

Has your family lost
income due to COVID?

Are you waiting for your unemployment
compensation
assistance to come?

You may be eligible for a new Emergency
Assistance Program (EAP) offered by the state.

To be eligible you must be:

- A family with children or a pregnant woman
- Who was working as of March 11, 2020
- And lost more than 50% of your income due to COVID-19
- With savings of less than $1,000

If your income is now less than 150% of the federal poverty level (about $2,700/month for a family of three), you may be eligible for a one-time cash grant. Income limits and grant amount change with family size.

Get about $600 to $1,200
depending on family size
