Give it a rest!!!! Stop breaking the banks of the people who pay their bills!!!!!! It's disgraceful so a 2 year price increase of just shy of 17% is outrageous. If you were selling an actual product your business would be GONE!! Why not just go with a flat 17% instead of masking it under 2 separate increases?!? Because you all like to play optic games! This is why people are fleeing this democratic shit hole also known as Philadelphia!
And in the end then who will be left to pay your outrageous rates?!? Let me guess govt bailouts!

Shame on this city for breaking the banks of hard working bill payers!!!!

Can't wait to leave this city in quick order! It's ashame been here 40 years I'm the last member of my family left!!!!
Good riddance!!!!!!! 🍷🍷🍷
