

PHILADELPHIA'S PRISON POPULATION | JUNE 2022

MacArthur Safety and Justice Challenge

First Judicial District of Pennsylvania
Department of Research and Development

In 2016, Philadelphia received $3.5 million dollars as part of the MacArthur Foundation's Safety and Justice Challenge - a national initiative to decrease local jail populations and address racial, ethnic, and economic disparities in the criminal justice system. Philadelphia implemented a number of collaborative reform measures with justice and behavioral health partners. Efforts to achieve a 50% reduction in the city's prison population were bolstered by an additional $4 million dollars awarded in October 2018. To date, Philadelphia's prison population is down 48.1% from 8,082 in July 2015 (Baseline) to 4,198 in June 2022. This summary report provides a high level glance at progress by comparing the current population to baseline data.
