsylvania Department of State's online application. Before you begin, be sure to have your Pennsylvania driver's license or PennDOT ID card handy. If you don't have one, there are other options. Once you submit your online application, it will be forwarded to the appropriate county voter registration office for processing. Visit bit.ly/RegisterVotePHL to get started.

REGISTER TO VOTE IN PERSON

 You can register to vote at:

The Philadelphia Voter Registration Office
520 N. Columbus Blvd, 5th Floor
Philadelphia, PA 19123
Mon-Fri, 8:30 AM – 5:00 PM

The Philadelphia County Board of Elections
Room 142 City Hall
Philadelphia, PA 19107
Mon-Fri, 8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

REGISTER TO VOTE BY MAIL

The City Commissioners and the Philadelphia Voter Registration Office supply Voter Registration Mail Applications to all persons and organizations who request them, including candidates, political parties, political bodies and other federal, state, and municipal offices.

Voter Registration Applications are also available at:

- U.S. Post Offices
- Philadelphia Public Libraries
- State Liquor Stores
- Other State Government Offices

 You can download and print the application at bit.ly/VoteAppPA.

REGISTER TO VOTE AT PENNDOT

You can register to vote at a PA Department of Transportation photo license center when you obtain or update your driver's license.

Step 2: Learn the New Voting System

Philadelphia voters started using new voting machines in 2019. These machines are designed to be simple and secure. For more information and a preview of what you'll see in the voting booth in 2020, check out the Philadelphia City Commissioners' website at bit.ly/VotingSystemPA or call 215-686-1590.
