

Instructions and Application Form for a Philadelphia Body Art Artist/Apprentice Certificate

1. Philadelphia Body Art Establishments must have a valid, certified Philadelphia Body Art Artist present at all times.
2. These designated employees must complete a Bloodborne Pathogens (BBP) training that is approved by the Philadelphia Department of Public Health and must obtain an official Philadelphia Department of Public Health Body Art Artist/Apprentice Certificate (Certificate).
3. The Certificate must be posted at the body art establishment where the public can easily view it.
4. All artist certificates and tattoo apprentice certificates are valid for three (3) years and all body piercing apprentice certificates are valid for one and a half (1.5) years.
5. To apply for a Certificate, an applicant can apply in person or by mail to the Philadelphia Department of Public Health, Environmental Engineering Office, 321 University Avenue, Philadelphia, PA 19104.
6. To apply for a Certificate or a Replacement Certificate, an applicant must submit:
 - a. A copy of the BBP training certificate (for Body Art Artists only), and
 - b. A completed application for a Philadelphia Department of Public Health Body Art Artist/Apprentice Certificate (available online), and
 - c. A money order for $40 made payable to *Philadelphia Health Department – EHS, and
 - d. Official documentation stating that he/she has been conducting this work full time for at least three (3) years (for new Philadelphia Body Art Artists only).
 - e. For an apprentice, a letter (stating that the certified Body Art Artist is taking the applicant on as a Body Art Apprentice) signed by both the artist and apprentice must be submitted with the application.
 - f. For a replacement certificate, a money order for $65 payable to Philadelphia Health Department – EHS, along with a written statement of the reason why a replacement certificate is needed, must be submitted with the application.
7. Within a maximum of 30 business days after receipt of a complete application, the Environmental Engineering Office will mail the Certificate to the mailing address provided on the application submitted by the applicant or notify the applicant his/her Certificate is available for pick up.

* please contact our office via email if you would like to pay the fee online
