

Intercity Bus Loading Relocation – The City of Philadelphia will be temporarily relocating passenger loading and drop off operations for four interstate bus companies to Spring Garden Street and Columbus Boulevard on November 16th, 2023. The four companies are Flix, Greyhound, CoachUSA (Megabus), and Peter Pan. Peter Pan service may be available starting November 10th (please check with this provider for details).

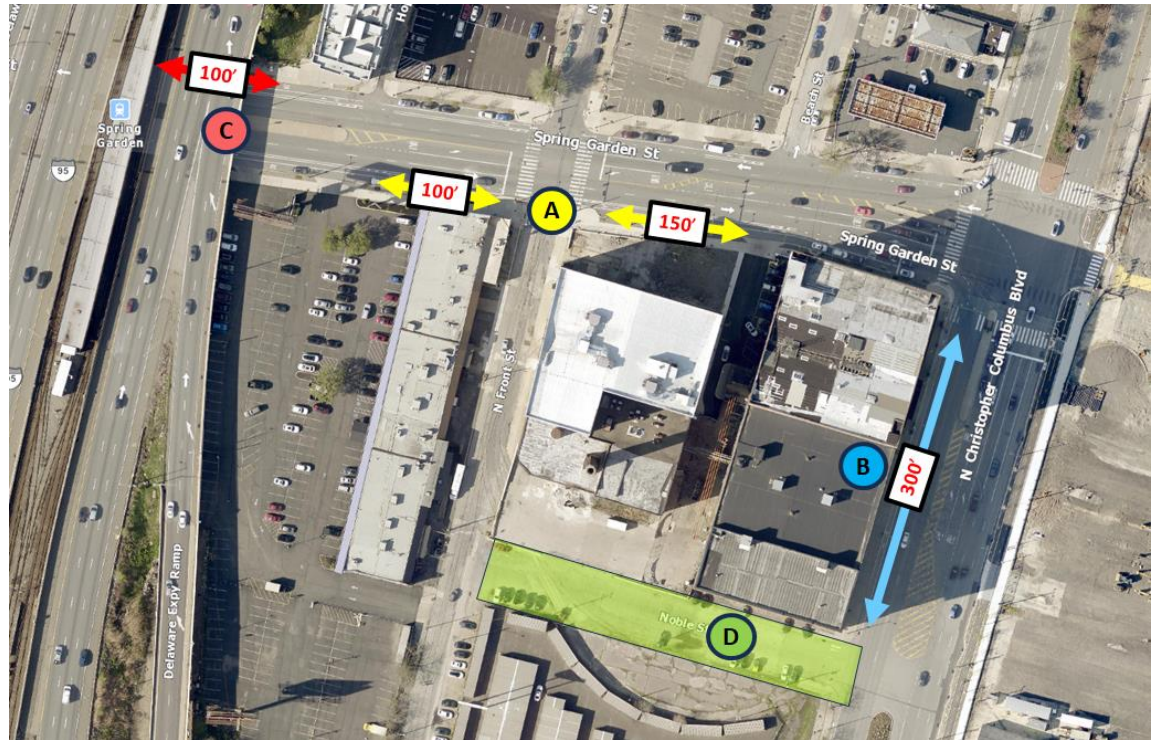

Description of Activities by Location

(A) Starting on November 10, 2023, loading will be permitted on the south curb of Spring Garden Street on either

(B) Starting November 16, 2023, loading will be permitted along 300 feet south of Spring Garden Street.

(C) Between November 16, 2023 and November 30th CoachUSA/Megabus will conduct loading operations along the north curb in the existing bus loading area adjacent to the SEPTA Spring Garden Station Exit.

(D) On Thanksgiving week, Noble Street will be cleared of parking, paved and bus layover, and spill over loading will be permitted on the edge of the public right of way.

OTHER KEY ACTIVITIES

- 11/8 CITY to issue press announcement describing the re-location and post online information and updates.
- POLICE to provide enhanced presence beginning 11/16/2023
- By Thanksgiving, City and bus companies will coordinate on providing portable bathroom facilities
- We anticipate ticket sales and waiting to be available at 520 N. Columbus Boulevard
- For more information, please contact Beverly Woods at Beverly.Woods@phila.gov
- See <https://www.phila.gov/documents/intercity-bus-loading-drop-off-relocation/> for details.