Good afternoon WaterRateBoard, my name is Norma and I am a Water customer. I do not feel as though a rate increase is needed at this time although everything has increased in price across the country, water, to me, should not be one of these God given blessings that does. I understand that it costs to run a municipality as I once help administer services within The City of Philadelphia.

Thank you for hearing me and I look forward to hearing from you in the future.

God bless,
Norma J
