

PROVIDES PROTECTION AGAINST WAGE THEFT

Chapter §9-4300 — Wage Theft Complaints

Examples of Wage Theft includes:

Failure to pay overtime.
Failure to pay minimum wage.
Failure to pay all hours worked.
Failure to pay promised benefits.
Failure to pay amount promised.
Work off the clock.
Wrongful tip deductions.
Wrongful pay deduction.

RETALIATION BY EMPLOYERS IS ILLEGAL.

Employer Requirements:

The employer must pay all compensation to all employees.

The employer will inform each employee of their rights under this law.

The employer will include this information in any employee handbook.

The employer will keep records of hours worked and/or records of compensation provided to all employees.

File a Complaint If...

- The complaint is filed within 3 years of when wage theft occurred.
- The Wage Theft occurred within city limits.
- The amount of stolen wages is more than $100 and less than $10,000.

Learn More

EMPLOYERS

Request compliance assistance by contacting the Office of Worker Protections.

EMPLOYEES

File a complaint by contacting the Office of Worker Protections

