Annual Action Plan

AP-05 Executive Summary

Introduction

The 2024-2025 Annual Action Plan is prepared and administered by the Division of Housing and Community Development (DHCD; formerly the Office of Housing and Community Development). The Annual Action Plan is the City's application for federal funds from the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) for four entitlement programs:

- Community Development Block Grant (CDBG)
- HOME Investment Partnership (HOME)
- Housing Opportunities for Persons With AIDS (HOPWA)
- Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG)

The Annual Action Plan outlines how the City intends to spend the federal funds it is requesting for that fiscal year. The City also includes other federal, state and local resources in its Annual Action Plan – including the Philadelphia Housing Trust Fund (HTF) and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Keystone Communities program – that support housing and community and economic development activities. The Annual Action Plan outlines the expenditure of approximately $317 million in federal, state and local funds for housing, community and economic development. The City's funding of housing programs will, as it has historically done, comprise more than 50% of its program funds.

The Annual Action Plan identifies four strategic objectives:

1. Prevent homelessness by keeping people in their homes
2. Increase affordable housing options
3. Strengthen communities, eliminate blight and support neighborhood planning
4. Create jobs by attracting and retaining businesses

By pursuing these strategic objectives, the City will provide decent, affordable housing, create suitable living environments, and create economic opportunity. The Annual Action Plan continues the work of the City's CFY 2023-2027 Consolidated Plan, taking a holistic approach to its goals of improving housing options, increasing access to opportunity, and creating strong neighborhoods. The City's CFY 2023-2027 Consolidated Plan is a five-year analysis that includes:

- Housing and Homeless Needs Assessment
- Housing Market Analysis
- Strategic Plan
- Annual Action Plan

The CFY 2023-2027 Consolidated Plan and subsequent Annual Action Plans are informed by the City’s 2016 and 2022 Assessments of Fair Housing. The Consolidated Plan also reflects the City’s 2018 “Housing for Equity” action plan (“Housing for Equity: An Action Plan for Philadelphia”). The “Housing for Equity” plan addresses homelessness and eviction; production and preservation; and affordable, workforce, and market-rate housing. It offers strategies to support Philadelphia’s continued growth in both jobs and population through the provision of housing that meets the needs of all its residents.

The 2024-2025 Annual Action Plan also draws on the priorities and goals established by a new mayoral administration. Mayor Cherrille Parker took office in January of 2024, and DHCD works with administration officials to develop plans for achieving the Mayor’s vision for affordable housing in Philadelphia.

The Annual Action Plan Identifies Seven Core Goals

The 13 goals identified in section AP-20 are grouped into seven core goals in the City of Philadelphia.

Create affordable homeowner and rental housing opportunities

Approximately 152,854 (49%) Philadelphia renters and 90,860 (26%) homeowners are cost burdened. To increase rental and homeownership housing options affordable to low-, moderate- and middle-income residents, the City and its partners will:

- Undertake neighborhood-based initiatives to produce affordable rental and special-needs housing
- Assist income-eligible homebuyers with closing costs
- The Turn The Key program offers newly-built homes on publicly-owned parcels to low- and moderate income first-time homebuyers.

Strategies outside the Annual Action Plan include increasing homeownership opportunities for Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA) tenants, promoting private sector development through density bonuses for affordable units, identifying additional incentives for affordable housing developed through the private sector, and streamlining the process for conveying publicly owned land for development of affordable housing. These actions will help to support the creation of 30,000 units of housing in alignment with Mayor Parker’s vision.

Preserve affordable homeowner and rental housing

Philadelphia’s supply of affordable rental and homeowner housing is threatened by several factors. Philadelphia has very old housing stock and many low-income homeowners. As a result, many homeowners do not have the resources to maintain their homes. This threatens the housing supply with the potential loss of a unit and the homeowner with loss of a place to live.

To prevent the loss of housing due to deferred maintenance, the City will support:

- The Basic Systems Repair Program (BSRP) to provide free repairs to the electrical, plumbing and heating systems in owner-occupied homes
- The Heater Hotline to provide emergency heater repairs

All Low-Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC)-financed rental developments currently have a 40-year affordability period. However, many of those developments have reached a 15-year mark at which capital improvements are necessary for operations to continue. Others have reached or are nearing their previously assigned 30-year limit. To preserve these rental housing opportunities, DHCD will:

- Continue to implement an initiative to provide funding to keep units in existing tax credit developments affordable
- Publish and maintain a directory of affordable housing properties which shows the expiration dates of required affordability periods
- Explore new options to ensure long-term affordability and quality of publicly-supported affordable housing, such as funding supplemental energy efficiency and hazard mitigation improvements.

While Philadelphia is not facing the foreclosure crisis of over a decade ago, homeowners continue to face mortgage and, more recently, tax and reverse mortgage foreclosures. Residents in homes passed to them by a family member frequently do not have a clean title. This means that they cannot obtain home repair loans needed to maintain the property or qualify for property tax relief programs. Renters may be at a disadvantage in an eviction process in which the landlord frequently has legal representation while the tenant does not.

To address these issues DHCD will:

- Continue to fund housing counseling services to homeowners and tenants
- Continue to fund legal assistance to homeowners facing tangled title issues
- Fund legal representation for homeowners facing foreclosure and tenants facing eviction

Preservation strategies beyond the scope of the Annual Action Plan include ensuring compliance with HUD regulations for Rental Assistance Demonstration conversions and exploring means to minimize displacement in appreciating markets.

Reduce homelessness and expand special needs housing opportunities

The January 2023 Point-In-Time count identified 4,715 homeless persons, of which 4,019 were sheltered and 706 were unsheltered homeless persons. Following steady increases in the homeless population prior to 2019, the number of people experiencing homelessness is over one thousand fewer than it was five years ago. In 2024, we could see a sharp increase in the number of sheltered and unsheltered homeless in part due to the end of COVID-10 related eviction moratoriums. In addition, the City's response to the global

COVID-19 pandemic, which mobilized additional housing resources for people experiencing homelessness throughout the city and extending shelter beds for winter to year-round access is also at an end.

The number of families reported as sheltered on the night of each Point-in-Time Count has decreased by over 40% since 2018 through 2023, and from 2019 to 2023 Philadelphia's PIT Count found no families with children living in the streets. In 2023, we identified and reported 238 veterans experiencing homelessness on the night of the PIT count, which is a 51% increase from the number reported in 2022. Although trends for families and veterans reported were mixed, the 2023 PIT count shows an 11.6% decrease in the overall homeless population compared to 2022, including a 10.4% decrease in the unsheltered population. Though the numbers remain lower than pre-pandemic levels, there is still a pressing need to address street homelessness and increase affordable housing opportunities for individuals experiencing homelessness or imminently facing homelessness especially given inflation and cost of living increases.

More than 252,000 Philadelphians aged five or older identify as disabled. Disabled Philadelphians face the dual challenge of finding housing that is both accessible and affordable. To address the housing needs of the homeless and special needs populations, DHCD will:

- Provide rental assistance to households facing homelessness and special-needs households through a rapid re-housing program
- Provide rental assistance to people with HIV/AIDS using Housing Opportunities for Persons With Aids (HOPWA) funding
- Use Emergency Solutions Grant funding matched by City General Funds to provide emergency shelter, homelessness prevention services and rental assistance to households facing homelessness
- Allocate Philadelphia Housing Trust Fund and Neighborhood Preservation Initiative resources to the Adaptive Modifications Program (AMP), which makes accessibility improvements to enable people with disabilities to live more independently
- Continue its requirement that developments include units for people with disabilities, and that all new construction units be visitable if possible.

In addition to Annual Action Plan activities, the City will continue to address the needs of homeless and special needs persons through expanded efforts such as Rapid Re-housing placements and strengthened transition planning for youth.

Foster open access to all housing and community resources and programs

The City-funded housing programs outlined in the Annual Action Plan are effective only if residents are aware of them and access them. Accordingly, the City supports a variety of efforts to ensure that Philadelphians are not only aware of these programs but take advantage of them. These include:

- Neighborhood Advisory Committees help connect residents to housing and community development programs
- Housing counseling agencies that offer guidance regarding the specific needs of homeowners, tenants, senior citizens and people with disabilities
- Neighborhood Energy Centers that help residents reduce their utility bills and access utility assistance programs
- Capacity-building assistance (through the Philadelphia Association of CDCs) and technical assistance (through the Community Design Collaborative) to organizations working to improve low- and moderate-income communities
- The creation of a “One Front Door” portal that will enable residents to apply for multiple home repair programs simultaneously.

Outside of Annual Action Plan activities the City and PHA will work to implement language access strategies to ensure that limited English proficiency is not a barrier to participation in housing programs. This will include providing guidance to City-funded private organizations that provide housing programs and services. In addition, PHA will review best practices and options for admissions and wait list administration to promote diversity consistent with fair housing statutes and regulations.

Fair housing outreach, education and enforcement are critical elements of ensuring access to housing resources and programs. City-funded housing counseling agencies are a critical element of that strategy by providing anti-predatory lending, prepurchase and financial literacy counseling.

Address economic, education and income needs of people and communities

In addition to addressing affordability, quality and access to housing, the City recognizes the impact that economic opportunity, education and financial resources have on Philadelphians’ ability to access decent, affordable housing.

To promote increased economic opportunity, the City will:

- Use CDBG funds to support a variety of programs aimed at small businesses in neighborhood commercial corridors, including technical assistance to micro businesses, small business loans, business attraction and expansion activities and organizational capacity building
- Support job training and education for youth who have dropped out of high school
- Provide support to organizations that help eligible residents apply for the Earned Income Tax Credit
- Support returning citizens seeking to reintegrate into society by funding a Pennsylvania Horticultural Society (PHS) program that employs them to maintain vacant properties

In addition to Annual Action Plan activities, both the City and PHA will work to ensure that language barriers do not prevent access to programs that will increase economic opportunities for Philadelphians. PHA will serve residents through its Community Partners and economic self-sufficiency programs.

Strengthen community assets and manage vacant land

There are approximately 39,400 publicly or privately-owned vacant lots in Philadelphia. Vacant lots blight neighborhoods, driving down property values. In contrast, studies show that maintained lots increase property values, improve resident health and reduce crime.

To bring these benefits to low- and moderate-income neighborhoods, the City will:

- Fund PHS to clean, green and maintain approximately 12,000 vacant lots using small contractors, neighborhood nonprofits and the local residents that they each hire
- Continue the work of the Philadelphia Land Bank, which returns vacant and tax delinquent land to productive use.

Outside of Annual Action Plan activities the City will focus on leveraging public and private investment to build upon existing assets – the people, amenities and services in neighborhoods across the city. The Parker Administration has created a Clean and Green Cabinet to organize City departments and other stakeholders around addressing quality-of-life problems and increasing the economic vitality of neighborhoods across the city.

In addition the City proposes to strengthen its partnership with the Community College of Philadelphia (CCP) to ensure that low-income students can attend CCP for free and receive the critical wraparound supports to help them succeed. The City will also continue to invest in parks, libraries and recreation centers to create amenity-rich neighborhoods that meet resident needs.

Promote fair housing and access to opportunities

Fair housing and access to opportunity remain challenging, particularly for racial and ethnic minorities, those with limited English proficiency, families with children, people with special needs and other populations. To promote fair housing and access to opportunities, the City proposes to:

- Assist the Philadelphia Human Relations Commission (PHRC) to secure Substantial Equivalency to be eligible for HUD funding to increase fair housing enforcement efforts.
- Formally house the work of the Philadelphia Home Appraisal Bias Task Force in the Department of Planning and Development to build upon the work and recommendations of the Task Force.

The 13 Annual Action Plan Goals are:

Goal 1: Develop Affordable Rental Housing

Goal 2: Preserve Affordable Rental Housing

Goal 3: Expand Affordable Homeownership Housing

Goal 4: Preserve Affordable Homeownership Housing

Goal 5: Expand Housing Opportunities and Services for Homeless and Special Needs Individuals

Goal 6: Expand Accessible and Affordable Housing for Persons with Disabilities

Goal 7: Expand Fair Housing Outreach, Education, and Enforcement Activities

Goal 8: Expand Education, Employment and Self Sufficiency Opportunities

Goal 9: Expand Support for Small Business Owners and Commercial Corridor Development

Goal 10: Foster Open Access to All Housing and Community Resources and Programs

Goal 11: Strengthen Community Assets and Manage Vacant Land

Goal 12: Expand Services and Programs to Protect Renters and Homeowners at Risk of Housing Instability

Goal 13: Effective Administration of Projects and Programs

HUD Objectives and Outcomes Identified in the Plan

The City's housing and community development needs were identified through a mix of publicly available data (e.g., Census, ACS, CHAS), extensive public engagement, research from the draft 2022 Assessment of Fair Housing (AFH), and findings from prior City plans, including the Housing Action Plan, the Philadelphia Land Bank Strategic Plan, and the Philadelphia City Planning Commission's District Plans.

The City identified the following Priority Needs in the 2023-2027 Consolidated Plan:

1. Lack of New Affordable Housing
2. Loss of Affordable Housing Units
3. Shortage of Homeless and Special Needs Housing
4. Barriers preventing residents from connecting to housing and community development programs and services
5. Low job creation and retention, lack of goods and services, and low educational attainment
6. Lack of neighborhood stability and community amenities
7. Limited fair housing protections and access to opportunity

Goals and strategies have been developed to address these priority needs. The City and PHA worked with a diverse team of stakeholders in 2016 to identify Assessment of Fair Housing (AFH) goals to address barriers to affordable housing and access to opportunity. The draft 2022 AFH offers targeted recommendations for the City and its partners to incorporate into policies and programs based on a new cycle of community engagement, data analysis, and needs assessment. The City has developed goals and strategies that build upon the 2016 AFH, incorporate the recommendations of the draft 2022 AFH, and affirm the need to strengthen successful strategies while fostering innovative approaches to addressing barriers to affordable housing.

The City's goals identified in the Annual Action Plan seek to achieve the following HUD- defined objectives and outcomes:

1. Availability/Accessibility of Decent Housing
2. Affordability of Decent Housing
3. Sustainability of Decent Housing
4. Availability/Accessibility of Suitable Living Environments
5. Affordability of Suitable Living Environments
6. Sustainability of Suitable Living Environments
7. Availability/Accessibility of Economic Opportunity
8. Sustainability of Economic Opportunity

Evaluation of past performance

In CDBG Year 48, the City substantially met or exceeded many annual goals and objectives. For the programs that exceptionally exceeded their goals, the City has increased these annual goals to determine the future program capacity more accurately. When evaluating programs that did not reach their targeted goals, decreased funding, changes to program activities, and adjustments to program reporting were the main reasons why a goal was not achieved.

Summary of citizen participation process and consultation process

The development of the City's Annual Action Plan includes citizen participation from the very start. The first step in the process is a public hearing at which the public is invited to offer comment on the prior year's performance and to identify housing and community development needs. Those comments, along with the resources available, inform the City's Annual Action Plan.

DHCD prepares a Proposed Annual Action Plan and submits that Plan to City Council for consideration. Council holds a hearing on the Proposed Annual Action Plan, which is followed by a Council committee meeting to consider the Plan and make any amendments the committee deems appropriate. DHCD provides a period for public comment of not less than 30 calendar days for the Annual Action Plan following the publication of the Proposed Plan(s). Comments offered during the comment period and at this hearing are incorporated into the Final Annual Action Plan. All of these opportunities for citizen participation are publicized on the DHCD website, through a mailing to DHCD's electronic mailing list, and through social media.

Summary of public comments

DHCD receives public comments at two stages during the development of the Annual Action Plan.

Those testifying recognized limited resources, while emphasizing existing and increasing needs. Several speakers thanked DHCD for past support and outlined achievements that had been made possible with DHCD funding. Many participants referred to the ongoing challenges Philadelphia communities face due to increased housing costs and rising inequality and called on the City to continue developing programs to respond to these challenges.

Summary of citizen participation process and how it impacted goal setting

On February 26, 2024, DHCD advertised that it would hold an in-person Needs Assessment Hearing on March 12, 2024, to solicit comments on housing and community development needs in preparation of the budget for the next fiscal year and on past performance included in the Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER). DHCD also advertised that it would accept comments through March 14, 2024. DHCD will release the Proposed Annual Action Plan for public comment and also advertise that it will accept comments for 30 days from the date of the notice. The input provided at the hearings, as well as those in past years, has been incorporated into DHCD's goals, as evidenced by the number of participants whose testimony included acknowledgement of DHCD support.

Virtual CAPER and Needs Hearing on Thursday, March 12, 2024

Those testifying called for DHCD to:

- Recommit HOME funds to help people living with HIV/AIDS.
- Continue adding more housing slots.
- Increase affordable and accessible housing for people living with HIV/AIDS.
- Expand income eligibility and funding amount allowable for each Financial Empowerment Counseling session.
- Increase funding for housing counseling services from $10.4 million to $12 million for FY25 with an emphasis on preserving and expanding homeownership.
- Provide funding to nonprofits to support homebuyers or consider updating the Turn the Key program.
- Expand eligibility for the Turn the Key program beyond City of Philadelphia employees.
- Allocate NPI and HOME funding for the production of more affordable homeownership projects.
- Provide flexible funding to nonprofits to support home repair programs
- For FY 25, allocate $7.5 million to CDCs to support the critical services they provide.
- Create and capitalize a property acquisition fund with an initial $20 million dollar investment. This fund would allow nonprofits to quickly purchase sites for affordable housing or other community beneficial use.
- Engage the CDC community and other nonprofits when discussing reforms to the Land Bank.
- Create a detailed plan to expand affordable housing with an emphasis on vulnerable populations, including homeless individuals.
- Increase funding for Save Your Philly Home and Eviction Diversion hotlines to expand services provided to homeowners that have defaulted on their mortgage payments and renters that are facing an eviction.
- Continue to provide in-kind monetary support for critical home repairs.
- Prioritize and fund research that examines the impact that critical home repairs have on addressing homelessness, housing insecurity and affordability.
- Continue to fund and expand the mortgage foreclosure program, the City's property tax anti-displacement initiatives, the eviction diversion program, resolving and preventing tangle title and education residents about predatory equity stripping schemes.
- Continue to support the launch of rowhouse project that provides homeowners and renters legal representation when their home is affected by adjacent construction.
- Develop or expand existing programs that address lead detection and remediation, particularly for first-time homeowners. This can include tax credits for homebuyers, require more stringent lead testing standards conducted during home inspections, and expand access to programs like the City’s Lead Healthy Home program for higher income households.

- Advance the Fair Housing agenda by continuing to fund programs like Philly First Home that provide opportunity for minority homebuyers who do not have access to generational wealth.
- Develop a detailed plan that prioritizes the creation and preservation of deeply affordable rental housing.
- Support CDCs and community organizations on the ground level by. Committing $7.5 million dollars as a multi-year investment. This investment would fund CDCs and community-based organizations beyond specific programs to provide stable organizational capacity.
- Increase resources for preserving Black and Latino homeownership.

Summary of comments or views not accepted and the reasons for not accepting them

Comments fell into several basic categories. A large number expressed appreciation for DHCD support in the past and requested continued support in the future, and the substance of those requests is reflected in the Annual Action Plan. Comment areas that were not ultimately reflected in the Annual Action Plan, along with the DHCD response, are listed below.

- Maintain or increase program support from Federal and State funds

Since 2004, DHCD CDBG funding has been cut by approximately $19.5 million, a reduction of roughly 31%. Program funding allocations reflect that reduced federal support while maintaining established programs and proven strategies to the extent possible. Similarly, State funding levels, which have also been reduced in recent years, are beyond the control of DHCD, and program allocations of State funds reflect DHCD priorities and strategies.

■ Increase in funding from the General Fund

Philadelphia faces many competing needs and many other programs that could be considered underfunded. Accordingly, substantial increases in General Fund allocations are not realistic at this time.

■ Reallocation of funds from one program to another

As noted earlier, DHCD’s program funding allocations reflect the matching of available funding to established programs and proven strategies. The process of developing DHCD’s funding allocations, which involved significant public input, included consideration of program tradeoffs.

■ Neighborhood- and organization-specific funding requests

The vast majority of DHCD’s funding decisions take place through a Request for Proposals process and not in response to specific requests made during the Annual Action Plan development process.

■ Increase funding available from Federal and local funding sources

The decision as to how much revenue should be made available to a specific funding source, such as the Philadelphia Housing Trust Fund or HOPWA, is a legislative one that DHCD cannot make.

■ Add specific program initiatives

DHCD has historically considered and implemented program changes related to changing conditions. For example, the Mortgage Foreclosure Prevention Program was a reaction to a spike in foreclosures, and since 2008 it has saved almost 16,000 homes from foreclosure. In addition, City Council created the Neighborhood Preservation Initiative in 2021 to support affordable housing and commercial revitalization programs in Philadelphia.

Summary

Many Philadelphia neighborhoods lack not only quality affordable housing but also access to opportunities. The City of Philadelphia, in general and in its Annual Action Plan, takes a holistic approach to its goals of improving housing options, increasing access to opportunity and creating strong neighborhoods.

AP-10 Consultation

Introduction

DHCD's consultation process is an ongoing, year-round effort. DHCD meets regularly with its government colleagues in the housing, commerce, health, and other service areas, and with nonprofit organizations and external stakeholders that are active in these areas. In addition to the organizations listed in Table 2, DHCD also meets with organizations that play a role in policy development but are not in HUD's Integrated Disbursement Information Systems (IDIS) and thus are not included in this section.

DHCD expanded its consultation process when it updated its 2016 Assessment of Fair Housing (AFH). Building off its 2016 AFH survey, DHCD administered another citywide resident survey focusing on housing and neighborhood issues as part of its draft 2022 AFH. Similar to what was done in 2016, a series of discussions were held with community partners to collect feedback on fair housing priorities. Please refer to the Draft 2022 Assessment of Fair Housing for more detail about the survey and community engagement activities.

Summary of the jurisdiction's activities to enhance coordination between public and assisted housing providers and private and governmental health, mental health and service agencies

DHCD consults with Continuum of Care and other public and private agencies that provide assisted housing, health services and social services (including those focusing on services to children, elderly persons, persons with disabilities, persons with HIV/AIDS and homeless persons) during preparation of the Annual Action Plan. These organizations are asked to provide data on current and projected housing needs, inventory, services, and plans to provide housing and services in the future. The areas in which these organizations work include housing services, social services, fair housing services, health services, homeless services, agencies that discharge persons, business and civic leaders, lead-based paint, adjacent government, state (non-housing), metropolitan planning agencies, HOPWA and public housing. Because the City of Philadelphia and the County of Philadelphia are coterminous all City agencies also serve a county-wide function.

Coordination with the Continuum of Care and efforts to address the needs of homeless persons (particularly chronically homeless individuals and families, families with children, veterans, and unaccompanied youth) and persons at risk of homelessness

The City of Philadelphia's Office of Homeless Services (OHS) is the public agency charged with the policy, planning, and coordination of the City's efforts to make homelessness rare, brief, and non-recurring. OHS provides support, leadership, funding, coordination, and administration to the impressive network of organizations providing homeless services, legal assistance, housing, and physical and behavioral health services, as well as government entities, that comprise the Continuum of Care (CoC). OHS provides staff support to the CoC governing body, committees, and working groups. OHS is the CoC HMIS lead and serves as the Collaborative Applicant for CoC Program funds. As such, it is responsible for ensuring the CoC fulfills all the duties set forth in 24 CFR Part 578 and the Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) requirements as prescribed by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development.

Participation in the Philadelphia CoC is open to all stakeholders interested in its mission of making homelessness rare, brief, and nonrecurring, including nonprofit homeless assistance providers, victim service providers, faith-based organizations, government agencies, businesses, advocates, public housing agencies, the school district, supportive service providers, hospitals, universities, affordable housing developers, law enforcement, and individuals currently or formerly experiencing homelessness. In compliance with the CoC Program interim rule, the CoC Board includes members who are elected by the community through a community election process and appointed by government agencies that service the homeless population. The board includes representatives with lived experiences of homelessness, as well as youths and members of underserved populations.

The mission of the Philadelphia CoC is to coordinate and implement a system that makes homelessness rare, brief and nonrecurring in Philadelphia. It is comprised of a broad-based network of homeless housing and shelter providers, consumers, advocates, government representatives and community stakeholders working together to shape citywide planning and decision-making. Membership in the Philadelphia CoC is open to all stakeholders interested in the purposes of the CoC, including nonprofit homeless assistance providers, victim service providers, faith-based organizations, government, businesses, advocates, public housing agencies, school district, social service providers, mental health agencies, hospitals, universities, affordable housing developers, law enforcement, and individuals currently or formerly experiencing homelessness.

OHS is currently developing its community input process to start its new strategic planning process. The input process goal is to amplify the voices of the community and all who we serve so ensure we include their ideas and suggestions in the plan. The new plan will build off federal and local efforts to reduce the number of people experiencing homelessness, and based on community input, qualitative and quantitative data. We hope to have a new plan completed in 2025.

Following the creation of the RTH Board, six committees were established to accomplish the action steps identified. Four of the committees— the Service Provider Commission, the Young Adult Leadership Commission, the Racial Equity Committee, and the Lived Experience Commission—help provide a forum for the community to provide feedback and recommendations for system improvement. The other committees, the HUD Alignment Committee and CEA-BHRS Evaluation Committee, ensure that the homeless assistance system adheres to the performance standards and regulations and determine funding based on the strategic plan, HUD Alignment priorities informed by HUD, and the local community, which are approved by the CoC Board.

The Office of Homeless Services brought together public and private sector stakeholders to identify shared goals and actions for a plan to address the needs of individuals in Philadelphia who are experiencing homelessness during the COVID-19 Pandemic. These efforts are ongoing and the processes this team developed to react “on the ground” to prepare for, prevent, and respond to the COVID-19 pandemic will be use in a similar health crisis should occur in the future. Teams focused on chronically homeless individuals and families, along with unaccompanied youth, have continued to meet regularly to advance the work of improving coordination and collaboration and better serving the needs of those target populations.

Homeless services advance racial equity. They are essential for achieving our vision of being a City where all residents are safe, healthy, and have all basic needs met. Homelessness is overwhelmingly experienced by people who are Black or African American: 43% of the City’s people are Black while 78% of those who experience homelessness are Black.

Homelessness cannot be separated from deep and abiding racial inequity the roots of which lie in America’s history of racist laws and policies: enslavement, displacement, government sanctioned stealing of Black owned property, Jim Crow, redlining, housing discrimination and urban renewal that destroyed Black neighborhoods and stole Black wealth combined with an 80% reduction in federal investments in publicly supported housing.

Homeless services interrupt and reverse historic inequities. They are definitionally – and deliberately – antiracist. People who are housed have the basic necessary foundation for health, education, wealth, employment, family, and community.

To address the significant unmet need for affordable homes in Philadelphia, the Office of Homeless Services facilitated the creation the Landlord Cohort comprised of 12 City Offices, Departments, and Agencies that have aligned to build a centralized landlord network. The goal of this Cohort was to create a “One Stop Shop” to support property owners in becoming lessors to those relying on publicly supported rent with the greatest impact centering around the small to moderate size landlords, and property of color. The goal is to engage current and first-time landlords to increase the number in the private market willing, and able, to partner with the City to rent to Philadelphians with low-incomes through our various programs. The result of the Cohort’s efforts is the creation of “the Landlord Gateway” webpage that will be the “One Stop Shop” with all the information and resources a landlord might need with links to all the other City webpages that they may need. It also will have pathways to follow depending on the landlord or prospective landlord may need. The creation of this centralized approach toward landlord engagement and education, will help landlords navigate multiple City departments, which can be overwhelming for small landlords. These landlords can be a valuable resource in creating new housing opportunities for our most at-risk populations. Aside from OHS, the Cohort Members are: Philly311, Office of Community Empowerment and Opportunity, DHCD, Department of Behavioral Health and Intellectual Disability Services (DBHIDS), Department of Human Services (DHS), Managing Director's Office (MDO), Licenses and Inspections (L&I), Commerce, Reentry Partnerships, Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA), and School District of Philadelphia. The Office of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion is consulting to ensure all of our landlord business dealings are presented to the City's public in a fair, equitable, and inclusive way.

OHS will continue to refine and enhance our "Move On" strategies for people who have stabilized. HUD defines a "Move On" strategy as how participants who no longer require intensive services move from supportive housing to less intensive and service rich affordable options.

We envision a Philadelphia in which we are all invested in and committed to doing everything in our power to ensure that every person at risk of or experiencing homelessness has access to a holistic and coordinated system of housing and services delivered by caring, well-trained, and well-informed professionals striving to make homelessness rare, brief, and non-recurring in our great city.

Consultation with the Continuum(s) of Care that serves the jurisdiction's area in determining how to allocate ESG funds, develop performance standards and evaluate outcomes, and develop funding, policies and procedures for the administration of HMIS

Through a Memorandum of Understanding, DHCD assigns the administration of ESG funds to Homeless Services, which is already responsible for ensuring that the Philadelphia CoC fulfills the duties of a continuum of care as set forth in 24 CFR Part 578 and HUD requirements for HMIS, and also serves as the Collaborative Applicant for CoC funding. As a result, ESG and CoC resources and activities are intrinsically coordinated, as Homeless Services uses PIT data, HMIS, and unmet need estimates to direct resources and services to homelessness response in Philadelphia. Homeless Services monitors performance of ESG subrecipients through expectations defined in contract scopes of services.

Homeless Services prepares an annual plan to expend ESG funds in accordance with the Office's larger strategy. Making homelessness rare, brief, and non-recurring requires not only programs for short-term and supportive housing, but also a focus on emergency assistance and response, housing retention, homeless prevention, and rapid rehousing to provide cost-effective support, outreach, and assistance with avoiding extended experiences of homelessness. For this reason, in the Consolidated Plan 2022-2026, the ESG spending plan includes monies for homelessness prevention in addition to funding the operations of emergency shelters, for both singles and for families with children, and rapid rehousing activities. With the allocations for prevention and rapid rehousing, Homeless Services will contract with service providers to offer housing stability case management, short-term and medium-term rental assistance, security and utility deposits, and/or payments for utility arrearages to enable moves into stable housing, for extremely low-income households at risk of homelessness or experiencing homelessness, respectively.

The Office of Homeless Services ESG subrecipients are represented on the Service Providers Commission and the annual ESG spending plan is presented to the Continuum of Care Board to ensure agreement with and support for the proposed funding priorities. The CoC Board then votes on approving the plan. This year, the CoC will also be actively involved in developing a new Homeless Services strategic plan with clear, measurable metrics reflecting systems change agenda to drive performance, of programs with all sources of funding, toward making homelessness rare, brief, and nonrecurring. Right now, performance standards are based on ensuring that households move out of homelessness quickly and permanently.

The CoC Board annually reviews and approves the HMIS Governance Charter and HMIS Data Quality, Security, and Privacy Plans. The Charter designates the Office of Homeless Services as the CoC's HMIS Lead Agency. Meaning it is responsible for conducting oversight of the HMIS, creating policies and procedures for its operation, ensuring consistent participation, executing a written Participation Agreement with each participating agency, monitoring and enforcing compliance with all requirements, and acting to maintain input of high-quality data.

Agency types not consulted and rationale for not consulting

The following agency types of the options provided by HUD were not consulted:

- Services - Broadband internet service providers: Broadband internet service providers were consulted in the development of the City’s Digital Equity Plan, published by the Office of Information and Technology in January 2022. The findings of the Digital Equity Plan were incorporated into Section MA-60 of the 2022-2026 Consolidated Plan.

Other local/regional/state/federal planning efforts considered when preparing the Plan

Table 3: Other Planning Efforts

Name of Plan	Lead Organization	How do the goals of your Strategic Plan overlap with the goals of each plan?
Continuum of Care	City of Philadelphia - Office of Homeless Services	Philadelphia CoC works to coordinate and implement a system that prevents and eradicates homelessness throughout Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. It is a broad-based coalition of mostly nonprofit homeless housing and service providers, consumers, advocates, city, state and federal governmental representatives, and community stakeholders, who all work collaboratively to shape citywide planning and decision-making. With the support of the Office of Homeless Services efforts to provide leadership, coordination, planning and mobilization of resources to make homelessness rare, brief and non-recurring for the City of Philadelphia, the CoC is working to align with HUD priorities of having a systemic response to homelessness that uses a Housing First approach. This approach, based on the assessment of individual housing needs and the lightest touch intervention, overlaps with the Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan goal of preventing homelessness by keeping people housed.
Assessment of Fair Housing	City of Philadelphia, DHCD and PHA	Many of the AFH goals and strategies will inform the Annual Action Plan
HIV Housing Advisory Committee	City of Philadelphia - DHCD	DHCD conducts bi-monthly HIV/AIDS Housing Advisory Committee Meetings to report on current housing issues, housing needs and unmet needs, and others issues related to Housing For Persons Living With AIDS (HOPWA).
Housing for Equity: An Action Plan for Philadelphia	City of Philadelphia, Department of Planning and Development	The Housing Action Plan addresses homelessness and eviction, production and preservation, affordable, workforce and market-rate housing with goals set for a period of 10 years.
Roadmap to Homes	City of Philadelphia Office of Homeless Services	Roadmap to Homes has three major goals: making homelessness rare, brief, and non-recurring. These goals align with several Strategic Plan goals related to housing stability and homelessness prevention.
HOME-ARP Allocation Plan	City of Philadelphia Office of Homeless Services	The City was allocated approximately $42 Million in HOME-ARP funds to provide long-term housing and services for those experiencing homelessness. The Office of Homeless Services developed the HOME-ARP Allocation Plan to outline the proposed use of funds.
CDBG-DR Action Plan	City of Philadelphia Office of the Director of Finance	The City was allocated approximately $163 Million in CDBG-DR funds to support recovery and mitigation efforts in the aftermath of Hurricane Ida. The CDBG-DR Action Plan outlines unmet needs and a proposed use of funding for housing, infrastructure, economic revitalization, and hazard mitigation.

Cooperation and coordination with other public entities, including the State and any adjacent units of general local government, in the implementation of the Annual Action Plan

The City of Philadelphia posted the Proposed Annual Action Plan to DHCD's website where it was open to comment from neighboring municipalities and counties, as well as the region's Metropolitan Planning Organization and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania's Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED).

The City also works with the surrounding counties on the allocation of HOPWA funds. It is the grantee for the metropolitan region that includes Delaware and Philadelphia counties. Additionally, the following organizations receive funds to provide HOPWA rental assistance, supportive services, and permanent housing placement to residents with HIV/AIDS: Family Services of Chester County, Family Service Association of Bucks County, Family Services of Montgomery County.

AP-15 Expected Resources

Introduction

DHCD anticipates receiving federal, state and program income budgetary resources during 2024-25, including potential Section 108 loans for economic development. DHCD will also receive funds from the Philadelphia Housing Trust Fund and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania’s Keystone Communities Program and will assist in the allocation of Neighborhood Preservation Initiative funding.

Leveraging additional resources (private, state and local funds) and satisfying matching requirements

DHCD anticipates using federal funds to leverage additional resources for housing activities from a variety of sources including:

- Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency’s (PHFA) Low Income Housing Tax Credit program:
- Private mortgage lending.

The City’s use of HOME funds for homeless rental assistance allows the City-funded homeless rental assistance program administered by DHCD to be used as the required HOME match. Private foundation, state and other contributions to HOME-funded developments provide additional match. Matching funds for ESG are provided by City General Fund dollars.

Using publicly owned land or property to address the needs identified in the Plan

The City will continue work with the Philadelphia Land Bank to make vacant property available for affordable housing, economic development and open space uses.

The City of Philadelphia frequently makes publicly owned land available to nonprofit and for-profit developers at nominal or reduced cost when the proposed development includes housing affordable to low-, moderate- and middle-income households.

The amount of available funding through the Annual Action Plan and all the additional leveraged resources are not adequate to meet the overwhelming housing and community developments needs in Philadelphia. The City and its partners will continue to leverage all other available resources and will work to identify new resources to meet these needs.

Anticipated budgetary resources

DHCD anticipates receiving federal, state and program income budgetary resources during 2024-25, including potential Section 108 loans for economic development. In addition, DHCD anticipates using these federal funds to leverage additional resources for housing activities from a variety of sources including: the Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency’s (PHFA) Low Income Housing Tax Credit program, private foundations and private mortgage lending. DHCD will also receive funds from the Philadelphia Housing Trust Fund and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania’s Keystone Communities program and will assist in the allocation of Neighborhood Preservation Initiative funding.

Community Development Block Grant

Typically, the largest source of funding for the City's housing and community development program is derived from the federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG), an entitlement program. Each year, the City receives notification of its funding allocation and produces the Annual Action Plan to receive funding.

CDBG funds are used to support a wide range of activities, including vacant structure rehabilitation, occupied housing preservation, planning and neighborhood economic development activities. CDBG funds must be used for activities that benefit low- and moderate-income persons. In order to be supported with CDBG funds, an activity must meet the eligibility and fundability requirements of HUD. In addition, other requirements must be met, including environmental review and clearance, Minority/Women/Disabled Business Enterprise (MBE/WBE/DSBE) and Section 3 requirements.

■ Prior Years Resources

Unspent funds from the prior year will be allocated to projects and activities in CFY 2025.

Federal HOME Funds

The HOME Investment Partnership Program (HOME) implemented by the federal government in federal fiscal year (FFY) 1992, makes funds available to the City for the development of affordable housing and the provision of rental assistance. The HOME Program is also an entitlement program. The proposed HOME activities do not include other forms of investment as described by 2.205(b) and the City does not intend to use HOME funds to refinance debt secured by multifamily housing that is rehabilitated with HOME funds. The City does not use HOME funds for the development of homeownership units.

■ HOME Matching Requirements

HUD regulations require that matching funds be provided in order to access the federal HOME funds. While Philadelphia's match requirement has been reduced because the City is considered to be fiscally distressed, since FFY '93 the City has had to provide a 12.5% match for the HOME funding. The City's use of HOME funds for homeless rental assistance allows the City-funded homeless rental assistance program administered by DHCD to be used as the required HOME match. Private foundation, state and other contributions to HOME-funded developments provide additional match.

■ HOME-ARP

HOME-ARP is a new program created by the federal government's American Rescue Plan in 2023 to support equitable recovery for homeless assistance systems. Philadelphia has received $42,007,561 to provide long-term housing and services for those experiencing homelessness. DHCD will assign the administration of these funds under a Memorandum of Understanding with the City's Office of Homeless Services.

Federal HOPWA Funds

The Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA) program is an important housing assistance and supportive services program for people with HIV/AIDS. The City of Philadelphia is the grantee for Philadelphia and Delaware counties, and under a separate agreement with HUD, is now grantee for the Bensalem Township for HOPWA which includes Bucks, Chester and Montgomery counties. In these regions, HOPWA funds are used to assist people or families experiencing homelessness or instability in their housing. In Philadelphia the referral of new clients into the rental assistance program is managed by the City’s Coordinated Entry for the homeless, and in Delaware County, Bucks, Chester and Montgomery counties, this process is managed through other local entities. The priority for housing assistance is to serve homeless clients disabled with HIV/AIDS in Philadelphia, and in the other counties, to serve people with HIV/AIDS with housing insecurity. HOPWA funding shall primarily be used to support tenant-based rental assistance, but shall also be used to support two programs that provide leased units to people disabled with HIV/AIDS. Finally, supportive services associated with housing, and Short-Term Rental, Mortgage and Utility Assistance (STRMU) shall also be funded in 2024-25. AP-70 indicates the HOPWA Goals for the year.

Federal Emergency Solutions Grant Funds

Emergency Solutions Grant funds have long supported the City’s ability to provide contracted emergency shelter and services to more than 15,000 individuals annually; supported the City’s Rapid Re-housing activities; and provide resources to support the Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) as well as data collection and analysis.

In 2024-25, funding will continue to support Rapid Re-housing, Emergency Shelters, Data/HMIS Systems, and a range of other Homelessness Prevention programs.

Rapid Re-housing	$955,016
Prevention	$300,000
Emergency Housing	$2,316,913
HMIS	$142,667
Administration	$146,925
Total	$3,861,521

HUD requires that the City apply for ESG funds through the Annual Action Plan. In 2024-25, DHCD will continue to assign the administration of these funds under a Memorandum of Understanding with the City’s Office of Homeless Services.

In addition to the federal allocation of ESG funding that is awarded to Philadelphia County, the City is also afforded an annual opportunity to compete for ESG funding that is awarded to the Commonwealth and administered by the Department of Community and Economic Development. Homeless Services serves as the local applicant for those funds.

■ ESG Matching Requirements

Matching funds are provided by City General Fund dollars. Please note: ESG-CV Grant does not require a funding match.

Federal McKinney Continuum of Care Grant

Beginning in 1998, federal McKinney Continuum of Care (CoC) Funds have been awarded annually to Philadelphia through a national competition. The City of Philadelphia serves as the Collaborative Applicant for the Philadelphia Continuum of Care and submits a Consolidated Application on behalf of local nonprofit homeless service organizations. In 2024-25, Philadelphia county will receive approximately $40 million in CoC Program renewal funds, of which the City of Philadelphia expects to receive $10,258,617 to support projects supporting safe haven services, rapid re-housing, transitional and permanent supportive housing, the Homeless Management Information System (HMIS), and CoC Planning. These funds are utilized for activities related to capital costs, leasing, rental assistance, supportive services, operating costs, HMIS, and administrative expenses.

The Continuum of Care renewal process includes a local competitive ranking process that ensures thorough, non-biased review of all projects requesting renewal funding to guarantee that they continue to meet a need and to measure performance against national & local standards for: utilization rates, housing stability/exiting participants to permanent housing, residence prior to entry/participant eligibility, increased participant income, participants connected to mainstream benefits, grant expenditures, and unresolved HUD monitoring issues. Renewal projects must describe their plans to improve performance if not meeting standards. Project ranking for the CoC Consolidated Application is based largely on performance criteria.

Both the City and nonprofit organizations are awarded funding and execute grant agreements directly with HUD for CoC Program-funded projects in renewal status. The City is the direct recipient of CoC Program grant funds for the operating costs and supportive services of Permanent Supportive Housing, HMIS, and CoC Planning. Using those funds, Homeless Services oversees rental assistance projects through contracts with nonprofit sponsors; conducts HQS inspections through an Inspections Unit housed at Homeless Services; and monitors programs.

Federal Community Development Block Grant – Disaster Recovery Funds

The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) has allocated the City of Philadelphia a total of $163,204,000 in funding to support long-term recovery efforts following the Remnants of Hurricane Ida (Hurricane Ida) and Disaster Declaration FEMA 4618-DR. Community Development Block Grant - Disaster Recovery (CDBG-DR) funding is designed to address needs that remain after all other assistance has been exhausted.

City Bond Financing

City Bond Financing supports business loan programs and other activities.

Philadelphia Housing Trust Fund

In order to provide more resources for affordable housing programs, in 2005 the City established the Philadelphia Housing Trust Fund (HTF). There are two ways in which HTF funding is categorized: HTF-RF (Recording Fee), and HTF-GF (General Fund). HTF-RF provides a sustainable funding stream by dedicating a portion of document recording fees for affordable housing. HTF-GF includes a portion of the City's General Fund – 0.5% – which is dedicated to Housing Trust Fund activities. The creation of the HTF required state enabling legislation, City Council ordinances, and Mayor's Executive Orders.

The ordinance that created the HTF included specific requirements for the expenditure of funds. Half of the funds are targeted to very low-income families and individuals earning at or below 30% of Area Median Income (AMI) and half are targeted to low- and moderate-income households earning between 30% and 115% of AMI. The HTF also addresses a variety of housing needs with at least half of its funds producing new or substantially rehabilitated homes and the rest supporting housing preservation, home repair and homelessness prevention. An Oversight Board appointed by the Mayor and comprised of public officials and community representatives recommends policies on fund allocation and HTF implementation. DHCD reviews the HTF Oversight Board's recommendations and the specific allocations from the HTF are included in the Annual Action Plan.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Funds

Philadelphia will apply for funding in 2024-25 through the DCED Keystone Communities program. Keystone Communities funding includes support for adaptive modifications, façade improvements, commercial corridor support and other programs.

Section 108 Loan Program

Under the Section 108 Loan Program, the City is allowed to borrow funds against future CDBG entitlements. Although this activity is expected to be self-sustaining for economic development ventures (as private-developer debt-service payments repay the City for Section 108 Loan obligations), future CDBG entitlements and additional security as required by HUD are used to guarantee all Section 108 loans. Any use of future CDBG funds for economic development projects will reduce CDBG funds allocated to economic development activities in an amount equal to the amount for the years affected.

In 2023-24 no Section 108 loans will be sought for housing development activities. The 2023-24 Section 108 loan for economic development may support a loan pool to make loans available for commercial and industrial lending throughout the city. The loans would be used to support an array of development needs including but not limited to site acquisition, site preparation, construction, rehabilitation, machinery and equipment acquisition, infrastructure improvements and related project costs.

The Section 108 financing made available in the past produced substantial benefits for Philadelphia neighborhoods. In the past, the City used the Section 108 Loan Program to provide debt financing for economic development ventures and to support specific affordable housing ventures. Economic development funding was encumbered to DHCD and administered by DHCD, the Commerce Department, or PIDC. The economic development loans were used to support an array of development needs including acquisition, site preparation, construction, reconstruction, machinery and equipment acquisition, infrastructure improvements and related project costs.

PHA Housing Choice Voucher Program

One of the largest sources of federal funds available for housing and community development in the City of Philadelphia is the Housing Choice Voucher Program (HCV) operated by the Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA). The HCV budget frequently totals more than $150 million. Since PHA is one of the Moving to Work (MTW) public housing authorities, PHA is able to use some funds from the HCV for other purposes, such as building new affordable housing, and providing training for low-income clients to help them up and out of subsidized housing, as well as for the traditional Housing Choice Voucher rental assistance program. PHA's MTW status has been extended until 2028.

City of Philadelphia General Funds

Historically, DHCD has received very limited resources from the City's General Fund, which consists of local tax dollars that support city services. In 2024-25 DHCD expects to use General Funds in support of vacant land management, foreclosure prevention, and the Storefront Improvement Program. Homeless Services expects to receive approximately $61.6 million in General Funds to support its homeless programs and activities in 2024-25.

■ Neighborhood Preservation Initiative Bond Funding

The Neighborhood Preservation Initiative (NPI) is a $400 million bond program approved by City Council in May 2021. The goal of NPI is to promote the health, welfare, and safety of residents of Philadelphia through the creation, expansion, implementation, and funding of housing programs to produce, maintain, and stabilize the City's housing inventory for the benefit of the residents of Philadelphia. Additionally, NPI will support the creation and expansion of programs for commercial corridors and will address infrastructure needs of neighborhoods.

Annual Operating Costs

Last year's 2023-24 Annual Action Plan showed budget amounts for Annual Operating Costs of approximately $32.1 million. Annual Operating Costs include both Program Delivery costs and General Administration costs. Program Delivery costs are personnel and other costs directly related to the implementation of program activities. Additionally, these costs are CDBG-eligible. General Administration costs include program planning, management, coordination, monitoring and evaluation, and public information.

Note: additional NPI funds support services outside of the scope of this Plan.

AP-35 Projects

Introduction

The City of Philadelphia uses its Community Development Block Grant (CDGB) and other available federal, state, and local funds to develop and preserve affordable rental and homeownership housing, expand housing opportunities for those facing homelessness or with special needs, ensure the availability of housing services and programs, and address the educational, economic, and income needs of its residents.

Initiatives working to achieve these goals are targeted in majority (>51%) low- and moderate-income areas per CDBG eligibility guidelines (see Eligible Block Groups map in AP-50). Neighborhood Advisory Committees, for instance, provide Neighborhood Services—information and referral services, citizen participation, and neighborhood planning—to majority low- and moderate-income communities.

Other activities benefit income-eligible individuals rather than entire areas. For example, neighborhood-based rental units and PHDC’s home improvement programs are available to any household within the program’s income guidelines. As shown in the Home Improvements map in AP-50, these programs benefit income-eligible households in every area of the city.

The City’s housing and community development programs are designed to complement one another. Foreclosure prevention, eviction diversion, vacant land management, and commercial corridor improvements all serve to combat blight, while Neighborhood Advisory Committees alert residents to their potential eligibility for home repair and other programs.

Taken together, the City’s projects, though listed here individually, are in fact a holistic response to the needs of residents and their neighborhoods.

The City made CFY 2024 allocations based on priorities set forth in the 2016 and draft 2022 Assessment of Fair Housing (AFH), the Five Year Consolidated Plan (FY 2023-27), the Continuum of Care, and ongoing resident and stakeholder engagement.

As noted throughout the Consolidated Plan’s Needs Assessment, Market Analysis, and Strategic Plan, the growing gap between household income and housing cost has created an overwhelming need for affordable housing units. As a result, tens of thousands of low-income residents have been waiting for subsidized housing for more than a decade. Creating new and preserving existing affordable housing for low-income, homeless, and special needs residents is therefore high priority for the City. Additional allocations were made to advance the AFH and Consolidated Plan priority goals.

A lack of resources remains one of the most significant obstacles to addressing priority needs. The City, however, is committed to working with its partners to leverage all available resources and to identify new resources for housing and community development projects and programs. Over the next five years, the City will continue to engage residents and stakeholders to ensure that future allocations are aligned to meet priority needs.

Philadelphia takes a balanced approach to implementing housing and community development activities. The City invests in struggling communities, provides support to middle neighborhoods, seeks to preserve affordability in appreciating neighborhoods, and looks to leverage assets in high-opportunity areas to benefit low- and moderate-income households.

Bringing investment and new housing stock to low-income communities is a strategy the City has employed successfully in the Cecil B. Moore Homeownership Zone, Eastern North Philadelphia, and other locations. Of the 10 affordable housing developments currently under construction, seven are located in the North/River Wards, two are in West Philadelphia, and one is located in the Central/South. All of the developments are located in or within half a mile of racially/ethnically concentrated areas of poverty (R/ECAPs), which will bring additional investment to these areas.

The City supports low-income and middle neighborhoods with community development corporation assistance through tax credits and investments in commercial corridors. Forty CDCs are taking advantage of the City's tax credit program in neighborhoods throughout the city. Similarly, the City invests in commercial corridor management and public services in neighborhoods of varying income levels.

Housing counseling agencies and neighborhood energy centers, while available to all residents, are located in low-income communities, middle neighborhoods, and Center City. Neighborhood Advisory Committees provide services in low- and moderate-income census tracts, some of which are also racially/ethnically concentrated areas of poverty.

Home improvements and vacant land management are largely clustered in lower-income areas in North, West, and South Philadelphia. Of all the City's programs, the benefits of foreclosure prevention and eviction diversion are most broadly distributed across the city.

Whether through an area benefit or a service provided directly to a low- or moderate-income person or household, the vast majority of the City's programming goes to CDBG-eligible households and census tracts. In high-opportunity areas, the City uses strategies such as density bonuses and land assemblage to leverage private sector investment to create affordable housing.

Place-Based Strategy Areas

■ Choice Neighborhoods

- North Central (North Philadelphia) – Choice Implementation Grant

The City and the Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA) have leveraged HUD Choice Neighborhoods funds to create 297 new affordable, market rate, and homeownership units and implement a variety of critical community improvements including a new workforce training center, recreation center expansion, and underpass treatments.
- Bartram/Kingsessing (Southwest Philadelphia) – Choice Implementation Grant

Collaborating with Bartram Village housing residents and the broader Kingsessing community, PHA developed a comprehensive neighborhood revitalization plan in 2018. The plan calls for improved housing, neighborhood conditions, health and safety, education, and career outcomes for local residents. In the summer of 2023, Bartram/Kingsessing was awarded a Choice Neighborhood Implementation Grant. Collaborating with PHA, the City has begun executing the neighborhood plan. The plan calls for the preservation of existing affordable housing through interior and exterior repairs, the cleaning and greening of vacant lots, implementing best practices for stormwater management, installation of public art, and re-envisioning public spaces through a placemaking initiative.
- Sharswood-Blumberg (North Philadelphia) – Choice Implementation Grant

PHA, in collaboration with Blumberg public housing residents and community stakeholders, developed a comprehensive neighborhood revitalization plan for Sharswood in 2015. The plan details resident priorities and strategies for improving housing, neighborhood conditions, health and safety, education, and career outcomes of local residents. Sharswood was subsequently awarded an Implementation Grant in Spring 2020. PHA, in partnership with the City, has begun carrying out neighborhood plan. In addition to developing rental and homeownership housing, implementation activities include the construction of a new grocery store, workforce development and resident programming, identifying opportunities for creative placemaking, the creation of green space, and engaging residents and local businesses, particularly along Ridge Avenue commercial corridor.
- Yorktown/Harrison (North Philadelphia) – Choice Planning Grant

In 2024, PHA began engaging residents of the Harrison plaza and the broader Yorktown community to develop a comprehensive neighborhood revitalization plan. The plan will focus on building and maintaining affordable housing, promoting economic development along major commercial corridors, public safety improvements, and providing workforce development opportunities to residents.

■ West Philadelphia/Mantua Promise Zone

The West Philadelphia Promise Zone in Mantua – designated in 2014 – helps local community organizations work together to increase opportunities of residents living, working, and going to school within its boundaries. The 10-year Promise Zone designation makes West Philadelphia more competitive across a variety of grant opportunities from federal agencies.

See the Placed-Based Strategy Areas map for the boundaries of these areas.

Rationale for the priorities for allocating investments geographically

As DHCD and the Philadelphia Housing Authority learned from the input gathered as part of the 2022 Assessment of Fair Housing – there is a clear desire for improvement in Philadelphia’s struggling communities. Furthermore, the need for improvements is expressed most strongly by Black and Hispanic survey respondents: 53% of Black respondents and 56% of Hispanic respondents said that they would prefer to move to a different neighborhood if they had a choice, while only 30% of white respondents said the same.

Accordingly, the City’s housing and community development strategies seek to bring investment to low-opportunity areas while also increasing access to high-opportunity areas.

In once-poor communities—such as North Philadelphia west of Broad Street, Eastern North Philadelphia, New Kensington, and West Poplar—city investments have led to safer, more economically healthy neighborhoods. Philadelphia will continue to invest strategically in low-income communities. In addition to bringing new housing stock to a community that needs it, development in these neighborhoods frequently involves rehabilitation and preservation rather than new construction - not only providing new housing but also removing blighting influences.

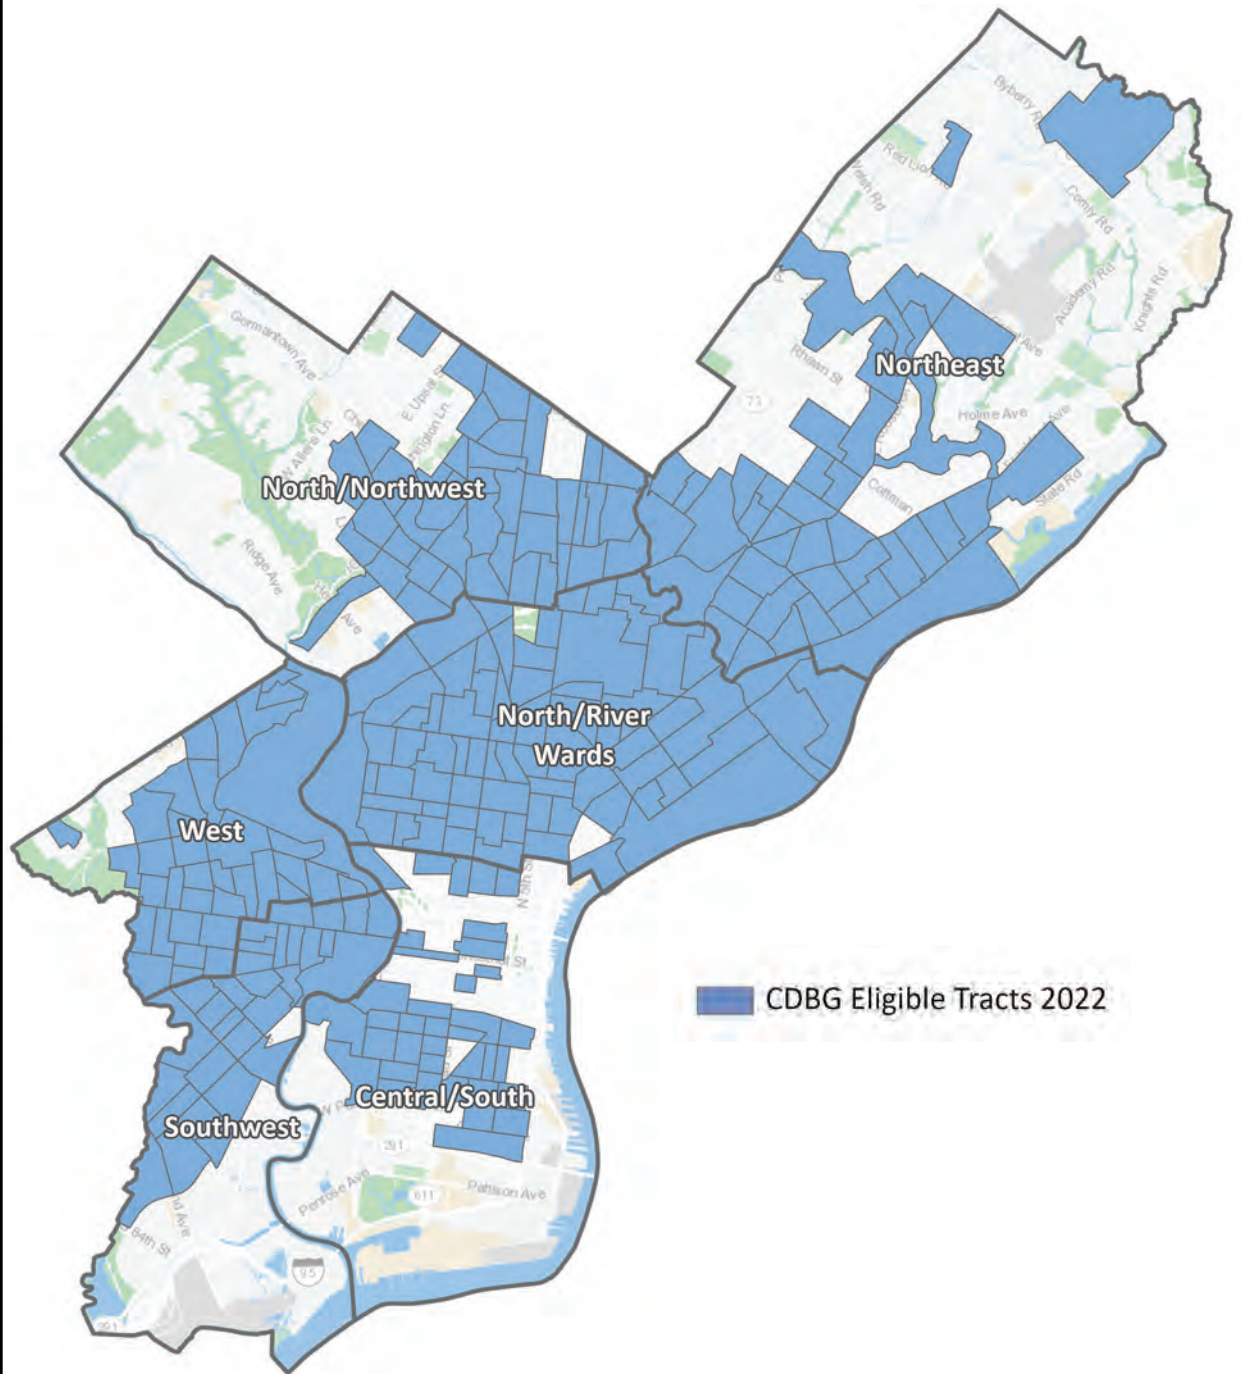

Site-specific interventions, such as home repair and vacant land management, are necessarily tied to the conditions that warrant the activity. The Home Improvements map shows that home improvements are linked to the age of the housing stock. Similarly, the LandCare map demonstrates that vacant land management is tied to the amount of vacant land in a neighborhood.

The availability of land is much more limited in high-opportunity neighborhoods, and therefore the City seeks to take advantage of private investment to support affordable housing in those locations. The mixed-income housing zoning bonus is for developers who add affordable dwellings to their projects or make payments in lieu of the addition of such units. In return, the development gets more floor area, height, and/or dwellings. In calendar years 2022 and 2023, developers that opted to add dwellings to their projects completed 26 affordable units, while developers that opted to make payments, contributed over $8 million.

AP-60 Public Housing

Introduction

The Philadelphia Housing Authority, also known as PHA, is a state-chartered agency that develops, acquires, subsidizes, leases and operates affordable housing for city residents with limited incomes. Established in 1937, PHA is the nation's fourth-largest housing authority, operating the largest affordable housing portfolio in Pennsylvania. PHA houses nearly 80,000 low-income Philadelphia residents and employs approximately 1,100 people to deliver services to its clients. PHA is a participant in the Moving to Work ("MTW") Demonstration Program pursuant to the terms of an MTW Agreement with the US Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"). The term of the MTW Agreement was recently extended to end in 2038.

PHA's approximately $586.8 million budget for PHA Fiscal Year 2025 comes primarily from the federal government. It also works in partnership with the city and state governments as well as private investors to provide affordable housing and services to residents.

PHA is governed by a nine-member Board of Commissioners, all of whom are appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by City Council. It is PHA policy to serve customers without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, sexual orientation, having AIDS, physical handicap, or disability.

Additional detail on PHA planned activities is available in the MTW Annual Plans prepared by PHA each year, approved by HUD and posted on PHA's website at www.pha.phila.gov.

Actions planned during the next year to address the needs of public housing

PHA will continue and expand its multiyear, ongoing initiatives to substantially transform PHA properties and programs, and to support the revitalization of Philadelphia's neighborhoods, including conversions of public housing to project-based assistance under the Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) program. PHA's primary goals include preserving and/or redeveloping its existing affordable housing portfolio through asset repositioning, including public housing and Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) units; expanding the supply of new affordable housing units through use of the Faircloth to RAD program, innovative partnerships and the use of all available financing tools; and, opening doors for PHA residents to enhanced services, educational and economic opportunities and affordable homeownership.

PHA's approach incorporates three broad, interrelated strategies:

1. Repositioning Public Housing –The majority of public housing units in Philadelphia are more than a half century old and many scattered site units were built more than a century ago. As such, the public housing portfolio requires substantial new investments or complete redevelopment in order to provide quality housing for current and future residents. Over the next several years - and building on the work completed over the past 10 years - PHA will continue to reposition the public housing portfolio to project-based assistance in order to secure the funding needed to preserve and/or redevelop aging housing sites, as well as to provide a more secure and stable funding platform that is capable of sustaining affordable housing over the long-term.

2. Developing New Affordable Housing – Increasing the supply of affordable housing is of critical importance to the future of Philadelphia in light of rapidly increasing housing costs, neighborhood gentrification and other market factors that have created enormous housing cost burdens, increased evictions and exacerbated homelessness among low-income families and individuals. Through the Faircloth to RAD program and creative use of the financing tools discussed below, PHA is focused on expanding affordable housing production wherever feasible as part of public housing redevelopment, neighborhood-wide transformation or other partner or PHA-sponsored projects.
3. Expanding Long-Term Rental Assistance – Since 2013, PHA has significantly increased funding for long-term operating subsidies to newly developed or existing housing developments. Long-term rental assistance provided through the Unit Based Voucher program is a critically important component of PHA’s efforts to preserve and expand affordable housing and reduce housing cost burdens for low-income renters.

In support of these interrelated strategies, PHA creatively utilizes MTW funding to fund and/or leverage other funding, and all available financing and programmatic tools including:

- HUD’s Rental Assistance Demonstration (RAD) Program - RAD is a significant component of PHA’s efforts to reposition public housing and convert it to Section 8 project-based assistance. Under RAD, the right of existing residents to return to newly constructed or rehabilitated housing is guaranteed and one-for-one replacement of all public housing units is required. The RAD program also incorporates two important features which PHA utilizes to expand the supply of affordable housing: 1) “Faircloth to RAD” through which PHA is able to tap into unused public housing Annual Contributions Contract (ACC) authority, develop new public housing units using that authority and then convert the public housing to project-based assistance; and 2) “Transfer of assistance” through which PHA is able to transfer subsidies from long-term, vacant and distressed public housing scattered site units to newly developed projects covered by project-based assistance contracts. PHA has closed on 2,162 units under RAD through FY 2024, with an additional 4,474 in the active planning stages for FY 2025 and beyond.
- Low Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC) through the Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency (PHFA) and other tax credit programs authorized by the federal or state government which support private investments to finance RAD and/or other development activities conducted by PHA and its development partners. Since 2013, PHA development projects have received 16 LIHTC awards that generated $222.5 million in private funding to construct 1,338 affordable units.

- Special Grant Programs such as HUD’s Choice Neighborhoods Planning and Implementation (CNI) grants which provide funding to support the transformation of public housing developments into newly revitalized mixed-income communities with supportive services and neighborhood amenities. With the FY 2022 CNI award to PHA of $50 million to partially fund the Bartram Village redevelopment and an FY 2023 award of $500,000 to support the Harrison Plaza neighborhood planning effort, PHA has received a total of 3 CNI Implementation and 3 CNI Planning grants. In early 2024, PHA submitted to HUD a competitive proposal for an additional $50 million CNI Implementation grant to help fund the comprehensive redevelopment of Westpark. The proposal is under review by HUD as of April 2024.
- PHA’s Unit Based Leasing and Development (UBV) Program, which currently provides long-term operating funding to more than 5,000 newly developed or existing housing developments. UBV funding ensures that rents are affordable for low-income families by capping tenants rent at 30% or less of adjusted household income. The UBV program subsidizes the difference between tenant rents and actual rental costs, which provides a stable and reliable source of funding to building owners. Many UBV developments are owned by mission-driven, neighborhood-based and other organizations that focus on special needs populations and provide on-site or nearby supportive services to tenants.
- Tenant Protection Vouchers provide replacement housing vouchers that can be project-based in connection with HUD Section 18 dispositions of public housing.

Subject to approval by the PHA Board of Commissioners, PHA selects projects for the RAD and UBV programs through competitive procurements and plans to issue additional Requests for Proposals and select additional developer proposals in FY 2025 and subsequent years.

Of note, PHA’s development activities create jobs for public housing and other local residents and help drive the local and regional economies. A June 2023 economic impact analysis conducted by ESI/Econsult Solutions concluded, “From 2023 through 2029, PHA’s anticipated capital investments ... will generate a significant cumulative impact on the local and Commonwealth economies. Locally, capital investments from PHA’s planned developments are estimated to produce nearly $5.2 billion in cumulative economic impact, supporting more than 4,400 FTE job-years and nearly $1.8 billion in employee compensation in Philadelphia. Statewide, these investments are projected to produce a total of roughly $6.2 billion in cumulative economic impact, supporting 4,900 FTE job-years and $2.1 billion in employee compensation during the period of construction.”

Summary highlights of PHA’s planned affordable housing preservation and development initiatives are included below. Note that unit counts, financing sources and development timetables are subject to change based on planning activities, interest rates, funding availability, regulatory agency approvals and other factors, many of which are not in PHA’s control. Therefore, there may be variances from year to year in the information provided by PHA in this summary, the MTW Annual Plan and/or other published plans.

Table 12: PHA FY 2025 Planned Activities

Site/Program	Description	PHA FY 2025 Planned Activity
Sharswood/ Blumberg	The Choice Neighborhoods Transformation Plan for Sharswood/Blumberg is the largest mixed-income, mixed-use redevelopment project underway in the City of Philadelphia. Funded in part by a $30 million HUD grant, the Plan calls for development of 1,500 units of mixed-income housing, including affordable rentals and homeownership units, of which 576 rental units and 29 Homeownership units have been completed. An additional 659 rental units and 236 homeownership units are currently under construction or about to start construction. In addition to this housing activity, construction and occupancy of the new PHA Headquarters Building was completed in January 2019, and PHA launched a new Youth and Family Center on the ground floor in October 2022. A new fresh food supermarket and mixed-used retail center opened in FY 2024 adjacent to PHA Headquarters. Also, the nearby Vaux Community Building was substantially rehabilitated and is now the site of PHA's Workforce Center, a Section 3 Resource Center, a neighborhood high school, a CVS training facility, resident business incubator and other community services.	PHA projects that all planned housing and homeownership units will be completed or substantially completed in FY 2025. PHA will also continue to support after school and supportive service programming for low-income youth attending the Big Picture Philadelphia High School located in the Vaux Community Building.
Fairhill Apartments	Fairhill Apartments is a distressed 264-unit public housing development from which all residents have been successfully relocated. PHA's master plan for the site involves demolishing and replacing all of the low-rise units with 65 new-construction townhomes, rehabilitating both towers into senior preference housing, building a new public street to reconnect the site to the surrounding neighborhood and creating two community spaces. Phase III includes an off-site phase for which PHA is in the process of acquiring vacant parcels on the surrounding blocks to build 85 additional new construction townhomes, including 10 affordable homeownership units.	PHA projects that financing plans will be finalized for Phases 1 and 2, demolition will be substantially completed and construction activity will commence.

Westpark Apartments	Following an intensive community engagement and planning process, PHA is undertaking the complete redevelopment of the 11+ acre, 327-unit Westpark Apartments public housing development into a mixed-income, mixed use neighborhood of choice. In FY 2024, PHA’s Board approved the selection of development partners LMXD and MSquared and overall plan to develop a total of 1,000 mixed-income units, including renovation of three existing tower buildings and development of ground floor commercial spaces. Extensive site reconfiguration and infrastructure improvements will be done. PHA also applied for a competitive CNI Implementation grant for Westpark in FY 2024 which is awaiting HUD action.	PHA will continue to plan for the redevelopment financing and design and anticipates that the first phase of construction may commence in late FY 2025.
Bartram Village	PHA is working with the community and development partner, Penrose Properties, to implement a Choice Neighborhoods Transformation Plan for Bartram Village, which will replace the existing 500 distressed units with over 600 mixed-income rental and affordable homeownership units on-site and at a nearby off-site parcel. A series of targeted neighborhood improvements, economic development and resident supportive services will be implemented in tandem with the housing development program. In FY 2024, HUD awarded a $50 million Choice Neighborhoods Implementation to the project, and the Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency awarded a 9% LIHTC for offsite Phase 1.	PHA anticipates that the first phase of construction at Bartram will commence in FY 2025 and that Phase 2 financing will be finalized.
Harrison Plaza	PHA completed the redevelopment of the existing Harrison Plaza tower into a senior preference building in FY 2024. The building was converted to PBV under the RAD program and has been fully reoccupied. This milestone represents the first phase of a redevelopment plan for the entire Harrison Plaza site. HUD awarded PHA a $500,000 Choice Neighborhoods Planning Grant in FY 2024 to support development a comprehensive Transformation Plan for Harrison Plaza and the surrounding Yorktown neighborhood.	In FY 2025, PHA will continue the planning process for redevelopment of Harrison Plaza and the surrounding Yorktown neighborhood and identify a development partner. PHA also plans to apply for financing for the first phase of redevelopment.

Rental Assistance Demonstration	Through RAD, PHA is able to convert public housing assistance to project-based assistance and to expand assistance through Faircloth to RAD. Overall, PHA projects that 2,162 units at existing public housing sites, new transfer of assistance and Faircloth to RAD sites will have closed under the RAD program by the end of FY 2024.	PHA plans to undertake RAD conversion of at least an additional 4,474 public housing units in FY 2025 and future years.
Public Housing Development	Working with partners, PHA continues to support the development of new public housing units. Most or all of these newly developed units will convert to project-based assistance through Faircloth to RAD at the time of completion or later.	PHA will continue to collaborate with partners to develop 12 new public housing developments with a total of 555 units.
Unit Based Vouchers (UBV)	The UBV program provides long-term, project-based rental assistance for low-income households. UBV developments include both new and existing buildings, and many serve special needs populations and provide supportive services.	PHA plans to enter into UBV contracts for an additional 1,380 units, which includes planned RAD conversions and other development initiatives. On an ongoing basis, PHA plans to provide UBV subsidies to approximately 5,243 affordable housing units.
Scattered Sites	PHA's preservation strategy includes the conversion of approximately 3,700 scattered site public housing units to the PBV program in tandem with performing unit repairs and upgrades to improve conditions and ensure long-term viability. The first phase involves approximately 1,200 units in AMPS 901, 902 and 903 for which PHA plans to request HUD approval for a Section 18 disposition, RAD conversion and/or RAD/Section 18 blend. Following HUD approval, PHA will transfer ownership to a PHA affiliate; apply for HUD Tenant Protection Vouchers (TPV) as applicable; and, convert to one or more long-term Section 8 Housing Assistance Payments contracts.	PHA plans to request HUD approval for a Section 18 disposition, RAD conversion and/or RAD/Section 18 blend for the first phase of scattered sites units in FY 2025, subject to Board approval. Second phase approval(s) will proceed in late FY 2025.

PHA also continues to administer a large Housing Choice Voucher Program with approximately 20,000 units including the Housing Opportunity Program (HOP), which assists voucher participants with securing housing in higher opportunity areas. The overall goal of HOP is to encourage voucher holders to find housing and jobs in areas that provide higher economic, educational, and social mobility opportunities both within and outside of the City. Vouchers may be utilized for rental or homeownership housing, based on participant eligibility. Participants are provided with a broad range of supportive services, housing counseling, and other efforts to promote the successful transition to higher opportunity areas. PHA's adoption of payment standards based on HUD's Small Area Fair Market Rents supports voucher holder housing search efforts by providing higher subsidy levels in opportunity areas.

Actions to encourage public housing residents to become more involved in management and participate in homeownership

PHA will continue to actively support resident engagement in all facets of PHA operations. The elected resident leaders who represent PHA residents meet regularly with PHA staff to review and discuss planned initiatives, identify and resolve issues, and explore new opportunities for collaboration. In addition to having two resident leaders serve as members of PHA's Board of Commissioners, resident leaders meet in advance of every PHA Board meeting to review and discuss proposed Board actions. Resident leaders also generally meet on a monthly timetable with PHA staff for "Resident Roundtable" discussions and presentations.

Some examples of initiatives in which residents held a significant role within the planning process include:

- As a matter of agency policy, PHA involves residents extensively in all development and asset repositioning initiatives including planned conversions under the RAD program for conventional, scattered sites and PAPMC public housing; redevelopment planning for Westpark, Sharswood/Blumberg, North Central/Norris and other sites; and development of the Bartram Village/Kingsessing and Westpark/West Philadelphia Transformation Plans.
- PHA worked with the citywide Resident Advisory Board to develop strategies to respond to the pandemic including expanding access to testing and vaccines; developing new policies and procedures for contactless transaction processing (recertifications, occupancy changes, etc.); modifications and enhancements to building maintenance and community area protocols; and initiatives to expand internet access and virtual programming to facilitate at home learning for youth and other supportive services.
- PHA continues to work with the citywide Resident Advisory Board to link residents to job training and employment opportunities and to operate a new business incubator at the Vaux Community Building. PHA's Section 3 Job Bank initiative helps ensure that contractors have continuous access to a pool of interested residents who are ready and able to take advantage of job opportunities. The Section 3 Job Bank is a popular and productive source of economic opportunity for residents. The Section 3 Resource Center and Section 3 Entrepreneurship Fellowship are two of RPP's most impactful initiatives to better-connect residents with employment/business opportunities with PHA and contractors. Since 2021, the Section 3 Resource Center has operated a PHA Entrepreneurship Fellowship, providing individualized support to twenty residents during a six-month entrepreneurship pathway to starting, creating, building, or sustaining their business model/plan and distributing over $100,000 each year in start-up funds. .
- The Smoke Free Initiative prohibits smoking at all conventional, Low-Income Housing Tax Credit, and scattered site residential units for all existing and new developments. Procedures for implementation were developed with input from resident leadership and the Board. PHA coordinates the provision of smoking cessation information and/or assistance to all interested residents in conjunction with the Philadelphia Department of Public Health and other partners. In early 2017, Drexel University published its initial findings regarding air quality in PHA developments. The study found a 50% reduction in airborne nicotine and second-hand smoke exposure as a result of the implementation of this policy.

- The joint PHA-City Assessment of Fair Housing initially conducted in 2017 (and updated in 2022) actively engaged PHA residents in reviewing fair housing data, identifying priorities, and determining long-term goals. PHA residents participated throughout the process, both in citywide stakeholder meetings and in discussions specifically geared to PHA resident concerns. Resident leaders actively supported implementation of a citywide AFH survey and were directly instrumental in ensuring that over 1,100 PHA residents completed the survey

Initiatives that provide residents with homeownership opportunities are:

- PHA continues to implement first-time affordable homeownership initiatives to expand housing choice and increase the number of first time, low-income homebuyers. PHA's Opening Doors to Affordable Homeownership initiative consolidates PHA's existing HUD-approved Section 5h Homeownership Program, Housing Choice Voucher (HCV) Homeownership Program, other new development homeownership initiatives and homeownership readiness and counseling support under the management of PHA's Homeownership Unit (a component of the Resident Programs and Partnerships Department). It expands PHA's existing programs to incorporate new types of assistance including lease-purchase and down payment assistance options.
- Under the existing Section 5h program, PHA assists current public housing residents of scattered site units to purchase their own units. Under the existing HCV Homeownership program, current voucher participants may utilize their voucher assistance to purchase homes and then receive monthly Housing Assistance Payments to support housing costs for up to a fifteen (15) or thirty (30) year period.
- PHA and partners have also developed affordable homeownership units as part of major redevelopment projects at Sharswood/Blumberg, North Central/Norris, Greater Grays Ferry and other neighborhoods.
- PHA will also actively participate in the "Turn the Key" program, which is part of the City's Neighborhood Preservation Initiative to build more than 1,000 new, energy-efficient, three-bedroom homes on publicly owned land. Residents that are part of PHA's homeownership pipeline will be encouraged to enroll in the program so that they can compete for Turn the Key units. PHA residents will receive first preference for any homeownership units that are built on land which PHA transferred to the City Land Bank and will be eligible for PHA grants up to $50,000 and City grants up to $25,000.

If the PHA is designated as troubled, describe the manner in which financial assistance will be provided or other assistance

AP-65 Homeless and Other Special Needs Activities

Introduction

The activities described in this section respond to the Year 48 objective of preventing homelessness by keeping people housed.

Specific sub-populations targeted include individuals and families who are chronically homeless, individuals and families at risk of homelessness, veterans and their families, individuals and families who are experiencing domestic violence, individuals living with HIV/AIDS, and unaccompanied youth ages 18-24.

The Office Homeless Services (OHS) collaborates with nonprofit housing and service providers and municipal, state, and federal government entities to create the City's homelessness response system. Currently, based on the 2023 Housing Inventory Chart, the Philadelphia Continuum of Care includes an inventory of: 90 emergency housing facilities for singles and families with a total capacity of 3,800 beds; 22 transitional housing programs with 850 beds; and 108 Permanent Supportive Housing programs with 3,800 units containing 5,298 beds.

OHS provides the leadership, coordination, planning, and mobilization of resources to make homelessness rare, brief and non-recurring in the city. In Year 48, OHS will continue to provide homelessness prevention and diversion, emergency housing, transitional and rapid rehousing, permanent supportive housing, case management, supportive services, emergency response, service days, food and commodity distribution to contracted emergency housing facilities and soup kitchens.

OHS will continue to utilize a 24-hour per day, 365 days per year centralized housing crisis triage and assessment approach to provide diversion, prevention, and intake to short-term (emergency and transitional) housing to resolve immediate housing crises. In 2018, OHS launched a Coordinated Entry system, known as CEA-BHRS. This system increases efficiency, and ease of access to resources, while standardizing processes and prioritizing resources for those who are in most need of assistance.

Youth-focused access point Valley Youth House has been operating since 2018. In addition, in 2019 a Mobile Assessment Team was added to provide participant access to the CEA-BHRS process. It was created with the purpose of expanding capacity of street outreach teams to provide participant access to permanent housing options.

OHS outreach teams will continue to locate and engage individuals living on the streets, and encourage them to accept services, treatment, and housing. Through operation of our Supportive Housing Clearinghouse, we will continue to facilitate access to long-term support housing, which is an evidence-based housing intervention that combines non-time-limited affordable housing for people with disabilities with wrap-around supportive services.

Designed in 2021, the PEACE (Partners Establishing Accessible & Affordable Housing; Caring for Frail Older Adults Empathetically) Program aims to improve access to stable, supportive housing for frail older people experiencing homelessness and/or with behavioral health disabilities. It is an initiative of the Office of Homeless Services.

OHS will continue its rapid rehousing focus, providing housing stabilization counseling, rental assistance, security and utility deposits, and/or payments for rent or utility arrearages to enable moves from homelessness into stable housing. With the goal of preventing experiences of homelessness, we will further expand similar services and resources provided to those at risk.

The Office of Homeless Services works in collaboration with the City's housing entities, primarily DHCD and the Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA), and the other members of the Mayor's Health and Human Services Cabinet, which includes the Department of Behavioral Health and Intellectual Disability Services (DBHIDS), the Department of Human Services (DHS), the Department of Public Health (DPH), and the Mayor's Office of Community Empowerment and Opportunity (CEO).

The Application Programming Interface, API, established between OHS and DBHIDS regarding outreach data has been completed. However, the API did not include all outreach data. In 2023, Law provided guidance to OHS and DBHIDS that all street outreach data contacts collected by DBHIDS should go to OHS/HMIS. Further collaboration is needed to make this happen to ensure all outreach data is exported into HMIS by way of the outreach team.

In January 2023, OHS conducted the Point-in-Time Count (PIT). We did a full count, which included street canvassing, conducting a survey with willing participants and tally sheets. We distributed PPE to ensure the health and safety of all participants based on CDC, HUD, and local guidelines. The results from the 2023 PIT Count were submitted and approved by HUD in Spring 2023.

The City also maintains goals and undertakes activities to serve the housing and supportive service needs of non-homeless populations who require supportive housing. One of the 13 goals identified in the Strategic Plan (SP-45) is to reduce homelessness and expand special needs housing opportunities. Strategies for doing so are found in this section and more specific activities are found in the Projects (AP-35) portion of the Plan.

One-year goals and actions for reducing and ending homelessness including reaching out to homeless persons (especially unsheltered persons) and assessing their individual needs:

Year 50 Goal:

- Continue to coordinate outreach efforts to target key areas and identify new areas where homeless individuals are located.

Philadelphia coordinates street outreach to individuals experiencing homelessness through the Outreach Coordination Center, provider Project HOME, and in collaboration with other local nonprofit organizations. DBHIDS funds and oversees Philadelphia’s Street Outreach activities. Quarterly, a collaborative outreach committee brings together all outreach teams, including those for youth, with key stakeholders such as the Center City District and the Philadelphia Police Department to coordinate efforts.

In addition to quarterly street counts, citywide street outreach efforts include 24-hour, 365-day hotline and dispatch to ensure outreach presence on the streets and walk-in services. Street outreach teams locate and engage individuals, encouraging them to accept services, treatment, and housing.

Outreach teams regularly coordinate with and link individuals to shelter, mental health crisis systems, the courts, medical care, and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), as needed. In collaboration with DBHIDS, the Department of Public Health, and law enforcement, the Office of Homeless Services is streamlining the City’s approach to outreach and engagement. The goal of this approach is to increase uniformity in response across agencies, focus on housing placements and increase visibility in “hot spots,” areas with large populations of people experiencing homelessness. OHS also increased outreach in the geographic area hardest hit by the opioid crisis.

Outreach has access to a van that accommodates wheelchairs and access to the City’s “language line” translation system for those who are not English Language proficient.

Addressing the emergency shelter and transitional housing needs of homeless persons.

Year 50 Goals:

- Continue to provide emergency housing assistance to meet the needs of people experiencing homelessness, including individuals and families, households fleeing domestic violence, and unaccompanied youth.
- Reduce the length of stay in emergency and transitional housing to 80 days.
- Increase the percentage of exits from emergency and transitional housing to permanent housing to 30%.

In 2023-24, the City of Philadelphia will provide short-term housing (emergency and transitional) for vulnerable people to resolve an immediate housing crisis. Case management assistance will assist the household with obtaining appropriate permanent housing. The City will utilize funds from the Emergency Solutions Grant, City General Funds, and the state Homeless Assistance Program to support emergency shelter activities. The State Homeless Assistance Program and Continuum of Care (CoC) Program funds will support transitional housing activities.

The Philadelphia CoC's emergency and transitional housing system is structured to accept all subpopulations of people that are experiencing homelessness, in addition, there are facilities specifically designated for survivors of domestic violence, individuals and families in recovery from substance use disorder, youth ages 18-24, and Veteran households. Emergency housing provides short-term accommodation for individuals and families to resolve an immediate housing crisis, assess level of need, and provide case management assistance in obtaining appropriate housing. Transitional housing helps households move toward self-sufficiency by providing supported semi-independent living for a period of up to 24 months. Veterans also have the option to stay in targeted emergency and transitional housing funded through the VA Grant and Per Diem program.

Helping homeless persons (especially chronically homeless individuals and families, families with children, veterans and their families, and unaccompanied youth) make the transition to permanent housing and independent living, including shortening the period of time that individuals and families experience homelessness, facilitating access for homeless individuals and families to affordable housing units, and preventing individuals and families who were recently homeless from becoming homeless again.

Year 50 Goals:

- Move 1,250 households experiencing homelessness into permanent housing.
- Move 500 families to permanent housing with rapid re-housing assistance.

In 2023-24, funding sources including CoC Program, ESG, Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF), and Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing (HUD-VASH), RHY, PATH, and others will assist individuals and families experiencing homelessness in transitioning to permanent housing and independent living.

Philadelphia is committed to identifying and prioritizing the most vulnerable and chronically homeless individuals for housing placement. Based on the 2021 Housing Inventory Count, Philadelphia had 5,341 permanent housing beds, with 1,715 dedicated to chronically homeless individuals. This includes both permanent supportive and rapid re-housing beds. All households receiving rapid re-housing assistance are encouraged to pay up to 30% of their income towards their rent and utilities.

Helping low-income individuals and families avoid becoming homeless, especially extremely low-income individuals and families and those who are: being discharged from publicly funded institutions and systems of care (such as health care facilities, mental health facilities, foster care and other youth facilities, and corrections programs and institutions); or, receiving assistance from public or private agencies that address housing, health, social services, employment, education, or youth needs.

Year 50 Goal:

- Prevent 1,200 very low-income households from experiencing homelessness.

The Office of Homeless Services helps extremely low-income individuals and families avoid becoming homeless in a variety of ways, including:

- 1) working with the Department of Behavioral Health and Intellectual Disability Services (DBHIDS), the Philadelphia Department of Corrections' Office of Reentry, DHS, and the Philadelphia Department of Public Health (PDPH) to improve coordination between systems and assist in the identification of need and creation of housing models for target populations;
- 2) administering employment programs such as day wage and temporary employment programs in partnership with the City's Office of Children and Families and the Office of Workforce Development; and
- 3) partnering with non-profits specializing in youth, education, and employment needs to help participants achieve housing stability.

In Year 50, Philadelphia will continue to work with extremely low-income individuals and families to help them avoid homelessness. This includes those exiting public institutions, corrections, and systems of care, as well as those receiving assistance from public or private agencies. The Office of Homeless Service's Emergency Assistance and Response Unit (EARU) prevents eviction through rental or security deposit assistance, funded through the Community Services Block Grant. OHS has also expanded funding and programming to provide diversion and prevention services to Philadelphia households and will use General Funds, Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG), HOME, and local Housing Trust Fund dollars to remove financial barriers to sustaining housing thereby preventing shelter entry.

In Year 50, the City of Philadelphia, in conjunction with DBHIDS, will continue its implementation of policies affecting those exiting mental health facilities. Currently, all discharges from the Targeted Case Management Unit (TCM) must seek approval contingent upon documentation of a stable housing plan. For discharges from DBHIDS residential programs, the City requires a written request explaining why supports are no longer necessary and that the person secured alternative living arrangements.

The Federal Fostering Connections to Success Act requires that young people exiting the foster care system have a transition plan at least 90 days before they discharge from care—whether that is when they are 18 or older. In Pennsylvania, youth can remain in foster care until they are 21 if they meet certain eligibility requirements. In addition, Pennsylvania law allows youth to petition to re-enter care up to age 21 if they exited foster care after their 18th birthday. The Philadelphia Department of Human Services (DHS) starts transition planning for youth as early as 14 years old, at a minimum of six months prior to discharge. Multiple state and local government agencies and nonprofit organizations collaborate to ensure that people exiting a system of care are not routinely exiting into homelessness.

While many young adults make private arrangements to obtain safe and sustainable housing, the City offers several resources for youth to assist them as they transition to adulthood to ensure stability. DHS's Achieving Independence Center is a one-stop shop for youth ages 14-21 currently or formerly in care. The center provides independent living skills programming and services. This includes connection to housing resources including several programs designated for youth who have exited DHS care and are facing housing instability as well as referrals to aftercare case management resources for youth who have exited DHS care.

OHS was awarded a Youth Homelessness Demonstration Grant (YHDP) and anticipates implementing several programs aimed at supporting young people experiencing homelessness in Philadelphia. They include the expansion of a young adult access point, the creation of a new young adult access point, the addition of a youth focused mobile housing assessment and mental health support program, and various financial literacy, educational, and vocational support services.

AP-75 Barriers to Affordable Housing

Introduction

The Consolidated Plan addresses barriers to affordable housing in Sections MA-40 and SP-55. No existing local policies have been identified as having a significant negative impact on affordable housing. However, other barriers to affordable housing have been identified. Those barriers include:

- Displacement of residents due to economic pressures
- Lack of public investment in specific neighborhoods, including services and amenities
- Deteriorated vacant structures and land
- Location and type of affordable housing
- Inability to access existing housing and other resources
- Location and access to proficient schools
- Lack of income
- Availability of affordable units in a range of sizes
- Lack of communication between government and residents
- Residential foreclosures
- Residential evictions
- Age and condition of housing
- Lack of local private fair housing outreach and enforcement

Actions it planned to remove or ameliorate the negative effects of public policies that serve as barriers to affordable housing such as land use controls, tax policies affecting land, zoning ordinances, building codes, fees and charges, growth limitations, and policies affecting the return on residential investment

As discussed in the first narrative, the City has not identified any local policies as having a significant negative impact on affordable housing. Goals and strategies have been developed to address barriers to affordable housing. The City and PHA worked with a diverse team of stakeholders in 2016 to identify Assessment of Fair Housing (AFH) goals to address barriers to affordable housing and access to opportunity. The draft 2022 AFH offers targeted recommendations for the City and its partners to incorporate into policies and programs based on a new cycle of community engagement, data analysis, and needs assessment. The City has developed goals and strategies that build upon the 2016 AFH, incorporate the recommendations of the draft 2022 AFH, and affirm the need to strengthen successful strategies while fostering innovative approaches to addressing barriers to affordable housing. In the next year, the City will work to implement these goals.

AP-85 Other Actions

Introduction

Philadelphia’s housing and community economic development needs do not exist in a vacuum. In a city with a 21.7% poverty rate, underserved communities, and an aging housing stock (much of it still containing lead paint), and with an array of public, nonprofit, and private actors seeking to improve these conditions – strategic, coordinated actions are a must.

When the City, as part of its Assessment of Fair Housing, identified its goals and priorities, it also identified program partners. Those program partners include other city agencies, regional and state agencies, fair housing advocates, housing developers, service providers, lenders, funders, and investors. Working with these partners, the City will implement strategies to meet underserved needs, foster and maintain affordable housing, and reduce lead-based paint hazards.

Actions planned to address obstacles to meeting underserved needs

The City faces several obstacles to meeting the needs of underserved populations. Obstacles are listed below, along with a description of the actions planned to address them:

High rates of eviction overburden homelessness prevention programs and hinder residents’ ability to find stable housing: To address this obstacle, the City will continue to implement and improve eviction prevention programs, including the Eviction Diversion Program, Targeted Financial Assistance, and Right to Counsel. Through local ordinance, landlords are required to participate in the Eviction Diversion Program for 30 days prior to filing for eviction. Tools utilized in the program, like housing counseling for tenants, mediation sessions between landlord and tenant, and Targeted Financial Assistance payments to clear a tenant’s rent arrears, are proven to lower eviction filing rates. Right to Counsel (RTC), a program that provides tenants with free representation in eviction cases, continues to expand geographically. In FY 2023 and 2024, the RTC service area increased from two to five zip codes, and the City plans to expand RTC to two additional zip codes in FY 2025.

The high burden of proof for residents establishing income eligibility to qualify for programs: The City is seeking approval from HUD and exploring ways to use proxies for income verification. Currently, households eligible for multiple services delivered by different publicly funded organizations are required to complete income certification for each program. This is a time-consuming process for the household as well as the program administrators. Using one source record for certifying income to establish eligibility across multiple programs should reduce the number of households denied and reduce the time from application to service delivery. Further, this will allow the City to allocate more funding to programs rather than to the administration of those programs.

The need for more investment in small businesses and neighborhood amenities: Commercial activity and neighborhood amenities like libraries, parks and recreation centers help to strengthen communities. However, they can be negatively affected by factors such as rising costs, deferred maintenance, and extreme weather events. The City will continue to invest in small businesses and neighborhood amenities to help them become resilient and thriving. Commerce Department programs like the Taking Care of Business Program, the Storefront Improvement Program, the Targeted Corridor Revitalization Program, and Neighborhood Economic Development Grants help retail corridors combat blight and provide needed employment opportunities. Rebuild Philadelphia will continue to make investments in neighborhood parks, libraries, and recreation centers.

Actions planned to foster and maintain affordable housing

The City implements a series of programs and strategies to foster and maintain affordable housing. To maintain the existing stock of housing that is affordable to low-income Philadelphians, the City funds a series of home improvement programs, including the Basic Systems Repair Program; Heater Hotline; Restore, Repair Renew; and the Rental Improvement Fund. Launched in FY 23, the Rental Improvement Fund offers a suite of loan products to small landlords to repair their rental properties. Loans are eligible for full forgiveness or a preferable 0% interest rate if landlords meet program affordability requirements during the loan term.

DHCD supports other programs to help low-income households maintain housing stability, including programs to resolve tangled title issues, and Neighborhood Energy Centers to help households reduce energy costs. Finally, DHCD has long supported housing counseling to prevent foreclosure, to prepare potential low- and moderate-income homeowners for homeownership, and to address the specialized affordable housing needs of tenants, people with disabilities, and senior citizens.

To foster affordable housing opportunities for people with disabilities the City supports the Adaptive Modifications Program, which makes existing homes more accessible for its occupants. DHCD's project selection criteria also include requirements for accessible and visitable units.

The City takes actions to foster new affordable rental and homeownership housing opportunities. DHCD issues an RFP annually for new rental and special needs housing. It supports housing counseling, a necessary step to receive closing cost assistance to help residents purchase a home. The City leverages private sector investment through density bonuses to create affordable housing in high-opportunity neighborhoods. Turn the Key utilizes publicly-owned land to build new affordable housing units for first-time homebuyers with income up to 100% AMI.

In FY 2024, DHCD issued an RFP to finance the acquisition of rental housing developments to preserve affordable units, as well as an RFP to finance the development of rental and special needs housing. In FY 2025, DHCD plans to issue a rental housing RFP to address existing Low Income Housing Tax Credit units in need of capital improvements.

Actions planned to develop institutional structure:

In 2017, the City of Philadelphia reorganized its planning, zoning, and housing institutional structure. This was initiated by a change in Philadelphia's City Charter approved by voters in November 2015. The charter change, effective July 1, 2017, created the Department of Planning and Development (DPD). DPD includes the Division of Housing and Community Development, the Art Commission, the City Planning Commission, the Division of Development Services, and the Historical Commission. It also closely coordinated work with partner agencies the Philadelphia Land Bank, Philadelphia Housing Development Corporation (PHDC), and the Philadelphia Redevelopment Authority (PRA). In 2019, the staff and vision for PHDC, PRA, and the Philadelphia Land Bank were consolidated under the PHDC umbrella. Although the agencies still have individual boards and powers to execute specific functions, this consolidation enabled increased transparency and efficiency. The Mayor also created the Health and Human Services Cabinet to better coordinate anti-poverty, health, and social services efforts. Lastly, city departments addressing housing issues meet on a monthly basis to ensure the City's housing strategies are well coordinated. These changes have been successful in City-wide efforts to increase access to housing and community resources.

To that end, in 2018, the City completed an intensive strategic planning process to create a comprehensive 10-year housing action plan, Housing for Equity: An Action Plan for Philadelphia. This process brought together several plans that had been developed in the City such as the Assessment of Fair Housing; the Philadelphia 2035 Comprehensive Plan and the District Plans created by the City Planning Commission; and the Homelessness Housing Plan. Integrating these plans into one living, actionable, and accountable strategy enables the City to better prioritize activities, allocate resources, and deliver and facilitate enough housing to house all Philadelphians.

In 2019, the Philadelphia Housing Development Corporation (PHDC) and the Philadelphia Redevelopment Authority (PRA) took additional steps to streamline housing-related programs and processes by combining under the PHDC umbrella. Employees of PRA became PHDC employees and the operations of the two agencies began to take place under PHDC. PRA will continue to exist to perform specific statutory functions, as will the Philadelphia Land Bank, whose employees were moved to PHDC in 2018.

Late in FY 2023, the management and operations of the Philadelphia Eviction Prevention Project (PEPP) were transferred from the Managing Director's Office to the Division of Housing and Community Development. This institutional change consolidated eviction prevention programs under one umbrella and ensured that their operations are consistent and coordinated with the operations of other housing and community development programs.

HUD's 2022 allocation of Community Development Block Grant (CDBG-DR) funding for recovery from Hurricane Ida to the City also caused a development in institutional structure. A new unit was created within the City's Budget Office to help manage the planning and implementation of the grant. The CDBG-DR unit is uniquely positioned to convene stakeholders to discuss recovery efforts in housing, economic revitalization, and infrastructure improvements while working closely with DHCD on administering the grant.

Although the City did not identify any gaps in the institutional structure in its 2022-2026 Consolidated Plan, the City will continue to adapt its institutional structure and service delivery systems as circumstances and resources change. The City will continue to evaluate the changing composition of its population and expand existing affordable housing resources and develop new ones to meet the needs of its residents where funding allows. In addition, the new mayoral administration is focused on affordable housing as evidenced in Mayor Cherelle Parker's First 100 Days plan, and DHCD will be working with the administration to help achieve its goals. A long history of collaboration between city agencies means that will continue delivering services and addressing priority needs.

Actions planned to reduce lead-based paint hazards

Lead poisoning is the number one environmental health problem among young children. Lead poisoning can impair the way a child develops, pays attention, and learns; and can cause severe brain damage, seizures and, in rare cases, even death. The successful prevention of this disease depends upon: the elimination of the sources of lead, the education of the population on how to protect children, the screening of children up to age 6 for lead, the inspection of homes for lead hazards, and the elimination of the lead hazards in homes. The Lead and Healthy Homes Program combines all of these strategies to work towards the elimination of childhood lead poisoning in Philadelphia.

Our program goal is to decrease, and eventually eliminate, the number of children who are poisoned by lead in the City of Philadelphia. In order to educate Philadelphia residents, our staff will conduct approximately 200 educational outreach presentations in homes. We will provide lead prevention education and resource information at OB/GYN clinics and other venues to parents of young children.

We will encourage parents to have their children screened for lead poisoning through continued community education and outreach. We will remind health care providers to screen children because of the regulations concerning universal screening in the City of Philadelphia. The LHHP will work with managed care organizations to identify and respond to gaps in lead screening.

Our Environmental Health Inspectors conduct environmental inspections in a timely manner for all homes of children with confirmed elevated blood lead levels. We provide case management services to all families with children with elevated blood lead levels, ensuring that the family receives: lead poisoning prevention education, home lead risk assessment, superclean referral, assistance with lead hazard control (if needed), and assurance that the child receives the appropriate medical follow-up.

Actions planned to reduce the number of poverty-level families

According to U.S. Census data, in 2022, close to 330,000 Philadelphians had incomes below the federal poverty line, which in 2022 was $27,750 for a family of four. At 21.7%, Philadelphia's poverty rate remains the highest among the nation's ten largest cities. The poverty rate for children under the age of 18 is 28.8%

Philadelphia's poverty rate declined by 4 percentage points since 2017, with approximately 66,250 fewer residents living below the poverty level in 2022. Mayor Cherelle Parker's administration will continue to support the investments in education, workforce development, family supports, and economic inclusion that have shown recent success, while also prioritizing collaborative, cross-departmental approaches to fostering greater economic mobility. The Parker administration is also committed to ensuring that all Philadelphians are able to enjoy clean, safe streets, and to addressing the disparities in quality-of-life measures that can accelerate decline and despair in under-resourced neighborhoods. A summary of the actions that are being taken to reduce the number of households living in conditions of poverty are outlined below.

Education

To ensure future prosperity for all of its residents, the City of Philadelphia will strive to a world-class education for students of all ages and socio-economic backgrounds. To accomplish this goal, the Parker Administration will rely on innovation, strategic investments, and new approaches to address long-standing challenges, such as the chronic underfunding of public schools, the deteriorated state of many of the city's K-12 school facilities, and the need for more year-round enrichment and career supports.

- Modernization of Public-School Facilities: The Mayor's Office of Education will convene a cross-section of leaders from the School District of Philadelphia, City Council, state elected officials, education advocates, parents, teachers, unions, and private sector partners to craft an actionable plan for school building modernization, including identifying a sustainable funding source and a reliable, effective delivery system.
- Full-Day/Year-Round School Initiative: The City will provide support for a new full-day/year-round school initiative, enabling students to receive educational enrichment through the year and reduce the risk of "summer slide," with schedules that work for working families. The initiative, which will be overseen by the Mayor's Office of Education, will launch in 20 pilot schools in fall 2024 and will be coordinated with existing City initiatives, such as PHLpreK, Philadelphia Out-Of-School Time, and Head Start.
- Strengthening Partnerships with Community College of Philadelphia (CCP): The Octavius Catto Scholarship, which is open to income-eligible CCP students, combines last-dollar tuition with a financial aid award of up to $1,500 per semester, per student for basic needs supports such as food, books, and transportation. The Parker Administration is proposing an additional $10 million allocation to CCP, building on the significant increase in financial support under the prior Administration, to ensure that low-income students can attend CCP for free and receive the critical wraparound supports to help them succeed. The added funding will also support the creation of a pipeline from CCP to City employment and quality jobs. The curriculum for this new workforce initiative will be informed by the skills and capacities needed for high-priority roles in City government, and will enable CCP students to gain real-world experience while preparing them for future employment in the public sector.

Affordable Housing

Philadelphia's investment in affordable housing development and in initiatives to improve housing stability provide the foundation for building the kind of safe and healthy living environment needed for families and individuals to successfully begin their journey out of poverty. The COVID-19 pandemic created an urgent need for rental assistance, especially for extremely low-income families and workers employed in highly impacted occupations such as retail, sales, food service, and construction. In May 2020 DHCD and PHDC launched the PHL Rent Assist program, which provided emergency rental assistance to eligible households that fell behind in their rent payments. Throughout the multi-phased program, 46,500 households have received approximately $299 million in emergency rental assistance. DHCD, in partnership with several public and private nonprofit agencies, also administers the City's nationally recognized Eviction Diversion Program, which seeks to reduce the number of eviction filings and involuntary displacements by resolving disputes between landlords and tenants through professional mediation and housing counseling support. Since the program got underway in September 2020, over 6,000 cases have received mediation, with agreements reached in more than 60% of cases.

Through the Philadelphia Eviction Prevention Program (PEPP), the City also invests in legal counsel and other supports to keep low-income tenants in their homes. PEPP partners provided legal advice or representation to a total of 3,284 clients in FY23. The Lawyer of the Day (LOTD) program offers same-day legal services to tenants facing eviction, the Tenant Hotline provides information and advice to tenants, and the Right to Counsel initiative provides free legal representation to tenants with incomes below 200% of the federal poverty level who are facing eviction. In FY 2022, the Right to Counsel program was rolled out in zip codes 19139 and 19121, and in FY 2023 and FY 2024 expanded to zip codes 19132, 19144 and 19134. In FY 2025, the City plans to expand RTC to two additional zip codes.

Benefits Access and Financial Counseling

Philadelphia's BenePhilly program, operated in partnership with Benefits Data Trust with funding support from the Office of Community Empowerment and Opportunity (CEO), helps families to bolster and stabilize their household resources by providing streamlined eligibility screening and application assistance for more than 24 public benefits programs, including Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), and the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program

(LIHEAP). In the last calendar year the BenePhilly Centers and CEO's Benefits Access Mobile Unit helped individuals complete more than 6,200 applications for public benefits, leading to 3,590 confirmed enrollments valued at more than $7.6 million. CEO also partners with Clarifi to operate seven Financial Empowerment Centers, which offer free one-on-one financial counseling. Since launching in 2013, the FECs have completed 38,525 sessions for 17,429 unique individuals, and helped participants reduce their debt by $21.56 million and increase their savings by $4.28 million. The FECs have also helped 2,330 clients increase their credit score by at least 35 points and have helped over 900 clients open safe and affordable bank accounts.

The Earned Income Tax Credit (EITC) has long been regarded as one of the most effective anti-poverty programs in the nation. CEO and the Mayor's Policy Office are working with partners such as Campaign for Working Families and Ceiba to help more eligible Philadelphians claim both the EITC and the Child Tax Credit (CTC). In 2023, these and other partners filed 14,275 tax returns generating more than $36 million in tax refunds and/or credits for Philadelphia residents.

Adult Education and Workforce Development:

The City's approach to workforce development recognizes that young people and adults need access to not just a job, but rather a family-sustaining career. The task of connecting career seekers to job opportunities is carried out across several programs that address the specific needs of different segments of the labor force;

- Low-Barrier Employment: CEO's Same Day Work and Pay (SDWP) program provides a community of practice for several programs that offer similar low-barrier employment opportunities. Participating agencies include the Mural Arts Program, the Philadelphia Horticultural Society, Uplift Solutions, First Step Staffing, and the City's Community Life Improvement Program (CLIP). SDWP participants, many of whom are homeless, formerly incarcerated, or lacking a high school education, are offered support services and an on-ramp to potential employment opportunities. They work a daily shift of about 3.5 hours and get paid between $50 and $100. In 2023, SDWP engaged 1,588 unique participants who completed 6,358 daily jobs.
- Fair Chance Hiring Initiative: The Fair Chance Hiring Initiative (FCHI), administered by the City's Commerce Department, supports local businesses and justice-involved Philadelphia residents by providing financial incentives through wage reimbursements and employment retention grants. FCHI disbursed over $171,500 in FY23 and placed 40 individuals into employment. The Commerce Department has also seen a reduction in turnover at FCHI participating businesses: between FY21 and FY23, the employee retention rate increased by 19 percentage points — from 48% to 67%.
- Through Commerce's Workforce Solutions Grants program, the City invests in organizations that pursue evidence-informed approaches to workforce development. In 2022, three organizations were awarded program funding, resulting in 81 Philadelphians completing training, and 73 being offered employment at an average wage of $17.70 per hour. Three new organizations were selected for the program in January 2023, representing growing industries such as information technology, human resources, and the life sciences.

The City's 2016 Community Needs Assessment identified transportation as a major barrier to employment, especially for residents below the poverty line. To address this barrier and advance transportation equity, Philadelphia launched the Zero Fare program, a two-year pilot that provides free SEPTA passes for up to 25,000 Philadelphia residents living near or below the poverty-line. Eligible participants are selected by lottery and auto enrolled, so that no application is needed. The City conducted outreach to selected residents through text messages and phone calls, and partnered with community-based organizations to distribute the SEPTA passes.

City Council's Poverty Action Plan

On March 3, 2020, Philadelphia City Council, in cooperation with the Mayor's Office and non-profit partners, released the Philadelphia Poverty Action Plan. The Action Plan includes a core goal to raise 100,000 residents out of poverty through a series of people-focused innovations across the domains of housing, employment, education, and the social safety-net. In 2021, the City invested $10 million to create the Philadelphia Poverty Action Fund. The Fund, which is administered by the United Way of Greater Philadelphia and Southern New Jersey, provides funding support to "scalable community-based strategies to reduce the number of Philadelphians living below the poverty line." The Promise is the public-private partnership made up of City, government, the United Way and non-profit stakeholders, that is working together to identify and implement evidence based anti-poverty strategies. Through the Promise's Family Stability Challenge, four coalitions representing 32 organizations helped families across the city secure an estimated $104.8 million in combined tax refunds and public benefits serving an estimated 92,100 individual clients. In 2022, the Promise started the Jobs and Opportunities Challenge, which is helping to remove barriers to employment through legal services and expungement of criminal records for justice-involved job seekers. Since 2022, program partners held 45 record clearing clinics and resource fairs, resulting in approximately 1,500 successful record sealings, expungements and/or pardons.

By making poverty alleviation a top priority across City departments, the City of Philadelphia will continue to seek opportunities to coordinate the work of these and other programs that share an underlying goal of extending resources and opportunity to help struggling households gain economic stability and ultimately achieve their longer term financial and career goals.

Actions planned to enhance coordination between public and private housing and social service agencies

The Philadelphia agencies – both public and private – that develop, fund, and implement the City’s Annual Action Plan and the housing and community development programs within it have a long history of collaboration.

Within the City, the Division of Housing and Community Development, Office of Homeless Services, and the Commerce Department lead the City’s efforts, in consultation with and with support from the Mayor’s Office of Community Empowerment and Opportunity, the Philadelphia City Planning Commission, the Philadelphia Historical Commission, and the Philadelphia Land Bank. Many of the procedural steps necessary to complete a development require coordination between City agencies related to planning and development, so having these agencies located under one institutional structure will improve that coordination.

The lead agencies coordinate with state-level agencies – the Department of Community and Economic Development, the Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency, the Philadelphia Housing Authority, and the Philadelphia Redevelopment Authority. Working with lead City agencies in the local nonprofit sector are PHDC (formerly Philadelphia Housing Development Corporation), community development corporations, neighborhood advisory committees, housing counseling agencies, social services agencies, the Local Initiatives Support Corporation, and the Community Design Collaborative. Private developers, banks, architects, engineers, contractors, landlords, and others support the provision of affordable housing in Philadelphia.

The success of the coordination between these entities is evidenced by community development corporations leveraging DHCD funding to attract private capital through PHFA tax credits; housing counselors partnering with the legal community to save homes from foreclosure; the City’s Point-In-Time count conducted by volunteers from the public, nonprofit, and private sectors; linkages between vacant land management and reintegrating citizens returning from prison into the community and the workforce; and private nonprofits coordinating home repairs with PHDC.

The City leads the processes that result in these collaborative efforts through ongoing structured processes such as the development of the Annual Action Plan, the Continuum of Care, the HIV Housing Planning Committee and other standing committees, and through the willingness to explore and pilot new collaborations such as in home repair, vacant land, and returning citizen initiatives.

HOME Investment Partnership Program (HOME) Reference 24 CFR 91.220(I)(2)

■ HOME Investment Partnership Program (HOME)

➤ CHDO set aside

Typically, DHCD's Policy and Programs Unit tracks the expenditure of HOME funds to ensure that a minimum of 15% is set aside for qualified Community Housing Development Organizations (CHDO). The reservation of funds is made within 24 months after HUD notifies the City of the execution of the HOME Investment Partnership Agreement, as required by regulation. The City commits funds to specific projects as projects are ready to go to financial closing. The law requires that CHDOs need to have paid employees on staff (part-time is acceptable)..

Other forms of investment being used beyond those identified in Section 92.205

The proposed HOME activities do not include other forms of investment as described by 92.205(b).

Guidelines that will be used for resale or recapture of HOME funds when used for homebuyer activities as required in 92.254, is as follows:

If the property is offered for resale during the period of affordability, DHCD will impose one of several options to assure compliance with the HOME requirements.

■ Option 1

The Resale Option will apply when the HOME assistance is used to provide a subsidy to a developer to cover the difference between the cost to develop the housing and the market price of the housing ("Development Subsidy"). This Option ensures that the house remains affordable throughout the affordability period. The requirements of the Resale Options are as follows:

- a) The purchaser must be a low-income buyer and must occupy the property as his/her principal residence for the remainder of the affordability period. A low-income buyer is one whose annual household income ranges from 50% to 80% of the median income for the Philadelphia area as determined by the Department of Housing and Urban Development or as otherwise approved.
- b) The purchase price of the property by the buyer cannot exceed an "affordable price."
An affordable price is the lower of:
 - 1) The purchase price paid by the buyer to acquire the property, which price may be increased annually by an amount equal to 10% (10%) of the buyer's original purchase price; or
 - 2) The amount of $180,000 increased annually at a rate of 2%.

- c) The seller of the property will be entitled to receive a “fair return” on his/her investment, which will consist of the seller’s equity (down payment paid by seller at the time of his/her purchase, principal payments made on any loan used to acquire the property, the cost of any capital improvements) and a share of the net proceeds from the sale (sale price less seller’s equity) to be determined by the City on a project-by-project basis. The above conditions and restrictions will be incorporated in a mortgage securing repayment of the Development Subsidy. The mortgage will remain in full force and effect for the period of affordability from the date of its execution.

■ Option 2.

Under the Resale Option, based upon a market analysis of the neighborhood, the City may elect to presume that certain housing projects meet the resale restrictions during the period of affordability without the imposition of any enforcement mechanism against the subsidized housing. In accordance with HOME program regulations, the City will document the affordability of the neighborhood to satisfy the HOME resale requirements.

■ Option 3

The Recapture Option will apply when the HOME assistance is used to provide a subsidy to a low-income homebuyer (“Direct Subsidy”) to reduce the purchase price of the property from fair-market value to an affordable price. This option allows the City to recapture all or part of the Direct Subsidy if the HOME recipient sells the property to any buyer within the affordability period. The amount of Direct Subsidy that is recaptured will be reduced on a pro-rata basis for the time the homeowner has owned and occupied the house measured against the required affordability period. The recapture amount will not exceed the net proceeds available to the homebuyer from the sale.

Guidelines for resale or recapture that ensures the affordability of units acquired with HOME funds. See 24 CFR 92.254(a)(4) are as follows:

Properties must remain affordable for five to 15 years, depending on the amount of HOME assistance provided per unit. Rehabilitated properties receiving less than $15,000 per unit must remain affordable for a minimum of five years. Rehabilitated properties receiving $15,000 to $40,000 per unit must remain affordable for a minimum of 10 years. Rehabilitated properties receiving more than $40,000 in HOME assistance must remain affordable for at least 15 years.

Plans for using HOME funds to refinance existing debt secured by multifamily housing that is rehabilitated with HOME funds along with a description of the refinancing guidelines required that will be used under 24 CFR 92.206(b), are as follows:

The City does not intend to use HOME funds to refinance debt secured by multifamily housing that is rehabilitated with HOME funds.

If applicable to a planned HOME TBRA activity, a description of the preference for persons with special needs or disabilities. (See 24 CFR 92.209(c)(2)(i) and CFR 91.220(I)(2)(vii)).

In FY 2024 the City will continue to utilize a preference for its HOME TBRA program in serving homeless and special needs populations.

If applicable to a planned HOME TBRA activity, a description of how the preference for a specific category of individuals with disabilities (e.g. persons with HIV/AIDS or chronic mental illness) will narrow the gap in benefits and the preference is needed to narrow the gap in benefits and services received by such persons. (See 24 CFR 92.209(c)(2)(ii) and 91.220(I)(2)(vii)).

The City may provide HOME-funded TBRA to very low and low income persons with behavioral health disabilities receiving supportive services through the City of Philadelphia’s Department of Behavioral Health and Intellectual Disabilities Services (DBHIDS) Supportive Independent Living (SIL) Program. Responding to the opioid epidemic and its aftereffects, several Philadelphia leadership tables are working to ensure that persons managing substance abuse disorders can access the housing and services they need to thrive. Inpatient detoxification and rehabilitation, outpatient treatment and long-term residential treatment are available through the Department of Behavioral Health and Intellectual disAbility Services. Depending on client need and funding availability, these programs are coupled with rental subsidies to provide permanent supportive housing that can buttress system users’ efforts to maintain their sobriety. Philadelphia has ranked first nationally among large cities as both the poorest and having the highest percentage of disabled residents. The correlation between disability and poverty is well documented. These factors, coupled with Philadelphia’s extreme shortage of affordable housing, warrant a need to aid these disadvantaged populations.

If applicable, a description of any preference or limitation for rental housing projects. (See 24 CFR 92.253(d)(3) and CFR 91.220(I)(2)(vii)). Note: Preferences cannot be administered in a manner that limits the opportunities of persons on any basis prohibited by the laws listed under 24 CFR 5.105(a).

Special-Needs Developments are targeted towards projects that provide permanent supportive housing for those individuals and families that meet the Department of Housing & Urban Development’s (HUD) definition of homeless (see Appendix page 19). Depending on HUD funding constraints, preference may be given to those projects seeking to serve a specific subpopulation – generally this refers to households that meet the HUD definition of chronically homeless. Developers are encouraged to implement a Housing

First approach (see Appendix page 20) and provide or arrange for supportive services for all participants necessary to maintain their housing and live independently.

Emergency Solutions Grant (ESG)) – Reference 91.220(I)(4)

Written standards for providing ESG

■ Emergency Shelter

Homeless Services has Emergency Housing Standards that all contracted providers must meet. The guiding principles ensure that all people living in emergency housing receive:

- a safe environment;
- treatment with dignity and respect; and
- provision of housing and related services without regard to race, ethnicity, age, gender, disability, or sexual orientation.

Emergency housing programs provide:

- Safe, temporary emergency shelter;
- Housing-focused, person-centered, strengths-based case management services;
- Assistance with obtaining housing;
- Referrals to supportive services for special populations; and
- A savings program to enable clients to save income toward housing.

HUD’s definition of homelessness determines eligibility for shelter. When possible, centralized intake staff divert households to resources for securing housing options other than shelter placement. The Vulnerability Index — Service Prioritization Decision Assistance Tool (VI-SPDAT) assessment is used to make appropriate referrals through the City’s coordinated entry system.

Intake interviews at facility entry must include reviewing of client rights, assessment information in HMIS, and program expectations. Within five to ten days, case managers must begin collaborative and interactive service planning that includes client input about goals, accounts for client strengths and capabilities, and address challenges to obtaining and sustaining housing, including income sources. Clients must have biweekly case management meetings and regularly scheduled progress reviews by teams including case management, behavioral health, and emergency housing staff. In turn, case managers must prepare clients for planned termination from the program and complete exit interviews and HUD exit assessments in HMIS. When behavior threatens safety, the provider may restrict or end program participation. Clients have a right to appeal these decisions. Both electronic (HMIS) and hard copy records are required for all households in emergency housing.

■ Rapid Re-housing and Prevention

Sharing the goal of providing resources and services to secure stable, permanent housing and prevent a return to housing crisis, rapid re-housing services focus on people currently in emergency housing programs. This population meets the HUD definition of “literally homeless.” Conversely, prevention services focus on people “at risk” of homelessness. HUD’s definition of “at risk” includes annual household income below 30% of area median and a lack of sufficient resources or support networks to prevent literal homelessness.

Staff may provide prevention services to families with children and unaccompanied children and youth who are defined as homeless under federal statutes but not under the ESG definition.

After a household contributes 30% of its monthly income to rent, rapid re-housing may provide rental assistance for up to 12 months for the remaining balance. Providers may also cover back rent to six months or offer financial assistance with security deposits, utilities, or moving costs, making all payments to third parties. Households receive assistance with locating, securing, and stabilizing in affordable housing. Staff must track intake and service information in HMIS. Each household may receive rapid re-housing assistance for up to 24 months over any three-year period. Homeless prevention assistance will only be provided once within a 12-month period.

Continuum of Care Coordinated Assessment System

Philadelphia’s Coordinated Entry Process, locally called Coordinated Entry and Assessment-Based Housing Referral System (CEA-BHRS), is a process designed to coordinate program participant access, assessment, and referrals to homeless assistance services and housing. The CoC Board approved the CEA-BHRS Policies and Procedures Manual on January 11, 2018, and CEA-BHRS is being implemented to meet all requirements outlined in 24 CFR 576.400(d), 24 CFR 578.7(a)(8), and Notice CPD-17-11. The Office of Homeless Services is responsible for the day-to-day operations and oversight of CEA-BHRS.

There are multiple physical locations where households who are at risk of or are currently experiencing homelessness can present for assistance. In addition, Mobile Assessors connect those living in an unsheltered location who typically don’t, or won’t, access the system to ensure access to CEA-BHRS using the same standardized process as those who access CEA-BHRS through site-based access points. CEA-BHRS utilizes standardized assessment tools and applies a consistent assessment process. Philadelphia uses a phased assessment approach and each phase only includes questions needed to refer a household at that point. This allows for stabilization in emergency housing or safe haven before a more intensive assessment of housing needs and eligibility is conducted. The Phase I Screening and Triage assessment occurs at Access Points and collects basic demographic information to create an HMIS record, a safety screening, a prevention/diversion screening, and if a household cannot be prevented/diverted, a crisis services intake assessment collects the information necessary to place a household in an emergency shelter. The Phase II assessment occurs once a household is stabilized in a safe haven or emergency shelter and includes the Vulnerability Index –

Service Prioritization Decision Assistance Tool (VI-SPDAT), a project eligibility screening, and information on housing needs and preferences.

Prioritization factors for transitional housing, rapid re-housing, and permanent supportive housing include the following: severity of service needs (VI-SPDAT score), verified chronic homeless status, length of time homeless, and if the household is currently living in an unsheltered situation. The prioritization order is managed using a Prioritized By-Name-List, which is generated by HMIS during the prioritization process and serves as the basis of the CEA-BHRS referral process. The Office of Homeless Services' Supportive Housing Clearinghouse serves as the CEA-BHRS Centralized Referral Entity and manages the process of referring households to available transitional Housing, rapid re-housing, and permanent supportive housing programs. All projects receiving funding from the CoC Program, ESG Program, or the City of Philadelphia Office of Homeless Services are required to participate in CEA-BHRS and use the CEA-BHRS referral process as the only source from which to fill vacancies.

Eligible households are not limited in the number of referrals they can refuse; but receiving programs may only deny a referral made by the Clearinghouse for limited reasons. Those reasons consist of the following: being unable to contact the household; household being ineligible for the program; the household being a no-show for two interview appointments; or if the household cannot be safely accommodated or cannot meet participant requirements with the supports provided. In the rare instances of referral denial, the Receiving Program must document the reason for the decision and communicate to the household the reason for the denial, along with instructions for appealing the decision. All projects participating in CEA-BHRS are required to have project-level appeal procedures in place.

HMIS manages all data related to CEA-BHRS and electronic referrals are made through HMIS. This ensures privacy protections of all participant information. Quality and effectiveness of CEA-BHRS is monitored by the Performance Management and Housing Units via reports, data analysis, case conferences, feedback from providers and CoC board committees. Additionally, it is evaluated through feedback from participating projects and households. This is done through an annual assessment by a third-party contractor. This feedback is used to make necessary updates to policies and procedures.

Process for Making Sub-Awards and ESG Allocation Available to Private Nonprofit Organizations (Including Community and Faith-Based Organizations)

In 2023-24, DHCD will continue to assign the administration of ESG funds to the City's Office of Homeless Services under a Memorandum of Understanding. Homeless Services in turn awards all of these funds to private nonprofit subrecipient organizations through contracts for the provision of services. To identify ESG funding sub-recipients, Homeless Services issues competitive requests for proposals (RFPs) to nonprofit housing assistance providers.

Although funding allocations are not made on a geographic basis, Homeless Services ensures that residents citywide can access all services. In the case of emergency shelter, Homeless Services manages the centralized access points, where staff assess individuals seeking shelter, assessing, diverting or preventing them from becoming homeless if possible, and, as a last resort, referring them to an emergency shelter bed, space permitting. With regard to rapid re-housing and prevention activities, subrecipients must serve individuals throughout the city.

Outreach to and Consultation with Homeless or Formerly Homeless Individuals in Considering Policies and Funding Decisions Regarding Facilities and Services Funded under ESG

The Office of Homeless Services meets the homeless participation requirement for this reporting period.

Performance Standards for Evaluating ESG

Homeless Services will continue to use the six HUD System Performance Measures to evaluate the progress of the Philadelphia Continuum of Care in its efforts to make homelessness rare, brief, and non-recurring.

Homeless Services will continue to solicit feedback from community stakeholders within the Philadelphia Continuum of Care regarding local performance targets. In addition, they will continue to assess needs and gaps based on benchmarks and goals approved by the CoC board.

■ Emergency Shelter

To evaluate Emergency Housing activities funded by ESG, Homeless Services tracks the following performance standards:

- Average length of stay (Benchmark = 120 days)
- Percentage of persons who exit to permanent housing (Benchmark = 48%)
- Timeliness of HMIS submissions and quality of HMIS data (Benchmark = Entry Timeliness = 90%, Exit Timeliness = 90%, Data Quality = 90%)

■ Rapid Re-housing

To evaluate Rapid Re-housing activities funded by ESG, Homeless Services tracks the following performance standards:

- Percent of persons who exit to permanent housing (Benchmark = 79%)
- Timeliness of HMIS data entry and quality of HMIS data (Benchmark = Entry Timeliness = 90%, Exit Timeliness = 90%, Data Quality = 90%)

■ Homelessness Prevention

To evaluate homelessness prevention activities funded by ESG, Homeless Services tracks the following performance standard:

- Number /percentage of participants who did not enter the homeless system as a result of homeless prevention activities and support (Benchmark = 1400)
- Average length of financial assistance (Benchmark = 90 days)

HOPWA

HOPWA funding is used to support rental assistance in the form of rent subsidies to those who can live independently, as well as emergency grants to prevent homelessness, and for supportive services associated with housing and housing operating costs. DHCD housing sponsors remain the same as in the previous year. DHCD considers that as long as housing sponsors are performing satisfactorily, it would be detrimental to participants receiving rental assistance and other housing/supportive services to have service disrupted. If new HOPWA funds are made available to the region, the City would ensure that a fair sponsor selection process would be put into place. In the Bensalem Township area, the following Family Service organizations provide HOPWA rental assistance, supportive services, and permanent housing placement to residents with HIV/AIDS as funding allows: Family Services of Chester County; Family Service Association of Bucks County; Family Services (of Montgomery County). The following details HOPWA spending for HUD Year 49:

Selection Criteria for Rental and Special-Needs Projects

Neighborhood-Based Rental production activities are designed to respond to the housing affordability crisis by producing more affordable housing units through rehabilitation and new construction. The Division of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) believes that the creation and maintenance of viable residential neighborhoods involve a combination of homeownership, rental and special-needs units.

DHCD's investment in affordable rental and special needs housing is intended to create strong, sustainable communities with a mix of housing at varied price points that serve households with differing needs. The criteria in this section are designed to maximize private financing, support neighborhood strategic planning and minimize public subsidies.

DHCD reserves the right to select the source of funds for each rental project. DHCD reserves the right to alter these criteria as necessary to ensure consistency with national objectives and with the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Department of Community and Economic Development (DCED) and Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency (PHFA) guidelines, regulations, policy and funding levels. At a minimum, DHCD will review and, if needed, revise the criteria annually.

A. Threshold Criteria

1. Projects must be consistent with the organizing principles for housing investment:
 - Facilitating economic growth by encouraging and leveraging investment;
 - Reversing decline by directing resources to strong but threatened blocks and weakening neighborhoods that show signs of decline;
 - Investing in struggling communities and preserving affordability in appreciating markets; and
 - Promoting equity by providing affordable, accessible housing to low-income, elderly and special-needs citizens.
2. The following are the total subsidy limits administered by DHCD (CDBG, HOME, HTF and NPI):
 - $3 million 9% Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) projects
 - $3 million 4% LIHTC Preservation and New Construction/Rehabilitation projects
 - $2 million or $75,000/unit non-LIHTC Preservation and Production Projects

Proposals with requests higher than the amounts listed above from DHCD will not be considered
 Note: the maximum subsidy limits above are subject to change.

3. Priority will be given to Projects that request less than allowed subsidy amount and leverage other resources.
4. Project costs must meet at least one of the following guidelines (Cost Containment Policy):
 - a. A maximum of $225 per square foot (replacement cost plus developer's fee); or

- b. A per unit replacement cost not to exceed 120% of HUD Section 234 condominium housing mortgage limits for elevator-type projects multiplied by the highest percentage for Philadelphia
- c. Developers who meet the Passive House Requirements for energy efficiency can exceed the Cost Containment Policy by 10%.
- d. Housing developments where the replacement costs exceed the Cost Containment Policy the developer must utilize a competitive bidding process to procure and select a general contractor. Please be advised, the Philadelphia Housing Development Corporation (PHDC) does not grant waivers for this requirement.

The 120% of Section 234 condominium housing mortgage limits is:

	Efficiency	1 Bed	2 Bed	3 Bed	4+ Bed
Non-Elevator/Elevator	$233,565	$267,747	$325,588	$421,206	$462,351

The above maximum mortgage limits are subject to change.

- 5. Developers must comply with local, state and federal regulations including wage rate and applicable MBE/WBE/DSBE, HUD Section 3 and Neighborhood Benefit Strategy requirements, and energy and construction specifications as required by DHCD and PHDC.
- 6. While environmental abatement costs associated with site clean-up will be considered separately, developers must submit a Phase 1 environmental survey with a request for financing that involves new construction or the rehabilitation of buildings that were previously used for commercial or industrial purposes.
- 7. All affordable rental housing projects must meet the following Set-Aside Requirements:
 - Physical disability 10%
 - Hearing and Vision Disability 4%
 - Homeless and Special Needs 10%. Rental Projects exceeding the 10% requirement will be given priority.

All referrals for Homeless and Special Needs units are required to be filled via referrals from the Supportive Housing Clearinghouse. In many cases, individuals referred from the Supportive Housing Clearinghouse will come with a behavioral health service package.

The City of Philadelphia supports the concept of visitability for accessible housing design and encourages all housing developers to include visitability design features. To the extent feasible, all new-construction housing development projects must include visitability design features. This includes at least one no-step entrance at either the front, side, back or through the garage entrance. All doors (including powder/bathroom entrances) should be 32 inches wide and hallways and other room entrances at least 36 inches wide.

- 8. All housing projects developed with City housing funds must comply with the City’s Model Affirmative Marketing Plan (MAMP) that requires developers receiving City funds to market accessible housing units to the disabled community on the Home Finder website (www.newsontap.org) for a 30-day period prior to marketing accessible and non-accessible housing units to the general public.

9. Some developments successfully receive LIHTCs from PHFA without a commitment of financial support from the City. Those developments are not eligible for funding provided through City RFPs.

B. Criteria for Special Needs Projects Only

Special-Needs Developments are targeted towards projects that provide permanent supportive housing for those individuals and families that meet the Department of Housing & Urban Development's (HUD) definition of homeless (see Appendix page 19). Depending on HUD funding constraints, preference may be given to those projects seeking to serve a specific subpopulation – generally this refers to households that meet the HUD definition of chronically homeless. Developers are encouraged to implement a Housing First approach (see Appendix page 20) and provide or arrange for supportive services for all participants necessary to maintain their housing and live independently.

C. Financial Analysis

1. The developer's fee, which is meant to compensate the developer for staff time, effort and work involved in the development of the project, developer's expenses, overhead and profit. All consultant's fees and organizational costs are required to be paid from the developer's fee. These fees may not be listed as separate line items in the development budget.
 - Developer Fee for non-LIHTC new production and preservation projects is limited to 10% of replacement costs (less acquisition costs). Developers may apply for and receive a developer's fee up to 15%, however, developer's fees earned in excess of the maximum allowed by the City must be reinvested in project reserves such as operating deficit, rent subsidy and social services.
 - DHCD will allow the developer fee for 4% and 9% LIHTC projects to be consistent with the allowable amount approved by the Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency.
 - For all projects, DHCD will not consider request for additional funding unless 50% of the developer fee is reinvested in the project.
 - DHCD reserves the right to require a larger than 50% reinvested developer fee, in cases when projects are under construction or are substantially complete and the developer requests additional funding from the City.
2. Project must demonstrate sufficient cash flow to cover projected operating, reserve, debt service, and necessary social/support service expenses.
3. Architect, engineering and legal fees shall be governed by the cost limits for those items included in the most recent Pennsylvania Housing Finance Agency Underwriting Application Cost Limits.
4. Rent-up costs incurred should be limited to pre-operational expenses incurred during the 120 day period prior to initial occupancy and shall not exceed $1,200 per unit, or $600 per unit for Preservation projects.

5. Furniture and Equipment will be limited in total development cost to $1,000 per unit unless the development has significant community space.
6. Construction contingency must be 5% for new-construction projects and is not to exceed 10% for rehabilitation and preservation projects. Consideration will be given to project size and property condition when determining the amount of contingency. For projects where the construction contract is a guaranteed maximum price, a contingency may be waived by PHDC. When there is no general contractor, construction management costs may not exceed 5% of total construction costs. If there is a general contractor and architectural supervision during construction, no construction management fee will be allowed.
7. Developers requesting exceptions to the above criteria must provide written justification to PHDC. PHDC will review the request and forward comments to DHCD. DHCD may approve or deny the waiver request.

D. Cost Efficiency

Projects that leverage a larger percentage of private and non-DHCD resources will be given priority in the evaluation process. Priority will be given to those projects that can be designed and constructed for less total dollars, as well as less City subsidy dollars. In addition, financing requests that can reduce costs below the stated maxima will be given a priority.

E. Developer Profile

A developer will submit a written summary of completed and current development activity. DHCD/PHDC will examine the developer's past performance in completing DHCD-funded projects, general capability and capacity levels, and current tax and financial status of partners involved in the project. A developer's past performance with wage and MBE/WBE compliance be heavily weighted.

DHCD/PHDC will deny funding for a developer who has outstanding municipal liens, other judgments and/or code violations against his/her property(ies), and who has not demonstrated the technical or financial capacity to complete projects. Prior to making any funding commitment, DHCD/PHDC will ensure that the developer supplies acceptable references from past clients and supplies evidence that he/she has consulted the community about the proposed project prior to submitting a proposal to DHCD. Developers must be tax compliant prior to project closing.

F. Neighborhood and Community Impact

1. The project should increase the supply of decent, affordable rental units for low-income people and special-needs populations.
2. The project must eliminate a blighting condition in the community or provide affordable housing in appreciating or strong markets.
3. The developer must demonstrate an effort to encourage participation or representation by the occupants and/or the community. DHCD/PHDC will consider community support in evaluating projects.

4. Projects must be consistent with approved Neighborhood Strategic Plans or Philadelphia City Planning Commission District Plans if applicable.
5. The developer must submit an affirmative marketing plan to PHDC for review and approval prior to marketing. The plan must ensure the units will be marketed in accordance with all local, state and federal fair housing laws.

Development Process

Neighborhood-Based Rental activities are administered by the PHDC in accordance with DHCD policy. PHDC reserves the right to require additional documentation and information necessary to assess project feasibility. All projects are subject to review by PHDC's Housing staff and approval by the PHDC or Philadelphia Redevelopment Authority (PRA) Board of Directors.

1. DHCD will issue Request For Proposals for projects seeking gap financing for affordable rental and special needs projects. Proposals will be reviewed by an interagency group comprised of representatives of DHCD, PHDC, the Commerce Department, the Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA), the Office of Homeless Services, and the Philadelphia City Planning Commission. Developers selected for funding will receive a funding commitment letter from DHCD. The letter will also remind developers that they must meet all underwriting requirements and secure any additional funding commitments in order to receive financing. The DHCD funding commitment is contingent upon receipt of tax credit financing. Failure to receive tax credit and other required financing will render the DHCD invalid.
2. The developer and development team will meet with PHDC within 60 days from the date that developer secures other financing, if required. In addition, PHDC will request the Philadelphia City Planning Commission to begin the Environmental Review process.
3. During the design development phase of the project, project costs will be reviewed and evaluated by PHDC. Developers may be required to provide additional information regarding steps that they have taken or will take to ensure the cost effectiveness of the project. PHDC may recommend design, financing and budget changes to ensure the cost-effectiveness of the project.
4. Projects anticipating PHDC/PRA Board approval and settlement must submit the following documentation in accordance with the project schedule that was established by PHDC and the developer at the initial development team meeting:

Special-Needs Definitions

■ Homeless person

Persons assisted with permanent supportive housing must be homeless and come from:

1. places not meant for human habitation, such as cars, parks, sidewalks, and abandoned buildings;
2. an emergency shelter and/or Safe Haven;
3. transitional housing for homeless persons and who originally came from the streets or emergency shelter.

If a person is in one of the three categories above, but most recently spent 90 days or less in a jail or institution, he/she qualifies as coming from one of these three categories.

■ Disabled Persons

Either the head of household or a person (could be a child) in the household must be disabled based on the following definition:

1. A disability as defined in Section 223 of the Social Security Act;
2. Having a physical, mental, or emotional impairment that (a) is expected to be of long-continuing and indefinite duration, (b) substantially impedes an individual's ability to live independently, and (c) is of such a nature that such ability could be improved by more suitable housing conditions;
3. A developmental disability as defined in Section 102 of the Developmental Disabilities Assistance and Bill of Rights Act; or,
4. The disease of acquired immunodeficiency syndrome (AIDS) or any condition arising from the etiological agent for AIDS or
5. A diagnosable substance abuse disorder.

A disability may be physical or mental, including developmental, or an emotional impairment, including impairment solely due to alcohol or drug abuse. Persons living with HIV/AIDS are considered disabled for the purposes of this program.

■ Chronically Homeless Individuals/Families – HUD Definition

Chronically homeless means:

1. A "homeless individual with a disability," as defined in the Act*, who:
 - Lives in a place not meant for human habitation, a safe haven, or in an emergency shelter; and
 - Has been homeless (as described above) continuously for at least 12 months or on at least four separate occasions in the last three years where the combined occasions must total at least 12 months. (Occasions separated by a break of at least seven nights and stays in institution of fewer than 90 days do not constitute a break.)
2. An individual who has been residing in an institutional care facility for fewer than 90 days and met all of the criteria in paragraph (1) of this definition, before entering that facility; or
3. A family with an adult head of household (or if there is no adult in the family, a minor head of household) who meets all of the criteria in paragraphs (1) or (2) of this definition, including a family whose composition has fluctuated while the head of household has been homeless.

■ Housing First

Housing First is a model of housing assistance that is offered without preconditions (such as sobriety or a minimum income threshold) or service participation requirements, and rapid placement and stabilization in permanent housing are primary goals.

* Homeless Emergency Assistance and Rapid Transition to Housing Act (HEARTH)

■ Permanent Supportive Housing

Permanent Supportive Housing for Persons with Disabilities is long-term, community-based housing and has supportive services for homeless persons with disabilities. This type of supportive housing enables special needs populations to live as independently as possible in a permanent setting. The supportive services may be provided by the organization managing the housing or coordinated by the applicant and provided by other public or private service agencies. Permanent housing can be provided in one structure or several structures at one site or in multiple structures at scattered sites. In this type of housing, no more than 16 persons may be housed in one structure – or an explanation is required as to how local market conditions necessitate a program of the proposed size, and how “neighborhood integration” can be achieved for the program participants.

2016 Assessment of Fair Housing

The federal Fair Housing Act prohibits housing-related discrimination because of race, color, religion, sex, familial status, national origin or disability. The U. S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the agencies that receive HUD funding to implement its programs – such as the City of Philadelphia and the Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA) – must not discriminate, and must also use those programs to affirmatively further fair housing. To implement that charge, HUD adopted an Affirmatively Furthering Fair Housing (AFFH) rule on July 16, 2015 and issued a Rule Guidebook on December 31, 2015. The AFFH rule requires fair housing planning, the first step of which is completing an Assessment of Fair Housing (AFH).

The City and PHA’s 2016 Assessment of Fair Housing was the result of significant research and data analysis, as well as a robust community engagement process, and the goals were informed by public input. An outline of the goals and a list of stakeholders who participated in the 2016 AFH process are included below.”

Written Standards for Providing ESG Assistance

Emergency Shelter

Homeless Services requires all contracted emergency housing providers, including those receiving ESG funds, to comply with its Emergency Housing Standards. The Emergency Housing Standards were created to provide City contracted agencies with a clear set of guidelines and requirements for the operation of emergency housing facilities in Philadelphia. Homeless Services is currently in the process of revising these standards, but the guiding principles will remain ensuring individuals and families living in emergency housing

- a safe environment
- treatment with dignity and respect
- provision of housing and related services without regard to race, ethnicity, age, gender, disability, or sexual orientation.

The Office of Homeless Services and its contracted emergency housing agencies provide the following services to facilitate self-sufficiency and independence:

- Safe, temporary emergency shelter;
- Housing-focused, person-centered, strengths-based case management services;
- Assistance with obtaining housing;
- Referrals to supportive services for special populations such as children, clients with disabilities, clients with behavioral health needs, veterans, etc.; and
- A savings program to enable clients to save income toward housing.

Homeless Services intake provides a centralized access point for households experiencing homelessness and in need of emergency housing services. Short-term accommodation is based on an assessment of needs for vulnerable individuals and families to resolve an immediate housing crisis. When possible, households are diverted to other suitable resources, either within Homeless Services or within the community, for the purpose of exploring housing options other than shelter placement. A Homeless Services social worker will explore housing options and alternatives with the client such as the feasibility of staying with relatives or friends. After assessing the client's situation, a determination is made to refer to either a contracted emergency housing program or other appropriate resources that meet the household's needs. Households must meet HUD's definition of homelessness for placement into emergency housing. By 2018, intake staff a Vulnerability Index - Service Prioritization Decision Assistance Tool (VI-SPDAT) assessment will enable appropriate referrals through the City's coordinated entry system (details above).

Emergency housing staff must conduct an intake interview with all clients at entry to the facility or within 24 hours after the referral of the client to the facility. The intake interview must be conducted in a private area and must include a review of Client Rights and a review and update of client entry assessment information in HMIS. Clients admitted during the weekend must receive an intake interview the next business day.

Emergency housing staff must provide all clients with an orientation to the program that includes a review of emergency housing participation requirements and expectations.

A case manager must initiate contact with clients within 3 to 5 days after referral to the assigned facility and/or assignment of the case and must conduct an initial interview with the client within 5 to 10 days of initial contact. This interview includes an initial assessment of the client's needs, to obtain information regarding the client and the client's situation. It also includes beginning to develop a service plan with the client that takes into account client strengths and capabilities. Service planning aims to address any challenges which impair/inhibit the client from obtaining and sustaining housing. The service planning process must be collaborative, interactive, and must include input from the client regarding goals.

The case manager must meet face to face with each assigned client on a biweekly basis to monitor the client's achievement of goals established in the service plan, making adjustments, additions, or deletions when necessary.

All providers are to establish a schedule for Client Progress Reviews (CPR). The CPR review team participants should include the client, case management staff, behavioral health staff, Department of Human Services staff, if appropriate, and emergency housing staff.

When a client plans to move on from emergency shelter, the case manager engages in a planned termination process to review with the client progress toward meeting housing goals and other service plan goals, to discuss the new responsibilities and challenges that accompany a new housing arrangement, and to assist the client with obtaining any resources needed to support the new housing arrangement. The case manager must conduct an exit interview and complete a HUD exit assessment in HMIS when the client exits the program.

There may be instances during the course of service provision, in which a client demonstrates behavior that threatens the safety of the client or others in the facility and that may present the need to restrict or terminate program participation. These prohibited behaviors include:

- Physical violence or threats of violence towards other clients or staff.
- Terroristic threats towards other clients or staff.
- Possession of a weapon.
- Destruction of property.
- Possession, sale, use, or distribution of drugs and alcohol.
- Persistent verbal abuse.
- Refusing reasonable mandatory searches conducted by staff and/or security.
- Illegal activity on site (Examples: Theft, rape, stealing).

The client has right to appeal the provider's decision to restrict/terminate them from services due to inappropriate/prohibited behavior.

Both an electronic record in the Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) and a hard copy record are required for all households in emergency housing.

Rapid Re-housing and Prevention

Rapid rehousing services target families and individuals who are currently residents of emergency housing programs. Prevention services target families and individuals at risk of homelessness. The goal of both is to allow households to secure stable permanent housing, either market rate or subsidized, by identifying housing options or working with existing subsidized housing providers and providing the household with the rental assistance, housing relocation, and stabilization services needed to prevent a return to homelessness.

Households may receive short- or medium-term rental assistance for up to 12 months and financial assistance with security deposits, utilities or moving costs. Households will receive assistance with locating and securing affordable housing. All households that receive more than one month's rent or utility assistance will also receive Housing Stabilization Services. Housing Stabilization Services may include housing and budget counseling and referrals/linkages to other services as needed. All intake and service information must be tracked in HMIS.

Each household is limited to a maximum of 24 total months of rapid rehousing assistance over the course of any three-year period. If arrearage assistance is provided, the number of months should be included in the total months of assistance, not to exceed 24 months. Homelessness prevention assistance will only be provided once within a twelve-month period.

Citizen Participation Plan

Citizen Comment on Citizen Participation Plan

The Division of Housing and Community Development (DHCD) believes that citizen participation and planning are central to the success of neighborhood revitalization efforts. Because of limited resources, government's direct impact on a neighborhood will always fall short of its needs. A neighborhood revives when its residents are confident that it can improve. Residents then contribute their time, energy and finances to the process. Such confidence will grow from direct involvement in revitalization programs sponsored by government and the private sector. Accordingly, DHCD adopts the following Citizen Participation Plan as part of its Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan and sets forth the City's policies and procedures for citizen participation.

Encouragement of Citizen Participation

DHCD encourages citizen participation in its housing and community development program – including the development of the Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan, substantial amendments to the Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan, and the Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report – in a variety of ways. (In the context of this plan, “citizen” refers to any member of the public wishing to provide input to DHCD.) As required, DHCD takes appropriate actions to encourage the participation of all residents, including low- and moderate-income persons, particularly those living in revitalization areas, slums and blighted areas and in areas where CDBG funds are proposed to be used, minorities, non- English speaking persons, persons with disabilities and residents in general of predominantly low- and moderate- income neighborhoods.

DHCD also encourages the participation of local and regional institutions, Continuums of Care, and other organizations, including businesses, developers, nonprofit organizations, philanthropic organizations, and community-based and faith-based organizations in the process of developing and implementing the Consolidated Plan and the Annual Action Plan.

DHCD, in conjunction with the Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA), encourages the participation of residents of public and assisted-housing developments, including any resident advisory boards, resident councils and resident management corporations in the process of developing and implementing the Consolidated Plan and the Annual Action Plan, along with other low-income residents of targeted revitalization areas in which the developments are located. DHCD provides information to PHA about the Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan activities related to its developments and surrounding communities so that PHA can make this information available at the annual public hearing required for the PHA Plan.

To encourage citizen participation, DHCD funds a network of Neighborhood Advisory Committees (NACs) to serve residents of low- and moderate- income areas by coordinating City services, conducting block surveys, promoting CDBG-funded programs, preparing neighborhood plans, and commenting on proposed housing and community development projects. NAC service areas by and large track those areas with minority concentration and low- and moderate-income concentration. Similarly, the Commerce Department funds neighborhood-based business associations located in key target areas for investment.

DHCD further promotes citizen involvement in its program by producing press releases, blog posts and social media posts, as well as encouraging citizens to sign up for a mailing list that as of April 2021 had approximately 2,000 persons on it. In addition, public hearings are held as described below and a Proposed Consolidated Plan and/or Proposed Annual Action Plan is published in order to elicit public input and comment. Those hearings and those Plans are publicized through ads in a newspaper of general circulation, e-mails to the mailing list, the DHCD website and social media.

Language Access Needs

In 2015 the citizens of Philadelphia voted to approve an amendment to the Philadelphia Home Rule Charter requiring City agencies to develop and implement a Language Access Plan. In May 2016 Mayor Jim Kenney issued an executive order launching Language Access Philly, a city-wide program designed to bridge the access gap by making it easier for residents with Limited English Proficiency (LEP) to obtain essential public information and services. The executive order also identified the Office of Immigrant Affairs, formerly known as the Mayor's Office of Immigrant and Multicultural Affairs, as the lead agency for the development and implementation of Language Access Plans. Under the guidance and direction of the Office of Immigrant Affairs, and by analyzing Limited English Proficiency data provided by HUD, DHCD assessed the language needs of non-English-speaking residents in Philadelphia, developed its Language Access Plan, and has identified and is implementing reasonable steps to provide language assistance, including translation of notices and other vital documents, to ensure meaningful access and participation.

Development of Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan

DHCD follows a public engagement process that provides the public with multiple opportunities to review and comment during the development of the Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan prior to submission to HUD.

Needs Assessment

Prior to developing its Consolidated Plan or Annual Action Plan DHCD holds a hearing to solicit comment on the previous year's performance and the housing and community development needs in Philadelphia. This hearing will be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation and publicized on DHCD's website, via an email to DHCD's electronic mailing list and through social media. The ad in the newspaper will note the availability of the Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report, or CAPER, which outlines the previous year's performance.

Proposed Consolidated Plan or Annual Action Plan

DHCD makes available every five years a Consolidated Plan and each year a Proposed Annual Action Plan for review and comment by residents, public agencies and other interested parties. The Annual Action Plan includes the amount of assistance that the City expects to receive (including grant funds and other income), the range of activities that the City proposes to undertake, including the estimated amount that will benefit persons of low and moderate income. The City's Relocation Plan, which sets forth the City's plan to minimize the displacement of persons and to assist any persons displaced, even if the City expects no displacement to occur, is also included. This information is made available prior to a public hearing (see below) on the DHCD website and in other locations (see below).

The contents of the Proposed Consolidated Plan and/or Proposed Annual Action Plan are briefly summarized and its availability is advertised in a newspaper of general circulation, as required by regulation. Copies are made available to citizens on the DHCD website. In addition to the newspaper ad, the availability of the Proposed Consolidated Plan and/or Proposed Annual Action Plan is publicized on the DHCD website, via an e-mail to DHCD's electronic mailing list and through social media.

DHCD provides a period for public comment of not less than 30 calendar days for the Annual Action Plan following the publication of the Proposed Plan(s). During this period Philadelphia City Council holds a public hearing to obtain citizen input into the Consolidated Planning process and as part of the process to pass the ordinance – to which the Consolidated Plan or Annual Action Plan is an attachment – authorizing the City to apply to HUD for CDBG, HOME and other funding.

Public notice is provided consistent with City Council's own rules regarding public notice for public hearings. Comments offered during the comment period and at this hearing are incorporated into the Final Consolidated Plan and/or Final Annual Action Plan.

Final Consolidated Plan or Final Annual Action Plan

Prior to preparing a Final Consolidated Plan or Final Annual Action Plan, DHCD will consider any comments or views of residents of the community received in writing or orally at the public hearings. A summary of these comments or views, and a summary of any comments or views not accepted and the reasons why will be included in the Final Consolidated Plan or Final Annual Action Plan.

Amendment Policy

Under federal regulations, the Citizen Participation Plan must specify the criteria the City will use for determining what changes in the City's planned or actual activities constitute a substantial amendment to the Annual Action Plan. The City realizes these requirements ensure that the public is informed of decisions that would affect them and give citizens adequate opportunities for review and comment.

Annual Action Plan Substantial Amendment Guidelines

In compliance with federal requirements, the criteria for a substantial amendment to the Annual Action Plan are when:

- the City decides not to carry out an activity¹ originally described in the Annual Action Plan;
- the City decides to carry out a new activity or an activity not specifically identified in the Annual Action Plan;
- there is a substantial change in the purpose of an activity, that is, a change in the type of activity or its ultimate objective. For example, an amendment would be required if a construction project originally designed to be residential is ultimately proposed to be commercial;
- there is a substantial change in proposed beneficiaries, such as a change in income, area benefit or limited clientele;
- there is a change in the use of CDBG funds from one eligible activity to another;
- there is a reduction of greater than 25% of total activity category funding.

Other situations could also arise that involve a substantial change to a proposed activity. In such cases, the City will amend its Annual Action Plan to ensure that citizens are informed of proposed changes and to allow for public input.

Whenever an amendment to the Annual Action Plan or the Citizen Participation Plan is proposed, the City will provide notice of the proposed amendment to the individuals and organizations on DHCD's electronic mailing list, publish notice of the proposed amendment in a newspaper of general circulation, guidance as to where it may be reviewed, and a means of submitting written comments. A minimum of five calendar days will be provided for the public to comment in writing for an amendment to Annual Action Plans 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 and a minimum of 30 calendar days for subsequent Annual Action Plans and the Citizen Participation Plan. The newspaper notice will indicate that if no comments are received, the City will proceed with adoption of the amendment without further notification. The notice will also state that the public may receive a copy of the finalized amendment upon request.

¹ For purposes of local regulations, "activity" is defined here as a program, such as Basic Systems Repair Program, or a budget category, such as Interim Construction Assistance, if there is no program identified under the budget category.

If comments or views are received, they will be considered before adopting the amendment. If the City deems appropriate, it will modify the proposed amendment. A summary of these comments or views, and a summary of any comments or views not accepted and the reasons why, will be attached to the substantial amendment.

The City will submit a description of the adopted amendments to HUD. If comments have been received, the City will publish notification of the availability of the finalized amendment in a newspaper of general circulation. This notification will state that the public may receive a copy of the adopted amendment upon request.

Local regulations additionally require that the CDBG Plan (now part of the Annual Action Plan) must be amended when a revenue line item is proposed to change by at least 10% and at least $500,00 based on new revenues or revenues either falling short of or exceeding projections for that fiscal year. In this situation, the City will follow the notification and comment process outlined above.

City Council will schedule a public hearing to allow for citizen participation. Notice of public hearings held by City Council will be in accordance with Council's public notice requirements. If the City is unable to hold open public hearings in person, the City will be allowed to hold virtual public hearings at which the public will be able to comment.

If the amendment is approved by City Council as submitted, it will be adopted after the hearing. If the hearing results in a revision that is ultimately adopted by City Council, the City will publish notification of the availability of the revised amendment in a newspaper of general circulation. This notification will state that the public may receive a copy of the finalized amendment upon request.

The City will submit a description of the adopted changes to HUD.

Cancellation of a Proposed Amendment

If the City decides not to finalize a proposed amendment, it will advertise its intention to cancel the proposed amendment in a newspaper of general circulation.

Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report

DHCD publishes annually a Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER), and makes a draft of the report available for citizen review and comment. The contents of the draft CAPER are briefly summarized and its availability advertised in a newspaper of general circulation, as required by regulation. Copies of the CAPER are made available to citizens on the DHCD website, at selected public libraries and a reasonable number of copies are available for free directly from DHCD. In addition to the newspaper ad, the availability of the CAPER is publicized on the DHCD website, via an e-mail to DHCD's electronic mailing list and through social media. DHCD provides a period of public comment of not less than 15 calendar days following the publication of the draft CAPER. DHCD considers any comments received in writing, or orally at public hearings, in preparing the CAPER. A summary of comments received or views is attached to the CAPER.

Public Hearings

DHCD and/or City Council holds at least two public hearings a year, each at a different stage of the program year, to obtain residents' views and to respond to proposals and questions. At least one hearing is held prior to publishing the Proposed Consolidated Plan or Proposed Annual Action Plan to obtain the views of residents on housing and community development needs and to review past program performance. At least one hearing to consider the development of proposed activities and proposed strategies is held in City Council after the publishing of the Proposed Consolidated Plan or Proposed Annual Action Plan and the submission of the Plan(s) to City Council. This hearing is held as part of City Council's adoption of the ordinance that authorizes the City to apply for funding.

Each hearing is advertised in a newspaper of general circulation, as required by regulation. In addition to the newspaper ad, notice of the hearing is publicized on the DHCD website, via an e-mail to DHCD's electronic mailing list and through social media. Hearings are held at times and places convenient to actual and potential beneficiaries and that are accessible to persons with disabilities. Upon request, DHCD provides translators for its public hearings where a significant number of non-English speaking residents can be reasonably expected to participate.

DHCD and City Council hearings may be held in a virtual format. Instructions as to how the public may comment will be provided.

Access to Local Meetings

DHCD will provide at least two weeks' notice of DHCD-sponsored public hearings and public meetings that are part of the Consolidated Planning process. Notice of hearings held by City Council will be in accordance with Council's public notice requirements. At least one of any series of hearings or meetings will be held at a location that is accessible to physically disabled persons.

Availability to the Public and Access to Information

DHCD is committed to providing citizens, community organizations, public agencies and other interested parties with the opportunity to review information and records relating to the Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan and DHCD's use of assistance under the programs. Copies of the Consolidated Plan and Annual Action Plan as adopted, and the Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report are placed in the Government Publications departments of the Central, South Philadelphia, Northeast Regional, Northwest Regional and West Regional branches of the Free Library of Philadelphia and are available online at www.phila.gov/dhcd. Copies of revisions to the Annual Action Plan substantial amendments are available from DHCD. Sections of these documents will be translated into other languages or into other media upon request, including into forms accessible to persons with disabilities. Citizens and citizen groups will have access to public records for at least five years, as required by regulation.

Access to Records

DHCD provides residents of the community, public agencies and other interested parties with reasonable and timely access to information and records relating to the Consolidated Plan and the Annual Action Plan and to the use of assistance under the programs covered by the Plan for the preceding five years.

Technical Assistance

DHCD participates in a structured program of technical assistance to help neighborhood-based organizations and other groups representative of persons of low- and moderate-income participate in housing and community development programs. This program of technical assistance may include information about commenting on and in developing proposals for funding assistance under any of the programs covered by the Annual Action Plan. In addition, DHCD funds citizen participation in income-eligible areas of the City through the NACs and similar community-based nonprofit organizations.

Citizen Complaints

DHCD considers all resident complaints on the Consolidated Plan, Annual Action Plan, any amendment, any revisions and the annual performance report. Where practicable, DHCD will provide a written answer to written complaints within 15 working days. If not practicable, DHCD and its delegate agencies will respond within 15 working days, stating the reasons for the delay.

Emergency Citizen Participation Plan

When a Declaration of an Emergency has been declared by the President of the United States, the Governor of Pennsylvania, or when restrictions and/or guidelines are issued by the City of Philadelphia, DHCD will follow the following process for public hearings and public display of plans.

- If DHCD is unable to hold open public hearings in person, DHCD will be allowed to hold virtual public hearings through conference calls or an online video conference platform as long as the public is able to provide public comments during the virtual public hearing.
- If DHCD is unable to publicly display materials at the locations referenced in the Citizen Participation Plan, they will be made available online at www.phila.gov/dhcd and DHCD will provide copies of the plan via email upon request.
- If the City Council is unable to conduct an open public forum meeting, the City then can approve the plans at a City Council meeting through an on-line virtual City Council meeting.
