HISTORICAL COMMISSION – TREASURE PHILLY!

Shannon Garrison, Kristin Hankins, and Izzy Korostoff are working on expanding the Historical Commission's Treasure Philly! project. In 2022, The Department of Planning & Development received a grant of $250,000 from the William Penn Foundation to develop and pilot a historic resource survey program, now branded Treasure Philly! Since 2022, the Treasure Philly! team has been exploring ways to engage with populations and histories not currently reflected in the properties listed on the Philadelphia Register of Historic Places. Through the project, the Department of Planning and Development is expanding the traditional understanding of preservation to include a wider range of tools and more comprehensive understanding of cultural heritage. The Treasure Philly! report on the work done under the William Penn Foundation grant is finalized and publicly available at phlpreservation.org. In fall of 2025, the Treasure Philly! team began documenting the cultural history of Frankford. The Treasure Philly! team continues to work at Broad, Germantown, and Erie, focusing on the neighborhoods around Hunting Park, and further documenting Germantown Avenue. On 6 November 2025, Ms. Hankins gave a presentation on Treasure Philly! and outreach to historic churches in Frankford at a town hall meeting convened by State Rep. Dawkins.
