

ACTIVITIES OF THE PHILADELPHIA HISTORICAL COMMISSION STAFF AUGUST 2026

DESIGN REVIEW

Design review continues to be the staff's primary task, with all Historical Commission staff members collaborating on the processing of building permit applications. The permit reporting utility in eCLIPSE, the Department of Licenses and Inspections permit management system, indicates that 252 permit applications were approved for historically designated properties in August 2026; 104 of those approvals were conditioned. The eCLIPSE system also indicates that 24 permit applications were rejected with a request for revisions. Finally, one adjacent property review was conducted in eCLIPSE. The staff conducted an additional 66 detail reviews outside of eCLIPSE.

DESIGNATION

Designation tasks occupy much of the staff's time. Nearly all staff time not devoted to design review is dedicated to designation-related tasks.

As of 8 September 2026, the staff was continuing the reviews of six nominations.

The Committee on Historic Designation did not meet in August 2026.

Kim Chantry, Alex Till, and Jon Farnham are reviewing a nomination for a Tulpehocken Historic District. The Preservation Alliance submitted the nomination on 16 January 2026. The staff determined that the photographs provided for the inventory were of insufficient quality. Therefore, the staff retook photographs for the inventory during March 2026.

Alex Till is working with community members on a potential Wissahickon Historic District.

Heather Hendrickson was working on a potential historic district in the Pelham section of W. Mount Airy, but the nominator, the West Mount Airy Neighbors, abandoned the effort.

Allyson Mehley and Alex Till are working on a Falls Village Historic District proposed by the East Falls Historical Society.

Jon Farnham is reviewing a nomination for a Chestnut Street West Historic District, which was submitted by the Center City Residents' Association.

Ted Maust is working on an amendment to the Northwest Philadelphia Apartment Historic District with the West Mount Airy Neighbors community association.

The staff is working on several individual nominations.

FINANCIAL HARDSHIP

The Committee on Financial Hardship did not meet in August 2026.

ARCHES

The staff continues to add documents, photographs, data, and metadata to the City's Arches installation. Philadelphia's installation of Arches has been named PlatForm for the first map of the City of Philadelphia, which William Penn called a "Plat-Form." Arches is an open source, web- and geospatially based, customizable information system that was purpose-built by the Getty Conservation Institute and World Monuments Fund to inventory and manage immovable cultural heritage. Currently, Platform includes information on 12,265 resources. It is available at <https://phlhistory.phila.gov/>.

HISTORICAL COMMISSION – TREASURE PHILLY!

Shannon Garrison, Kristin Hankins, and Izzy Korostoff are working on expanding the Historical Commission's Treasure Philly! project. In 2022, The Department of Planning & Development received a grant of $250,000 from the William Penn Foundation to develop and pilot a historic resource survey program, now branded Treasure Philly! Since 2022, the Treasure Philly! team has been exploring ways to engage with populations and histories not currently reflected in the properties listed on the Philadelphia Register of Historic Places. Through the project, the Department of Planning and Development is expanding the traditional understanding of preservation to include a wider range of tools and more comprehensive understanding of cultural heritage. In fall of 2025, the Treasure Philly! team began documenting the cultural history of Frankford. The team has participated in numerous events in Frankford related to the neighborhood's history. Treasure Philly! Frankford is currently building on its 22 January 2026 meeting of historic Frankford churches and 27 February event exploring designations for historic Frankford churches by scheduling individual site visits with churches interested in moving forward with designation and/or programming. Gail McCormick of the Historical Society of Frankford and Kristin Hankins are working together on outreach. Several other Historical Commission staff members are participating in site visits and working with churches interested in designation. Kristin Hankins shared information about Treasure Philly! Frankford at the Tacony Community Arts Festival on 1 August and at the Historical Society of Pennsylvania's History on the Street event on 29 August. On August 4, Staff members met with representatives of St. James Lutheran Church on 4 August and representatives of St. Mark's Church, Frankford on 6 August to discuss church history, designation, plans for public programs, and archival preservation. On 8 August, Kristin Hankins shared information about Treasure Philly! Frankford at the St. Mark's Church, Frankford back-to-school event. On August 28, Kristin Hankins attended an art exhibit hosted by the Historical Society of Frankford to discuss youth engagement in Treasure Philly! Frankford activities.

Treasure Philly! has not only developed a methodology for building relationships with communities through sustained engagement and partnerships, but it has also developed a plan for ongoing survey work. For the last few years, the Historical Commission's staff has been conducting survey work. As part of the Treasure Philly! pilot, the staff surveyed over 1000 buildings around Broad, Germantown & Erie. Since the pilot wrapped up, the staff has continued to survey in that area while expanding community engagement efforts in Frankford. Additionally, smaller surveys were also conducted as part of the Planning Commission's proposed remapping of Hunting Park and South Street. While the Historical Commission remains committed to Arches and is using Arches every day to store and analyze site-specific data, the Department of Planning and Development has developed a simpler, less expensive system for storing and displaying the survey data; the new system has been designed so that the data can be easily ported into Arches once additional Arches funding is procured. Over the past year, Planning and Development's GIS team has developed a mapping utility that can be used for survey efforts. That map will be updated in real time as surveying work happens throughout the city. It will also include previously collected data. The current timeline for sharing the map with the public on the Treasure Philly! website is early fall 2026.

HISTORIC PRESERVATION INCENTIVES

The Historical Commission's staff issued a zoning incentive letter for 2112 Walnut Street for CMX-3 uses in August 2026.

On 30 November 2023, the Court of Common Pleas denied the appeal. On 28 December 2023, the appellant appealed the lower court's decision to the Commonwealth Court. The Law Department and appellant are working towards an agreement to settle the case.
- Washington Square West Historic District
 - At its September 2024 meeting, the Historical Commission designated the Washington Square West Historic District. Attorneys at Ballard Spahr filed an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas on behalf of three property owners, Joshua Zugerman, Jonathan Hessney, and Colin Murphy, and a heretofore unknown organization, Philadelphians for Rational Preservation. Other individuals joined the appeal. Attorneys at Bochetto & Lentz filed a second appeal of the designation on behalf of the SandyCo Group LLC and Esbert LLC and two associated individuals. The first appeals are Case Nos. 241001831 and 241202813. The second appeals are Case Nos. 250101010 and 250101011. The Historical Commission filed its record in the case on 5 May 2025. Oral arguments were held on 19 February 2026. The court issued a decision, reversing the Historical Commission and granting the appeal on 26 February 2026; the decision removed the designation from the historic district. The Historical Commission appealed the decision to the Commonwealth Court, staying the decision and restoring the designation during the appeal. The Preservation Alliance petitioned the Court of Common Pleas to reconsider the matter with the Preservation Alliance treated as an appellee; the Alliance did not participate in the first set of hearings. On 30 March 2026, the court granted the petition, vacating its order of 26 February 2026, granting the Alliance and civic association appellee status, and directing the parties to file new briefs. As of 30 March 2026, the Washington Square West Historic District is considered designated. A hearing for new oral argument has not yet been scheduled.

- Southeast Spruce Hill Historic District
 - At its August 2024 meeting, the Historical Commission designated the Southeast Spruce Hill Historic District. Attorney Michael Phillips of Klehr Harrison filed an appeal of the designation to the Court of Common Pleas on behalf of several property owners. The appeal was Case No. 241101777. Attorney Michael Phillips of Klehr Harrison filed an appeal of the designation to the Court of Common Pleas on behalf of Sedgwick Gardens, a property owner. The appeal is Case No. 250300330. The schedule was extended yet again, and the latest scheduling order now indicates that the appellant's brief is due on 8 October 2026, the appellee's brief is due on 8 November 2026, and oral arguments will occur after 3 December 2026.
- 1330-36 Chestnut Street
 - At its December 2024 meeting, the Historical Commission designated the property at 1330-36 Chestnut Street, the former F.W. Woolworth Co. store. Attorney Michael Phillips of Klehr Harrison filed an appeal to the Court of Common Pleas on behalf of the property owner. The appeal is Case No. 250100684. The Historical Commission filed its record on 5 May 2025. The appellant filed its brief on 2 September 2025, the appellee filed its brief on 2 October 2025. - 156 W. School House Lane
 - The Historical Commission designated 156 W. School House Lane on 12 March 2021. The property owner, the Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, appealed the designation to the Court of Common Pleas. The court continued the case to give the appellant an opportunity to have the Historical Commission consider a financial hardship and necessary in the public interest application. The appellant submitted the application to the Historical Commission and the Historical Commission considered and approved it on 8 December 2023. A neighbor who opposed the application appealed the approval to the BLIR. The BLIR held a hearing on 30 July 2024. The BLIR announced its decision in the case, affirming the Historical Commission and denying the appeal on 27 August 2024.  - On 9 May 2025, the Historical Commission reconsidered and confirmed the designation of the former Grace Baptist Church of Germantown. Attorney Henry Clinton appealed the designation on behalf of the current owner of the property, Sanctuary Church of God in Christ, on 10 June 2025. The appeal is Case No. 250601250. The Historical Commission filed its record on 6 October 2025. The Law Department and the property owner's attorney reached a settlement to have the nomination remanded back to the Historical Commission to conduct a new review of the nomination with the property owner's counsel present.

- 520 Queen Street
 - On 14 August 2026, the Historical Commission denied the property owner's request to rescind the designation of the property at 520 Queen Street even though no historic resources exist at the site. An attorney representing the property owner appealed the denial to the Court on Common Pleas. The appeal is Case No. 260803667. The court has not yet issued a scheduling order.

ENFORCEMENT

With the Law Department and Department of Licenses & Inspections, the staff is pursuing numerous enforcement cases for unpermitted work, non-compliant work, and failure to maintain in good repair.

UNSAFE AND IMMINENTLY DANGEROUS CASES

The Historical Commission is working on a case at 502 S. 4th Street, where a property owner is claiming that a wall poses a danger of collapse.

SECTION 106

Shannon Garrison and Kristin Hankins are conducting federally mandated Section 106 reviews for the DHCD undertakings assisted by HUD. The Historical Commission has assumed all Section 106 reviews for the Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA) as part of a larger Department of Planning & Development effort to assume all responsibility for PHA's federal environmental reviews. The Historical Commission's staff along with the Law Department are monitoring efforts by the federal government to amend the regulations governing Section 106 reviews in such a way that the reviews would be rendered much less effective at preserving historic resources.

STAFFING

The Historical Commission did not have any staffing changes in August 2026.
