I. PURPOSE OF REQUEST FOR IDEAS

A. Introduction (Administrative Overview)

The City of Philadelphia Department of Human Services (DHS) has many complex financial systems and revenue collection processes to provide placement maintenance for children and youth known to the system. The various revenue streams that create our annual budget include, but are not limited to, Title IV-E, Title IV-B, TANF, Act 148, and PA Special Grants.

Children in the custody of DHS are eligible for certain entitlements and benefits granted by the Social Security Administration.

DHS seeks input from a vendor(s) with knowledge of these revenue collection processes as well as requirements related to the Social Security Representative Payee Program, conservator accounts, public benefits and income tax law, and financial literacy and assistance for young people exiting care to support DHS with developing a structure to provide protection of non-maintenance benefits in the most conducive way to educate and inform our practice and clients. DHS is seeking guidance that is family and child centered.

B. Background

Federal regulations allow for children/youth in foster care to receive concurrent placement maintenance and benefits from the county children and youth agency (CCYA) and the Social Security Administration (SSA). These Social Security benefits may include RSDI and Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

Retirement, Survivor's, and Disability Insurance (RSDI)

The SSA-managed Retirement, Survivors, and Disability Insurance (RSDI) program refers to a social insurance program that protects workers and their families from a loss of earnings because of retirement, death, or disability. Social Security benefits are based on the earnings of a worker who has paid into the system by paying Federal Insurance Contributions Act (FICA) tax for a specified period of time. A worker, or their family or dependents, can receive RSDI benefits upon the worker's attainment of a certain retirement age, disability, or death. A child/youth in foster care may be eligible for RSDI payment benefits through their eligible family member.

Supplemental Security Income (SSI)

The SSA provides monthly SSI benefits to people with limited income and resources who are blind, age 65 or older, or have a qualifying disability. Children/youth who have disabilities or who are blind may also receive SSI benefits. Unlike RSDI, SSI benefits are not based on an individual's or family member's prior work.

Social Security Representative Payee Program

In general, children/ youth under the age of 18 must have a payee. When selecting a payee, the SSA prefers the beneficiary's parent, legal guardian, spouse, or other close relative or friend who has a strong interest in the beneficiary's welfare. When such individuals are unavailable, unsuitable, or unwilling to serve, the SSA may select an organization, such as a CCYA.

II. REQUEST FOR IDEAS (RFI)

The City seeks information and ideas to understand the best method for the following items:

- A family and child-centered approach to Social Security benefit management;

- Methodology to conserve Social Security funds for children and youth in DHS care;
- Types of Conservator Accounts that minimize the impact of eligibility for future benefits (i.e. public benefits);
- Process for establishing, maintaining, and transferring accounts;
- Ways to assist families in all cases with becoming the representative payees upon reunification or adoption;
- Ways to assist youth transitioning out of care with ways to access and/or establish bank accounts, provide financial literacy and other related assistance;
- Understanding tax implications for children and youth who receive benefits;
- Process for determining amount/percentage of federal benefits to be conserved; and
- Guidelines for releasing funds which shall include financial literacy education.
