

Building a Fair Future for All Philadelphians

Philadelphia Beverage Tax Program Updates
Winter 2021

#RebuildPHL

Rebuild is a once-in-a-generation opportunity to invest hundreds of millions of dollars in improvements to Philadelphia's parks, recreation centers, and libraries.

- 65 facilities with work underway
- 41 completed projects—from swings and spray grounds to roof replacements and new sidewalks
- 96 diverse small businesses enrolled in Rebuild business support programs
- 34.4% of contract dollars awarded to minority-owned businesses and 25.5% to women-owned businesses
- 42.6% of hours worked by women and people of color
- 27 Philadelphians accepted into a workforce development program
 - 15% of trainees are women, 100% are people of color
 - 70% of trainees accepted into union apprenticeships
 - 17,153 paid career training hours completed by Rebuild trainees

PHLpreK offers free, quality pre-K to Philadelphia children ages 3-4. There are no income requirements for families.

- 137 PHLpreK sites citywide offering 3,300 seats in the 2020-2021 school year, including virtual learning opportunities in response to COVID-19
- 8,000+ children served since January 2017
- 93% of providers have high-quality ratings in the state's STARS system
- 98% of PHLpreK families would recommend the program to others
- PHLpreK employs teaching staff in 241 classrooms
- Over 2,500 instructional coaching sessions funded for pre-K teachers and providers in the 2019-2020 school year

Did you know?

A study published in October 2020 found no evidence that the Philadelphia Beverage Tax negatively impacted employment in the city.

#CommunitySchoolsPHL

Community Schools are neighborhood public schools that use City resources and partnerships to support students and families.

- 17 Community Schools with 9,400 children enrolled
- Over 570 students have received City-funded support to improve their regular attendance
- 1,200+ out-of-school time opportunities available for elementary and middle school students beginning January 2021
- More than 7,300 students and families received food, school supplies, and other necessities through Coordinator-supported events
- 307 students participated in summer out-of-school time (OST) programs
- Over 250 internships and out-of-school time opportunities created for high school students this school year