

The Philadelphia Homestead Exemption saves homeowners money on their Real Estate taxes.

To be eligible you must own the property and live in it as your primary residence. There are no age or income requirements. You only need to apply once unless your deed changes.

Final deadline to apply for the Homestead Exemption is December 1 of each year. Early filers should apply by October 1 to see approval reflected on their next Real Estate Tax bill. Applicants approved after this date will receive a second bill. If you have questions about the Homestead Exemption, call the Homestead Hotline at (215) 686-9200.

2 Property Information

Is this property your primary residence?

YES ☐ NO ☐

A primary residence is where you intend to reside permanently until you move to another home. You may be asked to provide proof that this property is your primary residence, such as your driver's license or voter registration card.

Do you claim anywhere else as your primary residence?

YES ☐ NO ☐

The Homestead Exemption can be claimed only once for a place of primary residence in Philadelphia. You may not claim this property as your primary residence if: you claim another property as your primary residence, receive a tax abatement, are enrolled in LOOP, or have another Homestead benefit.

Is this residence part of a cooperative where some or all the taxes are paid jointly?

YES ☐ NO ☐

If you live in a unit of a cooperative and you pay all or a portion of your property taxes jointly through a management agent or association, rather than paying your taxes separately from other units, check yes. If you answered yes, please indicate your percentage of ownership.

If yes, what _____%

Is part of the property used as a business or rental property?

YES ☐ NO ☐

Check yes if the property for which you are seeking a Homestead Exemption is used for other purposes, such as a business or rental property. Please indicate what percentage is used for that purpose.

If yes, what _____%

Did you purchase this property after December 1?

YES ☐ NO ☐

New homeowners who bought their primary home in December may be eligible. Please include documentation, such as a copy of your settlement sheet or deed. Do not send originals.

If yes, when _____
