Frequently Asked Questions:

This question and answer piece is designed to assist our members and retirees by listing the types of questions pension counselors and staff receive on a regular basis. You can also contact one of our friendly and knowledgeable employees with questions specific to your situation.

Q: For the past five years I worked at the University of Delaware and have recently taken an exempt position with the City. May I purchase credit for the time I spent working at the University?

A: Yes. Prior employment with a state University is eligible for purchase. You should note, however, that as an exempt employee, your time cannot be used to meet your initial vesting requirement. You will need to work for the City for five years before you are eligible to receive a pension at retirement age. Furthermore, you may only purchase time for prior government service that does not entitle you to a pension from that employer.

Q: I spent eight years in the Army and am currently a member of the Philadelphia Police force. I am eligible to receive a pension based on my time in the Army. Can I purchase this service credit?

A: Yes. You may purchase up to ten years of eligible credited service. If you are receiving or entitled to receive a military pension, as long as your eligibility for a military pension is not the result of full-time service it may still be purchased.

Q: I’m a former firefighter that separated from employment six months ago, and I suffered an injury for which I am currently receiving workers compensation. How long do I have to file an application with the Board for a service connected disability pension?

A: The Retirement Code provides that an application must be filed within one year of separation. After that, and pursuant to Board regulations, permission to apply late must be granted by the Board.

Q: I’m 57 years old, a member of pension plan J, and currently receiving a pension from the City. Recently, I was offered the opportunity to return to the City as a full time employee in the Finance Department. If I accept, will I continue to receive my pension while I am working?

A: No. The Retirement Code provides that your pension benefits will be suspended while you are working again for the City.

Q: I’ve seen reminders from the Pension Board encouraging members to keep their beneficiary forms updated. Won’t my retirement benefits go to the person(s) I specify in my will?

A: No. By law, the Board must administer benefits to that person(s) listed on the form(s) on file with the Board. Keep your form(s) updated so that your benefits can be left to the person(s) of your choosing.

Q: I’m interested in saving additional money for my retirement. Are there other programs available to me beyond the defined benefit pension?

A: Yes. You may make voluntary contributions (directly from your paycheck) to a deferred compensation plan which is currently administered by Nationwide. Visit www.philly457.com for additional details and registration materials.

Pension Fund Performance & Market Commentary

Equity Markets

US equity markets produced the first negative calendar year return in a decade and the S&P 500 experienced the worst December in 87 years as volatility returned during the final three months of 2018. For the quarter, the Russell 3000 index was down 14.3%, the Dow Jones was down 11.3%, and the S&P 500 lost 13.5%. The International markets were not insulated from the market downturn. The MSCI EAFE Index lost 12.5% and the MSCI Emerging Markets Index lost 7.5% in the fourth quarter.

Several factors led to the sharp declines in Q4 2018: a fourth interest rate hike and continued hawkishness from the Federal Reserve, concerns about slowing economic growth and corporate earnings, worries about the possibility of an economic recession in the next 12-24 months, geopolitical tensions (e.g., Brexit), and renewed trade tensions between the U.S. & China.

Fortunately, the decline was short-lived. Hawkish sentiment abated and equity markets rebounded sharply in early 2019, recapturing most of fourth quarter losses. The S&P 500 was up 11.02% year-to-date through February 15.

Fixed Income

Fixed income provided some gains during the 4th quarter of 2018. The Barclays Aggregate index returned 1.6%. Yields on 10-year U.S. Treasuries dropped from 3.01% to 2.69% in December, and the Federal Futures market was projecting zero (0) rate hikes in 2019.

Pension Fund Returns

Through February 19, 2019, estimated returns for the Pension Fund (“Fund”) are +0.44% for the fiscal year and +6.49% for calendar year to date (2019).

For actuarial purposes, the Fund is measured on a fiscal year (July 1, 2018-June 30, 2019) basis, and the Fund returned over 13% and 9%, respectively, during the past two (2) fiscal years. The Trustees and Staff continue to maintain a balanced, well-diversified portfolio that includes over ½ of the Fund (inclusive of cash) being invested in low-cost index funds. We will continue to carefully seek the best investments available on behalf of our 64,000+ members and retirees.

For the fiscal year ending on June 30, 2018, the Pension Fund returned 9.01%, increased its funding percentage from 45.3% to 46.8%, and realized a positive annual cashflow. The Fund’s performance, along with recent plan design changes, project cost stability and funding improvement for the Philadelphia Pension Fund.
